According to unofficial advices received at the office of General Manager O'Brien of the Harriman line, the contracts for the tunnel for the Oregon & Washington line at Tacoma have been let and work will be rushed on the Tacoma terminals.

This tunnel will have its north portal between Twenty third and Twenty fifth streets and Jefferson avenue and Hood street, will be 8,700 feet long and have two tracks. It will have a maximum grade of 3.2 percent, and 400,000 cubic feet of earth will have to be excavated. Included in the plans are one half mile of steel construction and a new drawbridge.

The same road has plans for the construction of a large tunnel across the peninsula between the Columbia and Willamette rivers in Portland.

In connection with the reported agreement of the Oregon & Washington to go ahead with the construction work between Portland and Tacoma it is still being looked upon as a possibility that the Northern Pacific has sold to Harriman more than 60 pieces of property at Tacoma, Seattle and other points.

The $1,000,000 dividend recently declared by the Northwestern Improvement company, the holding company for Hill realty property in the northwest, was made up largely of the proceeds of the sale of the property.

The building is to be of steel frame construction with all the steel encased in cement. Nearly all of the outside wall space is to be glass, with just enough brick to support the heavy glass windows and panels.

While no definite information can be obtained on the subject, it is generally believed that the building will be a Pennoyer block originally held by the Trustee company of Seattle has become the property of the Oregon & Washington and that the building to be erected on the block will be put up by the department store people.

All doubt as to the erection of the big building on the Pennoyer block for Olds, Wortman & King has been removed by the building of a huge billboard in the center of the block on which will be made the announcement that work on the structure will be commenced not later than March 1 of next year.

A member of the firm of Olds, Wortman & King said today that the billboard will serve the double purpose of taking the public into the firm's confidence as to its future building plans and of stopping all inquiry as to when construction work will actually begin.

The proposed building is to cover the entire block and will be five stories high, with a steel frame of sufficient strength to support five additional stories should the growth of the city and the firm's business demand an increase in facilities.

The building is to be of steel frame construction with all the steel encased in cement. Nearly all of the outside wall space is to be glass, with just enough brick to support the heavy glass windows and panels.
