

PRESIDENT SENDS VERWEIB THANKS

In Personal Letter Praises Fullback's Spirit of Self Sacrifice.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 27.—The self sacrifice of Ernest C. Verweib, the Harvard fullback, in withdrawing from the game with Yale in order to permit another player of goal kicking ability to supplant him at a critical moment has brought the crimson player a letter of praise from President Roosevelt. The president says: "Like every other good Harvard man, I have the heartiest feeling of gratitude to the entire team who won the great victory on Saturday last. But I feel a special sense of gratification towards you. It was through you more than anyone else that Kennard was put in a position to do the work which he did so admirably and to kick the goal from the field."

"For the good of the team your individual good was sacrificed, and through this sacrifice and through the admirable work you had already done and through Kennard's fine kick a victory was won. However, it was a first rate example of the interest of the individual being subordinated to the good of the team. There cannot be any better lesson for our national life than to teach that the good of the individual must be subordinated for the good of the people."

NEGRO HELD AS SLAVEHOLDER

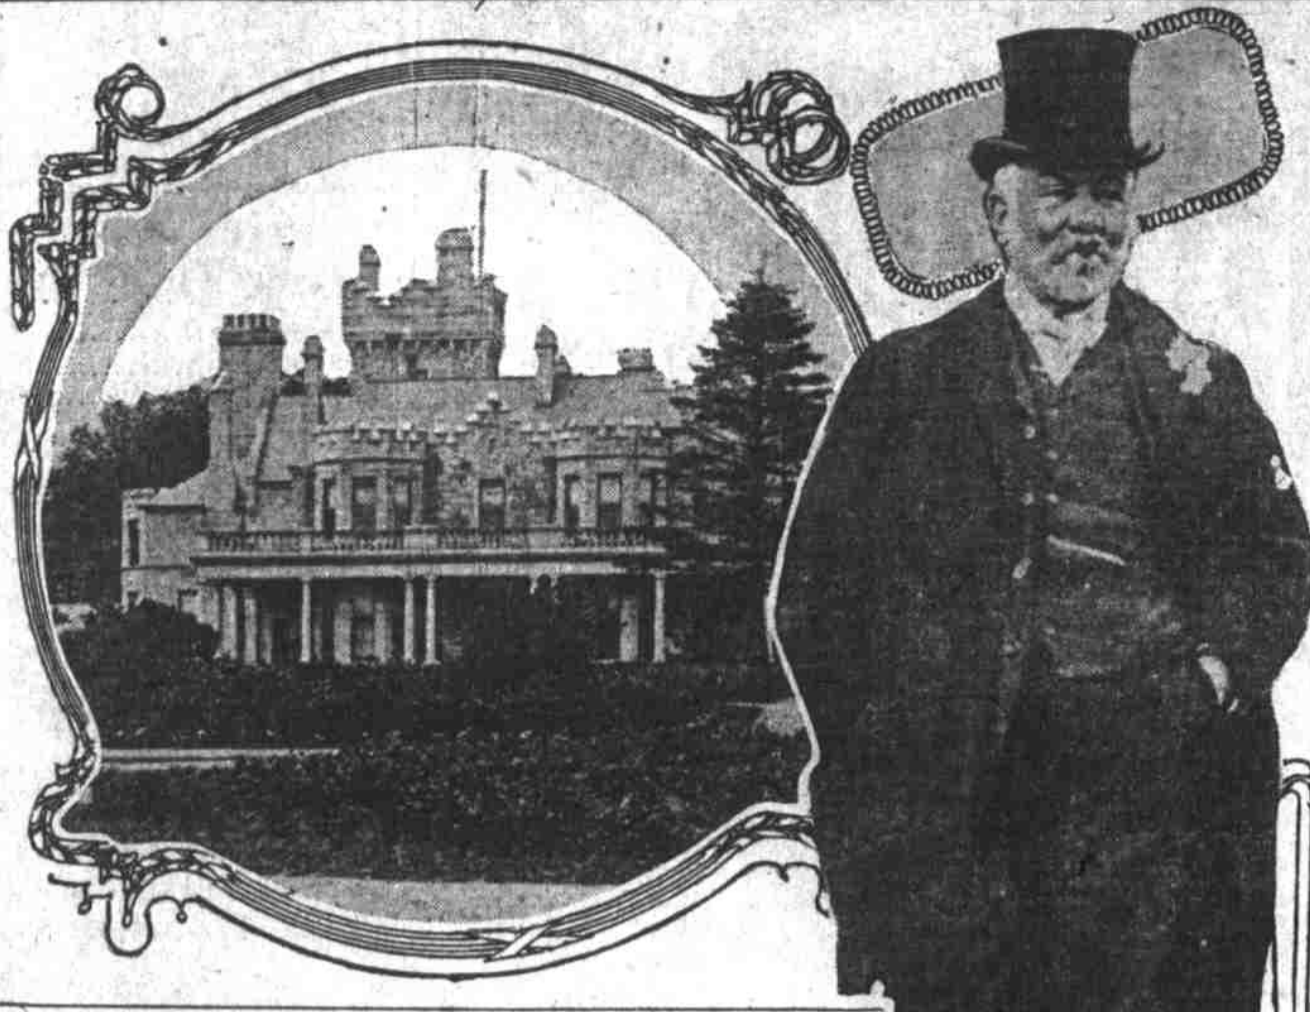

(United Press Leased Wire.) Seattle, Wash., Nov. 27.—An echo of the days of fugitive slaves was heard at this morning's session of the juvenile court before Judge Frazer, when representatives of the Dorcas club of colored men and women accused Sam Sizer, a local lumberman, of being in possession of the person of 8-year-old Nora McPherson, contrary to the amendment to the constitution of the United States prohibiting slavery. The Dorcas club insists that Sizer purchased the little colored girl at Fargo, N. C. last fall and that he is in possession of a bill of sale as proof of his ownership. The case will be heard later.

COMBINE FOR ATTACK ON BLANKET FRANCHISE

The franchise committee of the city council did not hold its regular meeting this morning owing to the inability of City Attorney Kavanaugh to be present, he being in the circuit court busy with the suit filed by the Inman-Poulson company. The city attorney, however, notified the committee that he will file a written opinion with it tomorrow morning. This opinion will confirm an oral one already given in which Mr. Kavanaugh holds that the council has ample power to place protective limitations in the franchise now being considered.

BIDS ON TACOMA TUNNEL OPENED

(United Press Leased Wire.) Seattle, Nov. 27.—The engineering department of the Seattle branch of the Union Pacific railroad this afternoon opened bids for the construction of the tunnel at Tacoma. The bids were taken under advisement, and the contract will be awarded later. The bidders were Twenty Brothers of Spokane, the Pacific Coast Construction company of Portland, Stevens & Boyington of Seattle, George W. Jackson of Chicago and G. O. Foss & Co. of Spokane. TAFT DENIES HE HAS NAMED HITCHCOCK

(United Press Leased Wire.) Hot Springs, Va., Nov. 27.—When his attention was called to the statement, printed this afternoon, to the effect that the announcement had been made of the appointment of Frank H. Hitchcock as postmaster general in his cabinet, President-elect Taft said the report was without foundation. He said he had not authorized a statement that the position had been tendered to Hitchcock and much less that it had been accepted.

BUGGY DEMOLISHED AND TWO INJURED

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) La Grande, Or., Nov. 27.—A serious runaway occurred yesterday after the football game here between Cove and La Grande high schools. Leonard Johnson and Clara Hancock were driving home to Cove late in the afternoon. The team took a short cut near Island City and ran away smashing the buggy into kindling wood. Johnson was badly bruised, receiving numerous sprains. Miss Hancock's right leg was broken and she was otherwise injured.

"We Are King" at Auditorium.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Vancouver, Wash., Nov. 27.—Edmund Carroll, in "We Are King," will be the attraction at the Auditorium theatre Sunday evening. This is Mr. Carroll's first visit to Vancouver, although he has been seen in Portland several times. Mr. Carroll's present vehicle is a beautiful love story with plenty of the good fresh country comedy. The scene is laid in a rural district of Germany, and the plot hinges around the remarkable resemblance between the king of the province and a literary vagabond. This brings about numerous complications which are funny in the extreme and wind up in a pretty love affair.

The franchise committee of the city council did not hold its regular meeting this morning owing to the inability of City Attorney Kavanaugh to be present, he being in the circuit court busy with the suit filed by the Inman-Poulson company. The city attorney, however, notified the committee that he will file a written opinion with it tomorrow morning. This opinion will confirm an oral one already given in which Mr. Kavanaugh holds that the council has ample power to place protective limitations in the franchise now being considered.

WINS $25 FOR HER MUDDY CARPETS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) La Crosse, Wis., Nov. 27.—For the damage done to her rugs and carpets by mourners, who tracked mud into her home at a funeral, Mrs. E. L. Spicer, active in social and church affairs of this city, has obtained a judgment for $25 against the estate of Mrs. Fred Ring. Mrs. Ring, whose home has been closed since the death of her husband a year ago, died at a hospital recently and her body was taken to the Spicer home for the funeral. The day of the funeral was stormy and many mourners with muddy shoes flocked to the Spicer home. When Mrs. Spicer asked the administrator of the estate of Mrs. Ring to reimburse her for the damage done, she refused and Mrs. Spicer started suit. Judge Brindley entered the judgment for $25 after calling on several undertakers for advice.

AMERICANS LACK COMMON SENSE, SAYS WESTERNER

Told Well Known New Yorker He Was Living Like a Fool So Far As His Stomach Was Concerned.

L. T. Cooper, who is at present explaining his medicine to the public of this city and attracting a great deal of attention, thinks that Americans are lacking in common sense. Cooper claims that most ill-health is due to stomach disorders caused by improper living. When interviewed Thursday, he said: "While modern conditions are largely responsible for many half-sick, run-down people in America today, lack of common sense can also be blamed. "It is impossible to lead the active outdoor life that nature demands. It is impossible for many to exercise the body sufficiently to make the gastric juices wholly active and virile. It is impossible to spend as much time as we should in the fresh air and sunshine. But it is possible to treat a stomach already weakened by these facts with a little consideration. "If the American people would think half as much of their stomachs as they do of their pocketbooks, there wouldn't be so much of this tired-all-the-time feeling. "If we would sit down quietly to a plain, common sense meal, eat slowly, chew every mouthful thoroughly, and then give it time to digest, there wouldn't be so many droopy, listless, sallow-faced men and women. But we don't; we are a nation of boaters. We bolt our food and expect our stomachs to do the work our teeth were intended to do. We are a nation of boaters, though to catch a train. Time is money. In consequence we are the richest nation on the face of the globe, but we are slowly becoming a lot of chronic dyspeptics. "First our forefathers gave us two things—First a glorious land with unlimited resources and opportunities. Second, sound constitutions, with good, healthy digestive organs. We are developing the first and letting the second go to ruin. "The amount of half-chewed stuffs eaten food the average American stuffs into himself during the day is positively wicked. Then when he feels full and nervous and tired he begins to imagine he has kidney trouble, or liver complaint, or heart trouble, or nerve exhaustion, or goodness knows what. There is just one thing the matter with him. He has abused the one organ in his body most essential to good health—the stomach—and until the gastric juices in his stomach perform their functions as they should, all the doctors between here and San Francisco will not make him well. "The other day a man well known in New York, who takes almost no exercise and who is a big feeder, called on me and said, from what a friend tells me about your medicine I think it will help me—at least I am willing to give it a trial. But, supposing it does get my stomach in shape, how long will it last? I replied: 'If you take Cooper's New Discovery, at the end of six weeks your food should be digesting perfectly once more; and you will feel like another man. But if you continue to act like a fool, so far as what you eat and the way you eat, you will be back where you are now inside of six months.' "What I said to this man can be applied to thousands just like him all over the country. "Cooper's New Discovery is a great medicine. Mr. Cooper has made an astonishing success with it.
