GREAT COUNCIL OF PROTESTANTS

Object, to Unify Church Effort—Delegates Represent 20,000,000.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Philadelphia, Nov. 23.—Representing 20,000,000 of communicants in 27 religious denominations, more than 400 delegates will assemble in this city December 2 to participate in the initial council of the Churches of Christ in America.
 This meeting is regarded as the greatest and most representative gathering in the history of Protestant Christianity in this country. Its members have been chosen by the highest adjudicatory bodies in the denominations to be represented.
 Among them will be more than 30 bishops, many presidents of universities and colleges, some of the most notable theologians and preachers in the country, officers in mission boards and other departments of church work and a large number of laymen of prominence. Nearly all those who have been appointed have signified their intention of coming to the council.
 The sessions of this representative body will continue until December 8.
 "For the prosecution of work that can be better done in union than in separation—this is the expressed purpose of the meeting, which is unique in character and which is regarded as certain to prove historic in the annals of American Protestantism. It aims, "through counsel and cooperation to avoid the two great faults of Protestantism, overlapping and overlooking," and one of its principal purposes is to organize the Protestant churches in this country so that every section shall be directly under the supervision of Protestant influence.
To Perfect Church System.
 At the same time it is expected to effect an organization that will prevent the establishment and maintenance of too many Protestant churches in a given locality. An effort will be made to perfect a system as thorough and exact as the parish system of the Roman Catholic church.
 The federal council is the outcome of the interchurch conference, held in New York in 1905, which adopted the plan of federation and set this year as the date for its first convention.
 It will open its deliberations with a large gathering in the Academy of Music, the night of December 2. The business sessions will begin December 3, and will be held each day in Witherpoon hall. Simultaneous meetings will be held Thursday and Friday nights in Witherpoon hall. Holy Trinity Protestant Episcopal church, First Baptist church and Calvary Presbyterian church.
 Young people's societies of the different churches will hold a rally Saturday night, and on Sunday, the pupils throughout the city will be occupied by visiting delegates. A meeting of the brethren of the churches will be held on Sunday afternoon at the Academy of Music.

Leader in Modern Dentistry

DR. B. E. WRIGHT

Modern dentistry calls for modern appliances backed by constant study and supplemented by the highest grade of skill. Modern dentistry has robbed the practice of its most disagreeable features.
 I commenced the practice of my profession in this city 14 years ago and today I enjoy the largest dental practice in the northwest, which in itself is sufficient guarantee that I fulfill all of my promises. All of my work is conducted with skill, gentleness and a thorough regard for your feelings and nerves.
 Where patients object to the yellow metal, porcelain inlays make an excellent substitute, and are favored by a great number of people, especially women. It is almost impossible to detect porcelain crowns or inlays.
 If you have two firm teeth we can attach a bridge, without a plate, that will be perfectly firm, look as well as natural teeth and chew your food to your entire satisfaction.
 If your plate is fitted well it will perform its work satisfactorily, fill out those sunken cheeks and improve your appearance a thousandfold. I guarantee every plate to fit perfectly. Badly-fitted plates drop out and cause untold annoyance. Avoid trouble by having your plate done right.
 While I don't wish to be classed with the cheap members of the dental profession, my prices will be found extremely reasonable—no higher than the average dentist charges. In return for a moderate fee, I give you everything that is best in the practice of high-class modern dentistry. Perhaps I would be justified in asking higher prices, but I prefer to live and let live, and am satisfied so long as my patients are. Call and I will tell you what work is needed—you can have it done at your convenience.

CURED OF BLINDNESS; BECOMES DISCIPLE
 (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) New York, Nov. 27.—Cured of blindness, he says by Christian Science, but became a convert to Mrs. Eddy's cult.
 "He is a probationer now, but expects to be admitted to full membership soon." "Late last March," said Mr. Wright, "I was almost blind. I couldn't see the headlines in a newspaper, and had to grope along the walls to move about my home. My wife, a Christian Scientist, suggested that one of their practitioners give me treatment. I thought, but consented. Within a few days I could see better. These weeks later I had my last treatment, and today I
