SHE KISSED HIM WHEN SHE LEFT

Justice Cleland in the circuit court this morning began hearing testimony in the suit of Cora Jane Sawyer for divorce from Heraldo M. Sawyer. Mrs.

Sawyer alleged in her complaint that her husband was sullen and dictatorial, going so far as to limit the time that she might stay down town whenever she went visiting or shopping. Sawyer, on the other hand, asserts that his wife's father and mother have influenced her against him, and that even when she came to take away her personal effects, after deciding to leave him she affectionately kissed him.

Mrs. Sawyer's testimony did not bear out the allegations of the complaint very strongly. She said that one time when she went down town Sawyer told her to be home at 4 o'clock. She was an hour late, and for that reason he refused to carry a baby buggy inside the house for her. The Sawyers were married in October, 1907.

A MAN'S READY ESCAPE

Do you know that every time you have a cough or cold and let it run on thinking it will just cure itself you are inviting pneumonia, consumption or some other pulmonary trouble? Don't risk it. Put your lungs back in perfect health and stop that cough with Ballard's Horehound Syrup. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Skidmore Drug Co.

CALLS BLUFF OF IRATE HUSBAND

Byron Biggs, a rather diminutive youth wearing a sweater with a big red "M" on the front, was arrested yesterday afternoon at East Ankeny and East Sixth streets on a warrant sworn to by his neighbor, J. W. Denton, charging him with carrying a concealed weapon.

Young Biggs was out taking a stroll with Mrs. Denton when the husband appeared on the scene. He was irate and demanded to know why and wherefore the wife of his bosom should be walking with a man who was not her lawful husband. He told Biggs that various things would happen to him if he were caught around the Denton home again.

Biggs asserted his right to do as he pleased and call upon Mrs. Denton whenever he felt like it. And to prove that he was as big as he felt, he showed Denton the butt of a revolver, just as a gentleman hint.

WIDOW REPORTS ON HUSBAND'S ESTATE

Mrs. Esther L. Wolff, administratrix of the estate of Nathan Wolff, who was murdered in his pawnshop on First street on the night of May 1, has filed her final report in the county court, showing that she has $1,656 in cash on hand and $28,374 worth of property undistributed. She has received $27,850 and expended $13,294.

It is stated that after all expenses are paid the estate will show just about that amount on hand. The widow says she has tried to sell out the pawnshop, but has not succeeded in getting a satisfactory offer. The stock remaining in the store is valued at $11,000 and the house and lot where Wolff lived is placed at $6000.

Jack Harpole. (Special Dispatch to The Journal) Huntington, Or., Dec. 1.—Jack Harpole, eight years, eldest son of Robert Harpole of this city, died Sunday morning of diphtheria.
