

GRAYS HARBOR TO APPEAL CASE

Northern Pacific Railroad Company Refuses to Restore Rates.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Aberdeen, Wash., Dec. 1.—All efforts having apparently been exhausted to prevail upon the Northern Pacific railroad company for the retention of terminal rates on Grays Harbor, the Interstate Commerce commission will probably be appealed to. The Grays Harbor committee met the two traffic managers Sunday at Tacoma and went over the entire subject.
Mr. Hanford was inclined to lay the blame for the action of the railroad on the Interstate Commerce law. He said the decision in the Spokane case laid particular stress on the long and short haul clause, and only permitted the long haul at terminal rates where actual competition was met.
When asked about Olympia, Astoria and Vancouver being allowed the rates, he replied that Astoria has actual water competition by steamer plying to Portland, and that Vancouver was regarded much as a switching yard for the port of Portland. As for Olympia, he is quoted as admitting that it was given the rate for political reasons, it being the state capital and the headquarters of the railroad commission. He said water hauled freight could be lightered to Olympia for $1.50 a ton. The subcommittee at the Tacoma conference will report to the general committee and a definite line of action will be determined. It is probable that the idea of seeking a court injunction will be abandoned and a formal complaint filed with the Interstate Commerce commission.

ATLANTA THINKS Will Thence Proceed to Turn Him Out at the Polls, Probably.

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 1.—Following a campaign that for intensity and bitterness has never been equalled in this city, an election will be held tomorrow for mayor and members of the city council. Interest in the election centers wholly in the mayoralty contest. For the first time in years the regular Democratic nominee for the office is face to face with a strong opposing candidate. As a result it is expected the vote will be the largest ever polled in a city election in Atlanta.

The Democratic primaries nominated for mayor James G. Woodward, who had already served two terms in the office. In Woodward's terms as mayor his opponents in Washington are elsewhere where gave Atlanta much notoriety, and his nomination for a third term was a surprise. But the climax came early in November, a few weeks after his nomination, when he and Ex-Police Commissioner Williams were arrested on charges of being drunk and disorderly. The arrests came as a result of an invasion of the city by a large number of Woodward and Oldknow, in which it was alleged that certain women of the district were handled so roughly that they needed to be taken to the hospital. As soon as the scandal became known leading business men of the city started a movement to elect Woodward an opposition candidate and report. The candidate selected was Robert F. Maddox, a banker and business man with a clean record. An active campaign in behalf of Maddox was immediately started and the supporters of the movement declared they had no doubt of Woodward's defeat at the polls tomorrow.

WHITE SALMON ELECTION

Irrigation Project to Be Voted On—League Lectures.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Husum, Wash., Dec. 1.—An election will be held in White Salmon December 12 for the purpose of determining whether or not the White Salmon irrigation district shall be organized. The district embraces several tracts of land adjacent to the city of White Salmon, and with a sufficient supply of water will enhance the value of property in that locality. The water is to be pumped from the White Salmon river a short distance from where it empties into the Columbia. Orchards irrigated by private sources on the uplands have proved a wonderful success, and the district contained in the organization to be voted upon will be greatly benefited by the new irrigation system.
A course of lectures will be given by the Epworth league of the Golden-rod Methodist church this winter. The course includes lectures by Dr. Benjamin Young of the University of Washington, Fletcher Homan of Willamette university at Salem, Rev. John Lewtas of Tacoma, and Bishop Charles W. Smith of Portland. The first of the series of lectures was held November 25, when Rev. John Lewtas talked on "What I Saw in Turkey, Syria, the Holy Land and Egypt."

MITCHELL EMULATES FOSSIL

Passes Ordinance Providing for an Occupation Tax.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Portland, Dec. 1.—At the last meeting of the Mitchell city council an ordinance was passed providing for the levying of an occupation tax. The Mitchell ordinance is exactly similar to the Fossil ordinance which was passed some time ago, except that it is more stringent in licensing and other requirements. The people of Mitchell for a long time have viewed the frequenting of these establishments by minors as corrupting the morals of the young men, and have deemed them offensive to public morals, and the sentiment finally culminated in putting them on a license basis which is nearly prohibitory. The license provides for an $800 bond, conditioned that the licensee keep an effective force of expert glove fitters to wait on you. None sold to stores at this low price, as this is below importer's cost price. The greatest value ever given by our Glove Section, sale price, per pair

DEMAND WENATCHEE APPLE

Buyers Order in Excess of Valley Crop Supply.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Wenatchee, Wash., Dec. 1.—All but 75 carloads of apples raised in the Wenatchee valley have been marketed yet the demand for apples in the Portland day and there are demands in now for over 200 carloads that cannot be filled. This is a good indication of the market for the big red apple, continually increasing, dispelling the idea that a great many people have of overproduction of apples in the Pacific Northwest. The first of the series of lectures was held November 25, when Rev. John Lewtas talked on "What I Saw in Turkey, Syria, the Holy Land and Egypt."

PYTHIANS AT VALE

New Lodge Will Be Installed There December 10.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Vale, Or., Dec. 1.—On December 10 a lodge of the Knights of Pythias will be installed in this city and a number of officials of the grand lodge are to be in attendance. W. L. Bradburn, supreme representative of the supreme lodge, will come from Washington, D. C., and G. C. Moore, grand chancellor of Portland, and L. R. Stetson, grand keeper of the records and seals also will attend. Harry L. Day, from Ontario and Boise, Idaho, will take part in the proceedings, which will include a banquet.

RAILROAD WORK STARTS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Centralia, Wash., Dec. 1.—That active railroad building between Centralia and Aberdeen and Tacoma and Portland is indicated by the fact that railroad contractors are now distributing building equipment along the right-of-way of the Union Pacific between Portland and Tacoma. Several flatcars loaded with dump cars have been switched in on points along the Northern Pacific.

TWO CANDIDATES NAMED

Bitter Election Fight Promised at Castlerock.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Castlerock, Wash., Dec. 1.—A lively election is anticipated in this city December 8, when the regular municipal election will be held. The fight will center on the office of mayor. At the general caucus called by the mayor, acting under the authority of the council, which was held Friday night, Mayor Robin was renominated for the place by an overwhelming vote, while Otto Wehler and Clark Studebaker were nominated for councilmen by acclamation. H. Richardson was nominated for treasurer, defeating his opponent two to one. Yesterday or last night a caucus held by the few dissenting persons and G. W. Rowan, a prominent attorney, was placed in nomination for mayor. The result of the caucus is not known. The fight will thus center on the mayoralty, and will doubtless be bitter, as the two candidates have long been antagonistic.

JAP CRITIC ROASTS YANKEES AT TABLE

San Francisco, Dec. 1.—With the return of the party of San Francisco commercial men and their wives from the Japanese tour it is learned that a certain "Joker" imagines to what the table manners of these representative Americans. The oriental social censor did not describe the sins of commission or omission which he attributed to the visitors, but he intimated darkly that something dreadful was done by the yankees at a reception tendered them by the Maple club.
In the list of San Francisco people, some of whom are said to have "made breaks" are Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Dohrman, James B. Stetson, Dr. and Mrs. K. Pischel, Henry Michaels, W. Clayton, E. Skinner and Mrs. A. Brizard. None of the party are critics of the Japanese editor refers. They know of no serious breach of etiquette and they cut attributes his criticism of the Japanese to the points of view between the accident and the orient.
But the explanation is awaited with some curiosity.

Christmas Sale of Framed Pictures

"As we buy, so we sell," is a merchandising law we never alter. These beautiful works of art are the Entire Sample Line of Framed Pictures

Produced by one of the country's largest picture manufacturers. Each one is typical of the supremely high-class work always put into "samples." In the superb collection are soft, delicate pastels, dainty water colors, choice platinum, rich somber carbons, exquisite etchings, fine photogravures. Many pieces are GENUINE HAND COLORINGS. All kinds of subjects are represented—legend, religion, landscapes and seascapes, scenery, still life, the classics, etc. No two alike. All are pictures that appeal to people with artistic tendencies. Take, for instance, these rarely touching bits of autumn and winter landscapes—the bleak, foliage stripped surroundings, the dimly lighted hamlet street, or again, the dying beauties of autumn days, or, perhaps, as a direct contrast, some azure-skyed Asiatic scene, or a dainty bit of Venice.

Changed Attitude of Committee Makes Senate the Battle Ground.

By John E. Lathrop.
Washington, Dec. 1.—"We return home convinced that the ways and means committee is determined to recommend a substantial reduction if not the entire removal of the duty on lead ore," is the statement made by Harry L. Day, a member of the delegation of the independent mine owners from Wallace, Idaho, who came prepared to argue against interference with the duty on their product. They left last night for their home.
I learn that the mine owners intend to maintain a bitter fight against the alteration of the ore schedules, Day's statement being representative of the attitude of the entire delegation. The

Glow of Health Speaks for Postum.

It requires no scientific training to discover whether coffee disagrees or not. Simply stop it for a time and use Postum in place of it, then note the beneficial effects. The truth will appear. "Six years ago I was in a very bad condition," writes a Tenn. lady. "I suffered from indigestion, nervousness and insomnia."
"I was then an inveterate coffee drinker, but it was long before I could be persuaded that it was the coffee that hurt me. Finally I decided to leave it off a few days and find out the truth."
"The first morning I left off coffee I had a racing headache, so I decided I must have something to take the place of coffee. (The headache was caused by the reaction of the coffee drug-caffeine)."
"Having heard of Postum through a friend who used it, I bought a package and tried it. I did not like it at first, but after I learned how to make it right, according to directions on package, it did not change back to coffee for anything."
"When I began to use Postum I weighed only 117 lbs. Now I weigh 170 and as I have not taken any tonic in that time I can only attribute my recovery of good health to the use of Postum in place of coffee."
"My husband says I am a living advertisement for Postum. I am glad to be the means of inducing my many friends to use Postum, too."
