Vienna, Dec. 2.—Sixty years an emperor. Such is the extremely uncommon record achieved by Emperor Francis Joseph, who was called to the throne of the dual monarchy just sixty years ago today, in the midst of the storm and tumult occasioned by the revolution of 1848. In observance of the anniversary the capital was today a mass of flags and bunting, and in windows everywhere were displayed pictures of the aged emperor, beloved by all his subjects and respected by all the world. Services of thanksgiving were held in all the churches and the day was observed as a general holiday. During the past summer elaborate pageants and other spectacular features were held in celebration of the emperor's jubilee. The observance of the anniversary today was confined principally to the presentation of formal addresses of congratulation in behalf of the army and the various departments of the government, the foreign diplomats and numerous societies throughout the empire.

Might Have Been Stated Tyrant.

The serious illness through which Francis Joseph passed last year sapped much of his vitality and deprived him of much of that physical vigor which was regarded as marvelous in a man of his years. Mentally he is as alert and active as ever. During the recent outbreak of events in the Balkans, which threatened the peace of Europe, the aged emperor held long daily conferences with his ministers of state and, as on so many occasions in the past, the results furnished strong evidence of his consummate diplomacy and keen insight of the situation.

During the sixty years of his reign Francis Joseph, amidst extraordinary difficulties, has done more to improve the condition of his subjects. When in December, 1848, he was somewhat unexpectedly called to his high office he found his realm in a state of indescribable confusion. The political and military predecessors had been harsh and repressive, and the great revolutionary war of 1848 caused formidable uprisings in both Austria and Hungary. These were sternly repressed and drastically punished. The ancient liberties of the Hungarians were completely and ultimately abolished, and Francis Joseph seemed destined to be perpetuated in history as the most despotic of European monarchs.

From this bad reputation he was saved by what seemed at the time a rash and ill-considered move. In an short campaign in 1859 Austria was defeated and forced to content herself with Venice as her sole foothold in Italy. Then followed the crushing defeat inflicted on her by Prussia in 1866, and her expulsion from the German confederation.

A man of coarser fibre and more unfeeling nature would probably have been crushed by such a series of national humiliations, but they only served to make apparent the statesmanlike qualities of Francis Joseph. From projects of foreign aggression he turned to plans of national betterment. The claims of Hungary began to receive consideration. Francis Joseph, from the disaster of 1866 the plan of Deak, the greatest of Hungarian statesmen and a nationalist, was adopted. Francis Joseph was crowned a new king of Hungary in 1867. So, peculiar constitution in that of Austria and Hungary called for the exercise of patience, tact, and administrative ability of the highest order, but for forty years he has managed to overcome all difficulties and yet retain a personal popularity which is parallel only by that of the British king among the crowned heads of Europe. For sixty years has Francis Joseph weathered all storms, alike of public anxiety and domestic sorrow, and today he stands out among the world's sovereigns as one of the strongest and most attractive figures.

ARRESTED, THEN ELECTED AUDITOR

County Treasurer West of Wahkiakum Is Charged With Embezzling.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Cathlamet, Wash., Dec. 2.—County Treasurer West of Wahkiakum county, Washington, who was arrested charged with embezzling nearly $2000, will be tried at the January term of court. The investigation of the records was conducted by E. H. Callis and J. W. Ferguson, accountants of Portland, at the direction of the county commission. The results of their work have been compiled in a pamphlet which has just been published for circulation among the taxpayers of Wahkiakum county.

The report of Messrs. Callis and Ferguson sets forth that the office of county treasurer has been conducted in a most lax manner.

The report shows that instead of cancelling the warrants after drawing checks on the county funds he has permitted them to draw interest and has charged the county with the interest. Part of the charges is accounted for by falsification of the warrant registers. A large number of warrants is also missing from the files of the office.

NEW LAWS FOR UNDESIRABLES

Secretary Straus of Bureau of Commerce and Labor on Chinese.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, Dec. 2.—Secretary Oscar S. Straus of the bureau of commerce and labor, makes recommendation in his sixth annual report that the exclusion law be amended for the purpose of more effectively governing the immigration of undesirable Chinese.

The obvious course to pursue, therefore, dictated alike by the demands of justice and equality on the one hand and by consideration of good administration on the other, is to place the matter of Chinese immigration, which essentially belongs, namely, within the operation of the system of regulation applicable to immigration generally, and in other words, to place the case of aliens from China as well. Should this be done, among other respects, the admission and exclusion of aliens generally, following the formal filing of a complaint in Washington yesterday. The complaint sets forth that notice has been given by the Wells Fargo company that on December 10 rates on large lots of goods shipped between New York and California will be granted for combined carload shipments to 92 1/2 per cent on 2000 pound lots and that no reduction will be granted for combined carload shipments. It is pointed out in the complaint that the rate of 11 cents on 1000 lots between San Francisco and Portland has not been changed and it is asserted that this is evidence of discrimination.

The commission will be called on to decide whether the several shippers are entitled to a minimum rate on a combined shipment. The express company has refused to make the reduction.

LIL KEEPS UP FIGHT FOR CROWN LANDS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Washington, Dec. 2.—Persons with a penchant for keeping tab on royalties and ex-royalties are interested to learn that Lilluokalani, she of the unpronounceable name who formerly reigned as queen of Hawaii, reached her eightieth birthday today. This week the attention of American readers has been called to this extraordinary personage by her arrival here to press her claims on the government for compensation for lands formerly belonging to the crown of the Hawaiian islands.

The claims of Lilluokalani have been before the public ever since the annexation of her former domain to the United States. The general opinion here is that the chances of her receiving compensation are very remote.

At the time that S. B. Dole and others contrived a coup and changed the government of the Hawaiian islands from a monarchy to a republic, the right of the crown to certain lands in the islands was abolished, and since that time these lands have remained the property of the republic or territory, the distinction between crown and territory never having existed. Article 95 of the constitution of the republic of Hawaii, promulgated July 4, 1894, declared the Hawaiian government and to be free and clear of any trust or of concerning the same, and from all claims of whatever nature upon the land, issues and profits thereof. This selfsame article of the constitution of the republic became a section of the territorial constitution and is a law in a sense as clear and strict as any amendment of the constitution of the United States.

ASSEMBLYMAN SAYS GILLETT MEDDLED

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Sacramento, Cal., Dec. 2.—Although the investigation of the affairs of the State Printer F. W. Shannon has been formally completed by the committee of assemblymen appointed for that purpose, the charge of meddling by Assemblyman Richard Jury of San Mateo that the committee was hindered in its investigations by Governor James N. Gillett still causing discussion. Jury declared at the last meeting of the committee yesterday that not only was Gillett hindered but other members of the administration hampered the inquiry. He said Secretary of State Charles Curry and local printers who were called as witnesses gave testimony favorable to Shannon without regard to their knowledge of the facts.

The other members of the committee dissented from the statement of Jury and supported the governor. It was finally decided by them to close the inquiry and a report will be prepared and submitted to the governor at the next session of the legislature.

BIG TUNNEL JOB ALMOST COMPLETED

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Dec. 2.—The great Spring Garden tunnel, the longest and largest in California and the biggest bore on the line of the Western Pacific railroad, will be punched through next Friday, according to the railroad officials.

The tunnel was started a year ago and after the top bore is finished on Friday there will still remain five months' work getting the tunnel down to floor level.

The engineering difficulties encountered have made the work one of the greatest engineering feats in tunnel boring in the United States. The length of the tunnel, its grade and the fact that a spring was encountered in the center of it gave the engineers a year of trouble.

Contrary to expectation no precious minerals were found, although the bore bisected the mineral range in the Sierra near the Feather river.

Elopers Caught at Rutte, Mont.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Butte, Mont., Dec. 2.—An eloping couple, Charles Eriess, a well known hardware merchant of Cleveland, S. D., and Miss Elsie Pomeroy, a 17 year old girl from the same town, are under arrest here. They were caught by the local officers at Rutte, Mont., as they were about to board a train for Ogden, where they intended to be married.

LEGISLATION FOR UMATILLA ROADS

Better Highway Promoters Would Give Each District Powers.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Pendleton, Or., Dec. 2.—Although approving the good roads law as explained by State Senator Smith Saturday afternoon at a special meeting in the rooms of the commercial association, the Good Roads league advocates an amendment to give greater utility to the proposed legislation. The local enthusiasts do not want each road district limited to its own improvements by less progressive neighbors, and will advocate a change in the law to permit individual districts to vote taxes for their own particular use in addition to regular county taxes, so that progress in the communities road history may be carried on without limitation by less progressive portions of the county.

Although the Good Roads league is just entering upon its usefulness, it has already accomplished something by its progress in the communities road history upon the present conditions of the roads, with the result that eight miles of road are now being built at the expense of enthusiasts by Dave Nelson and Louis Hagen; the other four miles north of town, is being built by Ike Christensen. Mr. Taylor is in charge of the same plan will be adopted by the enthusiasts in his own district, No. 16, where work is needed.

According to Taylor the work of importance before the Good Roads association is to procure two highway bills from the legislature, one reservation, and in this the association hopes to have the cooperation of the sheepmen of the country. A committee from both organizations will work together to secure this improvement, which will come to be as the result of an act of congress. One road planned would come south from Athena, while the other would cross the reservation from Meaham to this city.

SHIPPERS FIGHTING NEW EXPRESS RATE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Dec. 2.—Shippers throughout the Pacific coast territory are preparing for their fight before the Interstate Commerce commission against the increased express rates imposed by the Wells Fargo company, following the formal filing of a complaint in Washington yesterday. The complaint sets forth that notice has been given by the Wells Fargo company that on December 10 rates on large lots of goods shipped between New York and California will be granted for combined carload shipments to 92 1/2 per cent on 2000 pound lots and that no reduction will be granted for combined carload shipments. It is pointed out in the complaint that the rate of 11 cents on 1000 lots between San Francisco and Portland has not been changed and it is asserted that this is evidence of discrimination.

MINING CONGRESS MEETS AT PITTSBURG

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Pittsburg, Pa., Dec. 2.—Many states are represented at the eleventh annual meeting of the American mining congress, which began a four days' session in this city today. The organization proposes to make plans at the present meeting for a special effort to bring about the creation of a federal bureau of mines and mining, the head of which shall have a place in the president's cabinet. Other matters to receive attention include the better protection of the lives of miners, federal aid for mining schools and experiment stations, the conservation of mineral resources and the elimination of fraudulent mining stock operations.

Notable Speakers at Banquet.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Rochester, N. Y., Dec. 2.—Final arrangements have been made for the annual banquet of the American Mining Congress, which will be held at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel in New York city on December 10.

dual banquet tonight of the Rochester chamber of commerce. James J. Hill, president of the Great Northern railway, and Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university, are to be the principal speakers.

Warehousemen in Session.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Washington, Dec. 2.—The American Warehousemen's association, one of the strongest organizations of business men in the United States, began its annual convention in the capital today with a large attendance of members. The sessions of the convention will last two days, during which time there will be discussions of a number of matters of

S. S. S. CURES BLOOD POISON

In this short talk we want to tell you about S. S. S., a real cure for Contagious Blood Poison. We want to show you WHY it cures this disease, and especially do we hope this will reach those who have used other medicines with unsatisfactory results.

Contagious Blood Poison is the most powerful and destructive of all blood disorders. It corrupts and vitiates the entire circulation and manifests itself in the most loathsome and hateful symptoms, such as ulcerated mouth and throat, swollen glands in the groin, copper colored spots, and even sores and ulcers on different parts of the body.

The poison causes the hair and eyebrows to fall out, and sometimes the finger nails come off and the entire glandular system is attacked.

Because of the insidious and destructive nature of the disease most medicines used for Contagious Blood Poison are composed principally of Mercury, Potash, or some other strong mineral. It is intended that these minerals shall kill the germs and virus of the disease by working on the principle that one poison will counteract the other, and thus produce a cure. This is just the point of failure, for the virus cannot be killed; it will lie dormant in the system until such treatment is left off, and then every miserable symptom of the trouble will return.

S. S. S. works on exactly the opposite principle. It goes down into the blood and REMOVES the virus and germs of the disease and in this way brings about a real and certain cure. S. S. S. does not cover up the disease in any way, but so thoroughly does it cleanse and purify the blood that not the slightest trace of the poison is left for future outbreaks. S. S. S. is made entirely of healing, cleansing roots, herbs and barks, it does not contain the least particle of mineral in any form, and is a medicine so absolutely safe and certain in its results that every one may cure themselves of Contagious Blood Poison in the privacy of their homes, and be assured that the cure is permanent and lasting. We have a Home Treatment book containing a great many helpful suggestions to those who are curing themselves with S. S. S. We will send this book, and any medical advice free to all who write.

S. S. S. CURED HIM.
I first knew of my blood poison six years ago and I was treated for two years by blood specialists who treated me with no good results so I gave them up and started to use S. S. S. When I commenced its use I was covered with sores and eruptions and was very weak and run-down. To-day I am myself again and my skin is as clear as a baby's. I know it made a positive cure for me and I am making it my business to have my friends use it as I did and already two of them are having wonderful results in the way of a cure.

DOCTORS MADE HIM WORSE.
I was afflicted with Blood Poison, and the doctors did me no good, though I took their treatment faithfully. In fact, I seemed to get worse all the while. I took almost every so-called blood remedy, but they did not seem to reach the disease, and had no effect whatever. I was disheartened, for it seemed that I would never be cured. At the advice of a friend I took S. S. S. and began to improve. I continued the medicine, and it cured me completely, building up my health and increasing my appetite. Although this was ten years ago, I have never had a sign of the disease return.

W. R. NEWMAN,
Chester, S. C.

CURED 25 YEARS AGO; STILL CURED.
Some twenty-five years ago I was troubled with a severe case of Contagious Blood Poison, and after trying doctors and a great many so-called cures without relief, I commenced the use of S. S. S. It did not take long for the medicine to show the good effects that I had heard attributed to it, and after taking a good course of it every symptom of the disease left and I am a well man. I have never had any sign of its return and my blood is yet in good condition from the thorough cleansing S. S. S. gave it.

Greenwood, S. C. J. P. HILL.

Some years ago I used S. S. S. for a severe blood disease, and I am pleased to tell you that it did its work well. It drove out the poison entirely, restored my blood to its normal condition, improved my general health, and to-day I am as sound a man as I ever was. Not a blemish or blotch on me, and hasn't been for years. S. S. S. is truly a blessing to those suffering from blood diseases, and it is with pleasure that I give it my hearty endorsement. It is a real blood purifier, and does its work permanently. So watch work about S. S. S.
