

JOHN WISCHUSCHEN ARE DISSATISFIED

Men Who Would Hire Out Sailors Draw Conclusions.

CLOSE UP SHOP ON BURNSIDE STREET

Mr. Wischuschen Says Shipping People Clearly Indicate That Sailor Boarding-House Evil Not as Serious as They Would Have It Seem.

Wischnuchen & Jones, who are prevented from conducting an employment office in this city by the revocation of their license on the ground that they were in business to furnish employment to idle sailors, have closed up their offices on Front and Burnside streets.

The council had no authority to revoke our license, so far as I can see, said Mr. Wischnuchen in commenting on the matter.

We wrote the owners of the ship Brodick Castle that we could furnish them a crew at $10 per man. The owners referred the matter to the captain and the Portland agent.

The ship Brodick Castle left yesterday bound for the United Kingdom with cargo of wheat.

WILL SYSTEMATIZE MATTERS

Coasters Will Continue to Receive Dispatch at Oak Street Dock.

The leasing of Oak street dock by the Open River Transportation company will in no manner affect the number of coasters that discharge and load at that dock.

It is said by those in charge that by systematizing things more thoroughly the dock will have capacity for even more ocean going craft.

WRECK TO GO AT LAST

Government Snagboat Will Tow Barge Off River Bank.

The government snag boat Mathloma will this afternoon be hitched on to the old submerged barge.

This news will be welcome to owners of pleasure craft in particular, for to them the barge has been a serious source of danger.

SPECIAL MEETING FRIDAY

Port of Portland Commission Will Decide on How to Sell Bonds.

The Port of Portland commission will hold a special meeting Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock to take up the sale of bonds for the new towage and pilotage system which will soon be inaugurated by the port commission.
