A thorough discussion of the liquor question in reference to women will be the theme of the open meeting tonight of the Men's club of the White Temple. Councilman Cellars will tell why he believes his ordinance should be inforced; Councilman Rushlight will give reasons which led to the framing of his amendment; Rev. E. S. Mulkey will speak in favor of prohibiting the selling of liquor to women in all hotels, or else forcing hotels to pay the same license as is paid by saloons; F. McKercher will speak for prohibition. After this presentation of the subject a full discussion of the whole question will be had.

Of 95 cases of larceny reported to the police department during November, according to the monthly report, only 42 cases were cleared up by the detectives. The principal causes of the arrest of the total of 1190 persons during the month were: Drunkenness, 465; gambling, 90; out after hours, 30; vagrancy, 70; larceny, 29. During November 389 arc lights were reported to the police as being out. The receipts of the municipal court were $3,008.50.

As a result of a protracted spree, lasting several weeks, George W. Morey, formerly of Cortland, N. Y., died on his way to St. Vincent's hospital in the Red Cross ambulance last night. Morey had been in Portland but a short time, and little is known of him at the National hotel, where he was staying. He is said to have lived in Portland about 25 years ago. Morey was an Oddfellow in good standing.

While returning to his home at the east end of the steel bridge at a late hour last night, W. T. Brown, an employe of the Brong-Steel company, was met by an unarmed highwayman who commanded him to throw up his hands. The thug made a threatening gesture toward his pistol pocket and Brown took to his heels. He reported the matter to the police a few minutes later.

The East Twenty-eighth Street Improvement association will hold a meeting in the hall at East Twenty-eighth and East Glisan tonight for the puhpose of finding some way of securing the opening of the East Twenty-eighth street bridge to pedestrians. Ever since the question of the city's accepting the bridge came up, the bridge has been barricaded to teams and pedestrians alike.

A free lecture for railway employes and express company attaches who handle explosives will be given tonight at the Y. M. C. A. by J. L. Taylor, a member of the bureau established by the American Railway association for giving instruction in the handling of explosives to all such employes. Mr. Taylor is considered an expert in the matter of which he is to speak.

City Market Inspector Sarah A. Evans has again called the attention of the council in her November report to the necessity of an expert in her office to examine infected meats. She thinks the establishment of a chemical laboratory in connection with her work is also a matter of prime importance.

The city hall will be opened next Sunday afternoon, between the hours of 2 and 5, in accordance with the ordinance recently passed by the city council. The object of the ordinance was to give out of town visitors a chance to see the museum and collection of the Oregon Historical society.

Purity Liquor Company, Thursday special—$1.50 grade white or red port, sherry, Tokay, angelica, muscat and superior claret at $1.00 per gallon. Bill Wood pure food whiskey, regular $4.00, at $3.00 per gallon. Phone East 4427, B-1353. Free delivery. 303 East Morrison.

Save the Discount—Send check or pay at office on or before the tenth to save the discount on December bills for the Automatic Telephone. Home phone your long-distance calls to Tacoma, Seattle and way points. Home Telephone company, corner of Park and Burnside streets.

There will be 1000 reserved ringside seats for the O'Connell-Heinrich wrestling match in Merrill's hall tomorrow night. Everybody will be assured of his seat, no matter when he comes to the bout. Ringside seats, $1.50; general admission, $1; doors open at 7:30 o'clock.

The question of the new bridge across the Williamette will be brought up again tonight at the regular meeting of the Multnomah Improvement club. Plans will be discussed for laying the matter of the selection of a site before a vote of the people.

Two silk flags greatly prized by the owners of the Seamen's institute were stolen from the place last night. Chaplain Dalrymple reported the robbery and asked the police to spare no efforts in locating the missing articles.

An institute for Sunday school teachers will be opened at the Third Presbyterian church tonight. Subjects pertaining to Sunday school work will be discussed. All Sunday school teachers are invited to attend.

Title Guarantee, Oregon Trust accounts and German-American certificates bought at the highest cash price; also Home Telephone bonds. Cohn Bros., 180 First street, corner Yamhill.

We are positively quitting business. All of our cut glass, hand-painted china, crockery, art ware, etc., being closed out at prices that can't be beat. Elite China & Glass Co., 362 Morrison street.

The Sunnyside Push club will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in Charles Mautz's office, 1013 Belmont street. Parks and othem municipal improvements will be discussed.

Kelly's Family Liquor Store, Park and Morrison. High grade wines and liquors. One price to all. Free delivery. Tel. Main 28. Home, A-1502.

Judging from the brisk demand for

At best, housecleaning is a season of unrest.

But its miseries can be greatly minimized by the wise use of Ivory Soap—to give new beauty to furniture; to make rugs and curtains look as they did the day they were bought; to brighten silver and brass-work; to make blankets as soft and fluffy as when new.

AT THE THEATRES

"The Lion and the Mouse" Coming.

The attraction at The Heilig theatre for four nights beginning next Sunday, December 6, will be the great American play on the present financial question, "The Lion and the Mouse." The advance seat sale will open at the theatre next Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Leo Donnelly at Orpheum.

Leo Donnelly, in his own original creation, "A Pleasing Pastime," is one of the clever people at the Orpheum this week. Mr. Donnelly is a clever entertainer, and calls forth many hearty laughs from his audience with his bright patter and original stories. It isn't what he says, but the manner in which he says it.

"A Millionaire Tramp" at Star.

From the rise of the curtain at the Star on the Ridgeville, Ind., depot to the final scene in the old hotel on Christmas eve, "A Millionaire Tramp" is one succession of surprises. The scenic detail is wonderful.

Grand's Great Bill.

This week the Grand is playing the finest vaudeville program that has been seen in Portland in some time. Every act is a feature and there are several headliners. Mlle. Joyce Grey does a Salome dance which is the first exhibition of the seven veils dance shown in this city.

"Sis Hopkins" at the Baker.

A double attraction at the Baker this week is Rose Melville in her famous character of Sis Hopkins, which is familiar to every household whether theatregoers or not. The quaint little girl from Posey county, with her funny ways, ludicrous sayings and tender heart is a stage classic.

A Treat for the Ladies.

The hats worn by Maribel Seymour in "Glittering Gloria" at the Bungalow this week are a rare treat for the ladies and show the latest Parisian creations in style and size. "Glittering Gloria" is a rattling farce and soon chases all thoughts of trouble and worry from the mind. It is at the Bungalow all week. Matinee Saturday.

Wonderful European Acrobats.

Acrobatic acts come and go, but acrobatic acts like the great Heras family of nine people are seldom seen in Portland, as they are the highest salaried aggregation of acrobats in America, and the Pantages management deserves great credit for presenting the above act at popular prices.

"Turned Up" at the Lyric.

That merry farce, "Turned Up" opened the week at the Lyric Sunday afternoon, and the Blunkall company never made a more positive hit than in this latest of its offerings. It is a play that keeps an audience laughing every minute it is running.

MULTNOMAH FIELD HARD FOR CONTEST

Multnomah field has dried out until it is hard and solid under feet and unless there is a turn in the weather before Saturday, the game between the clubmen and Oregon Agricultural college should be unusually fast.

Their gruelling games have left the Aggies in poor physical condition, while the clubmen are now at their best. However, the Norcross aggregation can always be expected to spring something new and the clubmen will have to be on the watch every minute to keep from letting the collegians run off with the game.

LEARN WHY HYDRANTS WERE NOT ACCEPTED

The city water board has ordered the payment of $3600 to Hoge & Swift for 130 hydrants furnished the city by that company last spring. These hydrants were not accepted by the fire chief, and a number of investigations have been made by the executive board to ascertain why the hydrants were rejected but without result. The fire committee was to meet tonight to make a final probe, but owing to the death of a member of Chief Campbell's family the investigation was postponed.

Nearly a Stampede.

Sunday a constant stream of automobiles ran from the Columbia Trust company's office at the Couch building to Swinton, on the peninsula, to see the lots that are selling at a record price. Over 700 have been sold in seven weeks, which shows that the good people of Portland are not slow in taking up snaps in real estate.

There is a discount of 10 per cent while improvements are being made.

Come to our office at once and run out and see Swinton in our automobile.

PLEDGED MEN

tinued Mr. Devers. "I believe that a politician should be as true to his word given to his constituents and his obligations to them as a man in business is bound by honor and honesty in his dealings with his business associates.

Pledge Made to Be Kept.

"I believe that a pledge is a pledge and that it is made to be kept. I believe that a politician who is elected to office as the result of a pledge given by him voluntarily, binding himself to do a certain thing in case of his election, is more on his honor to fulfill that pledge than a business man, for this reason: If I entered into an agreement with my business associates, promising to do a certain thing, and I afterwards came to the conclusion that I did not want to carry out my agreement, I could go to my business associates, to the very ones and to all of those to whom I had made the promise, and effect some compromise. No member of the legislature who has taken Statement No. 1 can do this thing. He does not know the men who voted for him because of this pledge. He cannot go to them. They, presumably, voted for him because they believed in the principle which he represented. The legislator has no right to go to other men than those with whom he made this agreement to seek release. He is pledged to the men who elected him to carry out his promise and the only way for him to be relieved of that promise is to be relieved by every one of the individuals who bound him to it by their votes. He cannot get that release.

Petitions a Failure.

"The people of the state want senators to be elected directly by themselves," continued Mr. Devers. "They showed their desires by electing a legislature pledged to carry out their suggestions. They are still of that mind. Those petitions which were started have been failures. I do not believe that 25 per cent of the representative men of the Republican party in the state would sign such a paper.

"If you will look closely you will find that the men who are causing this agitation and who are loudest in their demands that the members of the legislature repudiate their pledges, are the old time followers of machine politics who do not care how things go in Oregon so long as they can be carried along by the machine. They are not the men who pay the taxes or who are working in a large way for the future development of the state. They are nice fellows personally, they are useful to the old machine politicians because they are of agreeable personality, but they are not the builders of the state.

"But," continued Mr. Devers, "I do not believe that any of the legislators are going to violate their pledges. I believe we have elected better men to the legislature than that, and because I believe this, I have confidence that the senatorial question will be settled by the first ballot, and in the way which the people of the state directed by their vote last June."

A New Departure

The cost of interments has been greatly reduced by the Holman Undertaking company.

Heretofore it has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidentals connected with a funeral. The Edward Holman Undertaking company, the leading funeral directors of Portland, have departed from that custom. When casket is furnished by us we make no extra charges for embalming, hearse to cemetery, outside box or any services that may be required of us, except clothing, cemetery and carriages, thus effecting a saving of $25 to $75 on each funeral.
