GRAPPLERS TO MEET TONIGHT

Heinrich Arrives and Is in Pink Condition—Both Men Are Hopeful.

After throwing 17 kinds of fits into his backers because he hadn't shown up to let them get a glimpse at him, Joe Heinrich, the demon wrestler of Spokane, arrived in Portland on this morning's train. Joe's physical condition caused a sparkle in more than one eye and forthwith his friends went out to lay more of the mazzina. After a whirl around his old haunts, Heinrich deposited himself in his hotel to rest up for tonight's mat battle in Merrill's hall with Eddie O'Connell, the Multnomah wrestling instructor and conqueror of everything of class in and around Portland.

Heinrich is in the pink of condition. He laid out a thorough course of training and adhered to it strictly for the past month. He is stronger than he ever was before and the fact that he allowed his forfeit to make weight for O'Connell shows that he is not weakened in trying to make 160 pounds, the maximum. He will weigh close to 170 pounds.

O'Connell finished his training Tuesday and yesterday took it easy. He is in better condition now than at any time in his career. He entered the Smith match with an etherized knee, which prevented him from applying his punishing leg holds. Tonight, however, he will have to use all his wits to keep the local man from squeezing him with those slender, though vice-like legs.

Heinrich is well known for his aggressiveness. Invariably he takes the offensive as soon as he hits the mat. The same tactics are true of O'Connell and putting both together the fans will see a wonderful exhibition of the grappling art. O'Connell was seen only on the offensive against Strangler Smith and at that he was unable to do his best for fear of the strange hold. Smith never attempted to take the offensive during the struggle and just what O'Connell can do as the under man is not certain. However, tonight he will undoubtedly be called upon to display all his defensive knowledge against the Teuton.

Big Brawl Popular.

The advance sale justifies the opinion that a large crowd will be present. The reserved ringside seats are proving very popular with the fans. On the previous occasion spectators who had ringside seats were unable to get the location desired to see the match because they came late. Tonight the reservations make it unnecessary for the spectator to be at the ringside an hour before the match to get a vantage point. However, it is desired by the manager that spectators reserve their seats at Schiller's before 6 o'clock this evening so that the usual delay at the box office may be obviated as much as possible. The doors will open at 7:30 o'clock.

Joe Acton has been selected to referee the main bout, which will be preceded by a preliminary of high class light-weight wrestling. The preliminary will start off promptly at 8:30 o'clock and the main event will follow immediately upon its conclusion. Two falls out of three will win both the preliminary and main event.

How They Size Up.

Table with 3 columns: Part of body, Heinrich, O'Connell. Rows include Reach, Neck, Chest, Forearm, Biceps, Hip, Thigh, Calf, Ankle, and weight/height.

TENNIS PLAYERS TO BANQUET TONIGHT

Portland tennis enthusiasts will banquet tonight at the Perkins grill, the occasion being the close of a very successful season on the courts. The work of the season just closing will be recalled and plans evolved to make the game more prominent among the winter sports next season. Practically all the tennis players in the city will be in attendance.

Forest Grove Meets Third.

Forest Grove, Or., Dec. 3.—The Forest Grove high school football team will play the Third Presbyterian church team of Portland in this city next Saturday. Portland team has played 10 games and no team has crossed its goal line this year. The local lads are not losing any sleep on that account, but expect to make an exception to the rule in the coming game. Archie Hahn, Pacific university's coach, has had the boys under his training for the past few weeks, and under his tutelage they have developed into a fine bunch of players for their weight as can be found in the state.

SAM DOLAN CHOSEN FOR ALL-INDIANA

Sam Dolan, a former Portland boy, who proved one of the best tackles the Oregon Agricultural college ever turned out, has just been picked as an all-Indiana guard, being a student at Notre Dame university. Neither Dimitry nor Philbrook, former Whitman college stars, but whose homes are in Oregon, were mentioned in the selection. Relative to Dolan's selection the Indianapolis Star says: "Dolan of Notre Dame and Dutter of Indiana have played guard just enough to warrant their selection for the guard positions. Both are tackles, and excellent ones, but a state team can be rounded out better by putting them next to the center than by considering them for their regular positions, for which there are other very capable men."

Dolan and Dutter are powerful men, charge well, can break through the line and tackle in the open field. They are almost as fast as many of the light players and at guard would give the line great strength in positions which otherwise would be only ordinarily well filled. "At tackle, even after Dolan and Dutter are eliminated, there are several athletes who deserve consideration. Probably the best tackle in the state is Gipe of Wash. Although he is not quite as strong as Dolan, he is a powerful player either offensively or defensively. His work in the Wash. Notre Dame game stamps him as one of the greatest tackles the state ever had, and it is doubtful if there is his equal in the west."

DUFFY'S BOWLING MEN OUTCLASS BRIGHAM'S

Brigham's bowling team in the Multnomah club three-man team tournament was easily outclassed in its game with Duffy's team last night. Duffy had the highest game with 221 and also the highest total with 601. The score: Brigham's team—160 130 118 111 106 110 115 147 Total...366 356 370 Duffy's team—200 221 180 176 126 154 179 Lombard...157 154 179 Total...531 511 464

AGGIES COMING HERE TOMORROW

Collegians in Fairly Good Condition for Game With Multnomah Eleven.

Oregon Agricultural college's crack football eleven is due to reach Portland tomorrow in order to have a brief rest preparatory to meeting the Multnomah club eleven Saturday afternoon. Outside of one or two men the collegians will be in fairly good condition to battle with the club.

It has come to light within the last few days that Thanksgiving Day game with the University of Oregon set the Multnomah back a whole lot in condition. Practically every member of the team is suffering from bad ankles and hands. They look as if the collegians had done a treading stunt over these extremities. The collegians have several men out of the game. Wolf may not be able to play all of his weight, while one of two others are doubtful. It is believed now that Jamison, the big tackle, may get back to his old condition, as it is he does the clubmen will have to keep their optics on him.

Manager Pratt announced this morning that the grandstand would be free to everybody holding $1 tickets. The weather indications are such that a number of spectators may be present. A number of students and Corvallis residents will accompany the team to Portland.

DAN SULLIVAN MAY GET PAPKE OR KELLY

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 3.—Dan Sullivan, who has been beating a number of fighters around Aberdeen, may be matched to meet Hugo Kelly or Billy Papke in Aberdeen some time next month. Sullivan is coming to the front rapidly as a middleweight fighter. He has been endeavoring for some time to get into the Charles Johnson ring in Portland, but so far they haven't come to terms. Sullivan accuses Jost of having cold feet. One Sullivan brother of Dan and a lightweight, will meet Maurice Thompson in Aberdeen Friday night. Both fighters are in excellent condition and each is anxious to climb the pugilistic ladder. If Sullivan beats Thompson he will invade California in the near future.

In a letter to a friend in Portland Dan Sullivan asks what Ed O'Connell has done with his challenge to wrestle in private for a $500 side bet. Evidently Dan doesn't pursue the news column as a professional athlete. Had he done so he would have known that there was $50 on deposit with the sporting editor of the Journal, ready to bind the match. However, O'Connell got tired of waiting to hear from Sullivan and after a couple of weeks withdrew his forfeit money yesterday.

AT THE THEATRES

High Ladder Novelty at Orpheum. The high-ladder apparatus used by Joe LaFleur in his daring and attractive novelty at the Orpheum this week was originated by the famous acrobat, for his own use at the London Hippodrome, where it was first used six years ago. LaFleur came to the city as a feature of the Ringling Brothers' circus and when the New York Hippodrome opened he was on the opening bill. Amy Stanley, the famous English doublet, and her four comical pickaninnies are a big feature on the bill.

"Sis Hopkins" at the Baker. One of the most popular attractions of the season is Rose Melville in her original character of "Sis Hopkins," which is drawing large audiences to the Baker at every performance this week. This is a play everyone wants to see. Matinee Saturday. Last time Saturday night.

Seat Sale Opens Tomorrow. The advance seat sale will open tomorrow (Friday) morning at the box office of the Heilig theatre, for the great American play on the present financial situation, "The Lion and the Mouse," which will be the attraction at the above theatre for four nights beginning next Sunday, December 6.

"Turned Up" Makes Hit. The greatest hit in the history of the Blunk company is "Turned Up," that great farce which is attracting enthusiastic audiences to the Lyric this week. This is a piece that is calculated to bring all the regulars and you can not afford to miss it.

Classy Vaudeville. A vaudeville bill that is seldom seen outside the big eastern cities is the one presented at the Pantages theatre this week. There is not a dull moment. The Great Heras Family of European acrobats are truly marvelous. If you like classy vaudeville, don't overlook the Pantages.

A Fortune in Hats. The hats Maribel Seymour wears in "Glittering Gloria" at the Bungalow this week represent a small fortune, and she carries an insurance policy of $1000 on them for the week they are in the theatre. "Glittering Gloria" is a comedy everyone will enjoy, being full of fun and laughter from beginning to end.

"A Millionaire Tramp" at the Star. "A Millionaire Tramp," which is the attraction at the Star this week, is one of the big eastern comedies. The cast is composed of talented and trained people who provide entertainment of the better sort and who, whether they are singing or dancing or exchanging the quaint dialogue, do it well.

Salome Is Dancing. Salome is the hit of the week in vaudeville. Miss Joyce is doing the Salome dance of the seven veils at the Grand and is presenting something entirely new and original in the theatrical art. This is one of the many acts which make the show at the Grand a comedy everyone will enjoy, being full of fun and laughter from beginning to end.

TAKES QUACK'S DOPE; IS DEAD

Harry Boas' Demise Follows Use of Remedy Sent by Stranger.

San Francisco, Dec. 3.—The authorities are investigating the mysterious death of Harry Boas, 31 years old, who was found dead in his bed early today after swallowing some "stomach powders" which were sent to him through the mail by a person signing the name "Charles McHawer, M. D., San Jose."

The letter was mailed in San Francisco, and apparently was written here. Boas formerly lived at San Jose. He was the western representative of the Bennett Electric company, with offices in the Williams building. He lived with his mother and sister, at 2816 Harrison street, where he died.

The powders have been turned over to the city chemist, who is analyzing them. The letter received by Boas follows: "Dear Mr. Boas—Having been requested by some friends of yours as well as mine in San Jose to send my relief stomach trouble, I take pleasure in doing so. She having told me that you had been continuously bothered with indigestion. The two powders which I inclose to you are of great relief but a cure for that ailment, being composed mostly of papain, which I suppose you are aware is the greatest of all remedies of the albumin food which gathers on the alimentary canal leading to the stomach. It is advisable not to wait until you are bothered again, as it is that which
