PROPOSED ATTACKS ON THREE CHURCHES

Ramsey Park Grangers Condemn Attitude of Oregonian and Other Papers.

At a special meeting of Ramsey Park grange held November 28 an appropriation with which to fight the attempt to declare the initiative and referendum unconstitutional was made.

This grange was the first organization to oppose the effort of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company to nullify the initiative and referendum, and its members have been actively active in fighting the attack upon these acts.

The following resolutions were adopted: Whereas the direct primary law and the initiative and referendum have been largely the work of the grangers of the state of Oregon, and

Whereas the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company are endeavoring to evade their just proportion of taxation by declaring this law unconstitutional, and

Whereas it is being assisted by such papers as the Oregonian, The Dalles Optimist, and other papers in the state for, as we believe, purely political purposes and nothing else, in order to return the state to the old rotten methods of politics and machine rule, and

Whereas we believe the people of the state of Oregon are an intelligent body and are competent and capable of directing their business and laws, therefore be it

Resolved, by Ramsey Park grange, at its special session of November 28, that we condemn the actions of the Oregonian, The Dalles Optimist and other papers which are taking the stand they now are, on our initiative and referendum and direct primary laws, and we call upon our brother grangers of the state of Oregon, and also all other good citizens of the state of Oregon to give their support and assistance in our, the people's, fight for their rights.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to The Oregonian, The Dalles Dispatch and to the Pacific Grange Bulletin.

W. H. H. Durrer, master; George H. Gill, secretary. Passed unanimously by rising vote.

GIRL SENTENCED TO GO TO SCHOOL

"Dinah the Gypsy" who in real life is Dora Marie, sentenced to go to school by Judge Gantenbein in the juvenile court yesterday afternoon.

When first called into court several days ago the girl said she was only 14 years of age. Yesterday she declared she was 16. She said she was in an effort to travel the other way, but had better sense now.

The girl claims to be of Serbian birth. Her father is a traveling gypsy now in Kansas. By telegram he offered to pay any fines against her and to send transportation for her to join him.

YOUNG INDIANS MUST NOT USE REVOLVERS

Memories of boyhood days, when Judge Gantenbein himself liked to play Indian, yesterday lightened the punishment of the leaders of the "Chipmunk" and "Sitting Bull" bands of boys who have been giving the war whoop in the woods between Arleta and South Mount Tabor.

The chiefs of the bands, minus feathers and war paint, had been brought into the juvenile court for a little talk by the great white father, Judge Gantenbein.

From the investigation made it appeared that at least one member of a band engaged in an attack last Sunday carried a revolver and fired blank cartridges during the attack. In other ways the sport of the boys had gone too far, and Judge Gantenbein told the young chieftains that the dangerous part of their play should be stopped.

All the warriors were dismissed with a warning except three, who had thrown rocks at a barn. They were placed on probation.

HEARD BEFORE CHAIRMAN BOARD

Declares Only Taxpayers Should Be Members of the Commission.

Charles K. Henry was granted the privilege of the floor at the meeting of the charter commission last night after Chairman McGinn had stipulated that he make his remarks brief.

While Mr. Henry did not mention any names, his remarks were addressed against Dr. Chapman. "When I came here last Tuesday," said he, "to interpose an objection to some of the amendments which are being offered by a man who is not a resident of the city, who does not vote and who, I am informed by the assessor, does not pay any taxes, I was denounced as an enemy of the people."

"Now I am a property owner of the city, and have its welfare at heart. I think a member of the charter commission should be a resident and a taxpayer. I believe that the ordinance creating a charter commission requires these qualifications. If I am right I will bring the affair to the courts. I mean to push this to an issue. Thank you."

At the conclusion of Mr. Henry's remarks the commission went on with its regular business and without making the least sign that it had heard the speaker.

When Mr. Chapman was asked last night what his opinion was of the implications made by Mr. Henry, he said that he should not. "I am a taxpayer," said he, "and of course Mr. Henry's remarks do not include me. They have absolutely no interest for me, and I shall pay no attention to them."

Dr. Chapman's provisions of the public utilities and franchise report providing a $500 penalty for tearing up pavements and forbidding the use of curbs crossing by street railways were not adopted by the commission.

The penalty of $500 was thought to be too much for the digging up of hard surfaces, as it is necessary for the street railways to do this. The commission referred this question to the committee, but voted to strike out the clause which related to crossings.

The committee also considered and one providing that corporations shall submit quarterly reports of their business to the council were adopted. The fare regulation provision reported by the committee gives the council no powers beyond those it already has.

EMBROIDERED SHIRT WAIST PATTERN IN SUNDAY JOURNAL

With all the changes of fashion in women's dress, the embroidered shirt waist, or separate blouse, holds its own. It is the one unchangeable feature in a changing domain.

The Journal pattern supplement for tomorrow is for a shirt waist. The design is intended to decorate the entire front, collar and cuffs. If liked less elaborate a portion of the design may be omitted in the working, and the remainder of the stamping will be easily removed by washing the material with warm water and soap.

The favorite materials for this sort of work are linen, net, fine lawn and wash silks. The soft cloths may also be used, and satin, which is now one of the smartest materials for gowns, may be greatly enhanced by using a portion of this design worked in colored silks.

Get a free box of candy by paying for a want ad for next Sunday's Journal.

AT THE THEATRES

"Sis Hopkins" Tonight. The last appearance here of Rose Melville in her famous character of Sis Hopkins, the quaint girl from Poneyville, will take place at the Orpheum tonight. Sis Hopkins is a household word in America and no one has ever played the role but Miss Melville.

"Glittering Gloria" Tonight. The last performance of "Glittering Gloria" will be given by the Baker Stock company at the Bungalow tonight. It will be held in place of the wonderful hats of Miss Seymour's, to hear the clever song hits and laugh at the numerous funny situations.

A Whole Show in Themselves. A brilliant feature act is that of the Great Heras family of nine European comedians who are appearing at the Lyric this week. Their work is entirely new and original and different from them all. In fact they are a whole show in themselves.

Grace Emmett at Orpheum. "Laugh, and the world laughs with you" and if you attend the Orpheum tonight you will be laughing with every one else who is present. If Grace Emmett, in "Mrs. Murphy's Second Husband," doesn't hand you plenty of laughs in 15 minutes then it is up to you to ascertain from some reliable physician just what complaint you are suffering from.

"Lion and Mouse" Tomorrow. Beginning tomorrow (Sunday) night, the attraction at the Heilig for four nights will be the great American drama, the attraction at the Heilig for four nights will be the great American drama, "The Lion and the Mouse." Seats are now selling.

Salome a Success. Salome, as danced by Miss Joyce Gray at the Grand, is different from any of the other Salome dances that have been seen in this city. This girl from Paris presents the famous dance of the seven veils, as it is called in the metropolitan opera house last season. Seven trained bears are among the comedians at the Grand this week.

"A Millionaire Tramp" at Star. Tonight for the last time, this week's success at the Star, "A Millionaire Tramp," may be seen; the performances have been more than made good. There is a happy blend of characters in the play somewhat different from the ordinary type, and consistency plays a prominent part in the production.

Last Time for "Turned Up." The last performance of the wonderfully interesting farce "Turned Up" will be given at the Lyric company last night successfully at the Lyric will occur tonight.

Notaries Commissions. Salem, Or., Dec. 5.—Commissions as notaries have been granted to: I. A. Morris, Flushing; C. S. Williams, La Grande; W. J. Bishop, McMinnville; H. K. Haney, Jr., Jacksonville; and Charles K. Henry, T. H. Ward, Charles C. Duquesne, Ralph E. Jensen, Floyd Bilyeu and C. C. Vought, Portland, and Henry Milley, Oregon City.

MISS VAN CUREN IS MOURNED BY MANY

Loletta Van Curen.

Miss Loletta Van Curen, daughter of Mrs. Lettie Van Curen, died at her home, 411 Ivon street, December 3, after an illness of more than two years. The immediate cause of death was dropsy, affecting the heart.

Miss Van Curen was born at Eagle Creek and had been a resident of this city for some years. She was of a sweet and lovable disposition and will be mourned by many friends to whom she had endeared herself in her short life.

Another sister, Mrs. Emmett Donahue of Borine, and Miss Maud Van Curen of this city, survive. The funeral was held this morning from Finley's chapel. Interment was at Gresham.

CHRONIC DISEASES NOW CURED BY ELECTRICITY

The action of the modern high potential, high frequency currents is entirely different from that of ordinary electricity.

Glass does not insulate this form of electricity, as it passes through the glass electrodes used in treating skin diseases, ulcers and enlarged glands.

As the nerve currents of the body are essentially electric in character, it follows that this powerful form of electricity is the best possible treatment for all nervous diseases, and experience shows that it cures nervous debility, sciatia, nervous headaches, neurasthenia. In rheumatism it is equally effective, and aided by the radiant heat of the high power electric light, it removes inflammation from the joints, or from any part of the body.

This power over inflammation makes the treatment curative in a great many conditions which are not influenced by medicine or ordinary methods of treatment.

Such troubles as indigestion, chronic constipation and piles yield readily to it, and asthma, chronic bronchitis, consumption (first and second stages), catarrh of the stomach, appendicitis and kidney diseases are cured.

This treatment is particularly effective in diseases of the PROSTATE, removing congestion and reducing enlargement of the gland.
