SAILORS BOARD WHERE THEY LIKE

Norwegian Consul Shows Lack of Restraint by Calling for Men to Stand.

That sailors have no difficulty in finding board and lodging in this port without going to the licensed sailor boarding house was proved last night at the Seamen's Institute, when Norwegian Vice Consul Andre M. Cederbergh in the course of an address asked those of the 100 or more sailors present who were out of employment and looking for a job to stand up.

About 20 of them rose quickly to their feet. He then asked those who board or sleep in the licensed sailor boarding house to remain standing while those who lodged and boarded elsewhere were asked to be seated. Every one sat down and the speaker then went on explaining that so far from preventing a sailor from boarding and lodging where he pleases, the law of 1902 is a sham, that it can no more force a sailor to lodge in a certain lodging house or board in a certain eating place any more than it would prevent a sailor from accepting employment without going through the form of giving up a certain amount of his wages to the sailor boarding house master as payment for whatever might be charged to his account.

Vice Consul Cederbergh went on to explain that the old system of operating the sailor boarding houses was much worse than the present, as the old weather-beaten sailors could personally attest, but still it could stand a great deal of improvement. Portland is not

CURED OF RUPTURE

C. E. Ferguson, 6047 Normal Ave., Chicago, writes: "I want to say a word in your paper for the benefit of the ruptured. I was ruptured for 15 years and found no help until I used Dr. Rice's Treatment, and then I was completely cured. There is no operation, no pain, no danger of any kind and you do not lose a single day from your work. I am a painter by trade and I climbed and swung my ladders around as a painter must, but it made no difference, the cure took place just the same. Dr. Rice will send a free trial of his wonderful Rupture Cure if you write him. Don't send any money. Just fill out the coupon below and send it to Dr. W. S. Rice, 31 Main St., Adams, N.Y."

NEVER SMILED AT LOUVRE MAID

Councilman Driscoll Says Visited Grill Merely Out of Curiosity.

"Every word in that paper is a lie. The man who wrote the story was drunk or pretty well intoxicated. I think it is the dirtiest piece of newspaper work I ever heard of. Yes, I am the councilman referred to. Indignantly burst out Councilman Driscoll yesterday afternoon. The question of granting liquor licenses to restaurants was up, and before deciding it Mayor Lane said the council might do well to find out if the allegations in an evening paper with regard to the Louvre and Quells Grill is true. Some of the council said they had not read the article. The mayor had a copy of the paper brought in, and read by Clerk Grimes. It was stated that for 40 cents slipped into the hungry palm of a willing waiter anyone can buy a woman's companionship for the evening at the Louvre. The writer of the article said that on one of his visits there he had seen a councilman of the city hobnobbing with the gay denizens of the nether world and 'beaming expansive smiles' on the fair ones. Councilman Driscoll declared to the council that he does not drink and that he was just visiting the Louvre out of curiosity. Councilman Baker wanted to bet $100 to $10 that conditions described do not exist. 'I think,' said he, 'that a paper should be ashamed to publish such an abominable lie.' Councilman Belding thought there was some truth in the statement of the reporter. 'He couldn't have been very drunk or he could not have seen so many things that sound plausible. The town has been getting worse ever since the moral wave struck it.' Mayor Lane then warned the council that if the Louvre resembled its description it should not be allowed to run, or any other restaurant. 'My notice have plenty to do,' answered the mayor, without having the council add to their troubles by licensing a lot of rat traps and shooting galleries. The council voted 9 to 5 not to grant any of the licenses. Councilman Driscoll says he will make a fight at the next meeting of the liquor license committee to revoke every restaurant liquor license in the city. STONE BLOCKS NOT NECESSARY

Council Decides Cheaper Material Between Rails on Belmont Allowable.

Proceedings for the improvement of Belmont street from East Portland to East Sixty-second street must be started anew. This is because the council yesterday, by a vote of 12 to 3, granted the petition of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company to be allowed to pave its part of the street with the same material used in the rest of it. The original petition called for stone blocks. The railroad company in a letter to the council last August practically declared that it would refuse to obey the council if it were directed to use the Belgian blocks. Asked by Mayor Lane yesterday afternoon if his company had not delivered this ultimatum, F. I. Fuller, vice president, replied that such was not the intent of the letter. His company, he said, only wished to reserve the right of laying such surfaces as it should deem most advantageous.

The General Demand

of the Well-Informed of the World has always been for a simple, pleasant and efficient liquid laxative remedy of known value; a laxative which physicians could sanction for family use because its component parts are known to them to be wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, acceptable to the system and gentle, yet prompt, in action.

In supplying that demand with its excellent combination of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, the California Fig Syrup Co. proceeds along ethical lines and relies on the merits of the laxative for its remarkable success.

That is one of many reasons why Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is given the preference by the Well-Informed. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists. Price fifty cents per bottle.
