

BRITISH FLEE OUT OF INDIA

Fear of Native Uprising Is Spreading—If India Lost Now It May Never Be Regained—News of Revolutionary Acts Suppressed.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 Calcutta, Dec. 10.—The scheme of Lord Morley, secretary of state for India, for the liberalization of the colonial government here, is to be announced next Monday, is not expected to do much toward allaying native discontent. Anglo-Indians believe sections will ultimately have to be crushed by military strength. They want haste, too. Reports from all over the country indicate frightfully rapid growth in the anti-English movement.

The entire British population is sure it will break into open rebellion soon and every departing ship goes out loaded with women and children bound for the safety of the home country.

The longer the delay in proclaiming martial law, the fiercer it is everywhere asserted, will be the fight to re-establish Anglo-Saxon domination. Plenty of conservative Britons say if things go too far their country's ascendancy can never, in fact, be restored—that it will be necessary to abandon the colony altogether.

So strict has been the censorship on news of the past few months' anarchist outrages that even their exact number is unknown, outside official circles. Those concerning which the facts have leaked out were:

List of Revolutionary Acts.
 April 30.—Mrs. E. Kennedy and daughter, killed by bomb at Mussafferpore.
 May 5.—Thirty men arrested at Calcutta for conspiracy to murder English officials, including Viceroy Lord Minto and Military Commander General Lord Kitchener.
 May 16.—Attempt to blow up Calcutta streetcar load of English.
 May 30.—Thirty-two natives arrested at Calcutta for bomb plot.
 June 2.—Two Englishmen seriously injured by bomb thrown into railway coach near Calcutta.
 August 12.—Attempt to blow up trainload of Europeans near Calcutta.
 August 31.—Gassy, native informer, assassinated by anarchist prisoner in Alipur jail.
 November 8.—Attempt to assassinate lieutenant governor of Bengal, Sir Andrew Fraser.
 November 10.—Native detective inspector, Nundo Lal Bannerjee, of Bengal, assassinated.
 November 14.—Queen Victoria's statue at Nagpur mutilated.
 November 24.—District Police Superintendent Clough of Lahore assassinated.
 November 25.—Attempt to kill public prosecutor, Hume, with bomb in railway coach at Azamgarh.
 November 26.—Attempt to blow up trainload of Europeans at Barrackpore.
 The foundation of Lord Morley's plan is the opening of an increased number of high administrative government posts to natives and a slight increase, though not to the extent of a majority, on the Indian council, a body with headquarters at Calcutta, vested with practically no real power but charged with the duty of advising the secretary of state for India on matters concerning the colony. He also vaguely promises some form of home rule as the country progresses. The natives demand immediate home rule, under practically the same conditions as exist in the Dominion of Canada.

WHISKEY FOR RHEUMATISM

The increased use of whiskey for rheumatism is causing considerable discussion among the medical fraternity. It is an almost infallible cure when mixed with certain other ingredients and taken properly. The following is the formula:

To one half pint of good whiskey add one ounce of Toris compound and one ounce of syrup Sarsaparilla compound. Take in tablespoonful doses before each meal and before retiring. This is said to produce almost immediate results.

SLAM DOWN ID ON RESTAURANTS

City Auditor Will Compel Liquor Selling Grills to Close Their Doors.

"I don't know just what action I will take, but I suppose I am forced to notify restaurants now selling liquor that they will have to be discontinued," said City Auditor Barber this morning. "But if it is an intention to deprive them of their privilege in this matter and to permit others to operate sanctioned by the law."

These men (referring to the proprietors of the seven grills from which licenses are being withheld) are anxious to comply with the law and procure their permits, but they are not allowed to do so. However, much as I dislike the duty, I suppose I will have to instruct the police to arrest the managers of grills operating without licenses, and, if necessary, to close them.

If the auditor is compelled to stop the sale of liquor in the restaurants in question, it is said that the city will be freed from interfering with the traffic in intoxicants, and that it will be mandated in order to make the auditor issue licenses.

NO STATE LAW BARS WOMEN FROM SALOONS

That Mrs. L. H. F. Additon made a misstatement when she declared in her address before the county W. C. T. U. convention in the United Brethren church that the Oregon state code contained a law forbidding all women entrance into saloons, was the substance of a statement given out by Councilman Cellars to The Journal this morning.

"There are two laws covering the admittance of women into saloons," said Mr. Cellars. "One is the age limit law, wherein it is stated that women under the age of 21, unless accompanied by either husband, brother or parents, are debarred, and the other is to the effect that fallen women are to be denied admittance. And so, according to this, all women over 21 are immune from falling into the clutches of the state law."

City Attorney Kavanaugh said the same in substance. Most women who appear before the police court on this charge, he said, procured their discharge by falsifying as to their age and representing that to the 21 year mile post had been passed. "And you know," concluded Mr. Kavanaugh, "that it is one of the most difficult things in the world to ascertain a woman's age."

Hermiston Strife Ended.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
 Hermiston, Dec. 10.—For the first time since the organization of Hermiston's city government harmony prevailed in this town yesterday during the election. Instead of bitter fights which marked the two previous city elections there was but one ticket in the field—a ticket made up of representatives from both factions and the vote was light.

H. Rose Newport was elected mayor; Harry Straw, city recorder, and H. J. Longley, C. H. Crandall, R. H. Allen, M. C. Brooke and Levi Hill, councilmen. All the offices were for one year terms, having been made vacant by resignations during the past year.

The quiet election and the complete harmony which prevailed are believed to mark the end of factional strife in Hermiston.

DAIRY OUTPUT FALLS OFF IN 1908

President Kent of Dairy-men's Association Says Decrease Will Be Shown Under 1907—Convention Opens.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
 Salem, Or., Dec. 10.—"Though 1908 was heralded as banner year by the dairymen at the convention in Portland last year the output during 1908 has failed to result in the quantity realized from dairy products in 1907," said President F. L. Kent, in the opening session of the seventeenth annual dairy convention today at Salem.

"Though I may be mistaken, it seems to me that Oregon has not had a decrease as much this year as last, due to a decrease in the number of cows in certain localities in the Willamette valley. There has been a slight increase in the output of the coast counties."

August Hickenstein, president of the Business Men's league, delivered the address of welcome at the convention and spoke of the importance to Oregon of the full development of the dairy interests. He was followed by Mr. Kent, president of the association, who delivered the annual address, in which he told how many cows had been shipped from Oregon to Washington and Idaho during the past year, to the detriment of the industry in Oregon.

"Following Mr. Kent came E. T. Judd of Salem, formerly president of the association, who spoke on 'The Feed Problem.'"

The convention is well attended and there is a splendid exhibit of produce and dairy machinery. The sessions are being held in the new library theatre. There will be session this afternoon, tomorrow morning and tomorrow afternoon, at which the convention expects to conclude its work. The exhibit occupies a large floor space in an empty building on Commercial street.

A number of delegates from different sections of the state arrived yesterday and began working at once to arrange the work of the association and for the entertainment of delegates and visitors. The two day convention promises to surpass the one held last year at Portland which was the first, and was far more successful than contemplated even by its promoters.

C. J. Mitchell of the United States agriculture department has been secured to act as judge of all exhibits during the convention. Professor F. L. Kent, president of the association, will preside over all the sessions.

QUARANTINE AT WOMEN'S UNION

Smallpox Case Discovered—Believed to Have Come From Business College.

Quarantine for smallpox has existed at the Portland Women's Union, Fifteenth and Flanders streets, since Monday night, when Miss Denmore, one of the lodgers, was found to be suffering with smallpox and was taken to the isolation hospital. An officer was stationed at the front door of the building to warn away intruders and the quarantine was on. It will be kept indefinitely to await further developments.

About 50 women boarders and roomers are inmates of the union. Some of them had been vaccinated, but Tuesday morning the city health officers applied the vaccine to all. However, it is thought that this precaution came too late to prevent the spread of the disease to some extent.

It is said that Miss Denmore contracted the disease at a local business college, which she attended at a pupil. Three weeks ago a young man, student of the same institution was taken ill with smallpox, and at that time all the pupils were ordered to immediately be vaccinated. Miss Denmore was one of those who neglected this precaution, it is said.

SCHMITZ AT LARGE FEW DAYS LONGER

and now indicted for various alleged felonies, is at liberty today through the kindness of the district attorney's office. Yesterday when Schmitz appeared in court his attorney and his former bondsman, William J. Dugree, was prepared to offer a new bondsman to take the place of Dugree, who is admittedly in such serious financial straits that it would be embarrassing for him to be questioned as to his ability to be surety for $20,000. Deputy District Attorney Daniel Deasy made no objection to a continuance until Saturday, although it had been definitely stipulated that Schmitz would be ready with his new bondsman yesterday.

Forced Out by the Furniture Trust

We regret to announce to our friends and patrons and to the public, that we have decided to discontinue our business just as soon as we are able to dispose of our stock. We have grown weary of continuing the fight against a set of dealers, manufacturers and wholesalers, who are determined to put us out of business. The local manufacturers and wholesalers all have refused to supply us with goods, just such goods as we needed to make our business successful, for no other reason than because we were not in harmony with the old Retail Furniture Dealers' Protective Association, better known as the "Furniture Trust," which we forced to disband by sending Uncle Sam after them. We have forced the other stores to lower their prices, and in this way have saved the people of Portland hundreds of thousands of dollars, which would now be in the pockets of the selfish Furniture Trust Dealers. We have put up a good fight for the interest of the people of Portland, and we wish to thank those who have stood nobly by us; but we have been waging an unequal fight and have decided to

Capitulate to the Furniture Trust

We wish to dispose of our stock at once, so as to bring everything to a close not later than January 1. In order to be able to do this we will sell EVERY ARTICLE in our store absolutely at Cost for Cash.

This Is An Opportunity for You to Make a Large Saving

Although we have none of the cheap Fir Furniture such as the local factories make, we have a splendid assortment of Eastern high-grade goods, such goods as you would expect to find only in the largest high price stores. No matter what you want, come in and look over our stock. If you do not avail yourself of this opportunity to make a large saving, it will not be our fault.
