

CHRISTMAS TO BE CELEBRATED

More Money Ready for Yule Things Than Last Year - Wonders in Toys.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) New York, Dec. 12.—Once more the glad and joyous Christmas is at the door and the holiday season is in full swing. In all selfish thoughts, everybody seems to be inspired by the sole thought of making others happy on the day of the year.

Business is a great deal brisker than last year and the improvement in the general business condition of the country since election makes it more probable that the Christmas trade will be better than last year.

What the Show Windows Show. Of course the great masses of the poor patronize the show windows on the east side and the department stores catering to the poor and middle classes, but the mercantile carrying houses and higher grade and therefore more expensive feel the improvement over last year in a much greater measure.

Christmas is essentially a feast for the children and it is to make them happy that most of the money is spent this season. The children will contribute more to the joy and happiness of a child than toys a great deal of thought and ingenuity is devoted every year to the invention of new toys.

Orders to Repair Ships. (Special Press Leased Wire.) Vallejo, Cal., Dec. 12.—The U. S. S. Albatross, which is being repaired at the Mare Island yard to prepare the torpedo boat destroyer Paul Jones for the next mission at the earliest practicable date, is being overhauled at the yard.

Descendants of Signers. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 12.—A meeting of the officers and board of government of the Descendants of Independence was held in this city today to act upon applications for membership in the society. A surprisingly large number of applicants have been received.
