KELLY AND PAPKE BATTLE TONIGHT

Jim Jeffries Will Be Third Man in Ring With Middleweights.

By Ed Moriarty.
Los Angeles, Dec. 15.—Hugo Kelly and Billy Papke are ready today to tramp the boards at Jeff's big fight shed this evening. The boys are to start on a scheduled 25 round battle. Papke has been installed at 8 to 10 favorite odds has been riding with rapidly around here of late, and there may be a change before the men come together.

The presence of Jim Corbett in town has excited more than ordinary interest. If Jim can get away from his show in time he will hurry out to the arena this evening. Jim Jeffries and Corbett journeyed to Jack Doyle's camp yesterday afternoon and were seen watching Papke's shadow boxing. Silvi Farretti, Kelly's manager, arrived from Chicago yesterday, and went immediately to the training quarters.

Kelly Must Show.

Unless Kelly whips Papke this evening, it is the general opinion that his powers of attraction will be much on the wane. Kelly is certainly in splendid condition. He has worked faithfully, and to the point, and is ready for a desperate battle.

Papke was seen at his Venice cottage last night, and expressed quiet confidence of winning. He said: "I think I'll stop Kelly tomorrow night with a doubt. If I do Ketchel will be forced to pay heed to me. I intend to put up a piece of money that will attract attention from everybody. Ketchel in his heart fears me. He knows that I absolutely could not do a thing last time in San Francisco; couldn't even put my hands up."

Jeff Will Referee.

Jim Jeffries will again enter the ring as referee. When the articles were first sent to Chicago with Charlie Eytton's name attached as third man, Kelly entered serious objection and nothing remained but to secure the big fellow's consent. While talking with Jeff yesterday Kelly asked about watching Papke's head. Kelly seems to fear butting on the part of Billy.

Despite the fact that no championship is involved, there is reason to believe that Papke and Kelly will give a real fight. As he talked at Venice last night Billy seemed sore at heart because of his sudden pugilistic fall.

Kelly and Papke are to weigh in at 6 o'clock this evening. Kelly weighs 155 pounds. Abe Attell left yesterday for New Orleans, where he will meet a boy named Jim Markay in a scheduled 10 rounder on the night of December 20. Reports that the battle would occur January 25 were erroneous. Attell himself was mixed in his dates.

GOLD FOOTBALLS FOR UNIVERSITY PLAYERS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
University of Oregon, Eugene, Dec. 15.—President Townsend and the student body decided to call a special meeting early in January at which the members of the football team will be presented with the official O. A. C. sweat-caps and souvenir gold footballs. A prominent jeweler of Eugene, Tuesday, two men, including Manager McEwan, will receive their rewards for their services during the season.

The executive committee of the student body has been making a study of graduate management as carried out in other universities and will report in favor of the California system of engaging one man for all activities under a two-year contract. The report will be in the form of amendments to the constitution and will be submitted to the student body for ratification.

DORANDO WILL MEET LONGBOAT TONIGHT

New York, Dec. 15.—Amid the crash of 1908 the Italian runner who showed the little Italian runner who showed the winner of the Marathon, will seek to uphold his title against the most noted Canadian Indian, in Madison Square garden tonight. The contest is expected to be the most notable of the kind seen in New York in many years. In the opinion of many followers of athletic sports, Tom Longboat, when at the best, is the best man who ever took to the cinder path. The race will start promptly at 9 o'clock and the full distance, 25 miles 35 yards, will be run.

Papke and Kelly in Good Trim.

Los Angeles, Dec. 15.—The sale of seats for the Papke-Kelly fight in the Jeffries arena at Vernon tonight indicates that one of the largest crowds for many months will see the battle. The rattling fights put up by the two on the occasion of their previous meetings had led to lively interest in the bout tonight. Both boys are reported to be in the best of trim.

"DUD" CLARKE WILL CAPTAIN OREGON "U"

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
University of Oregon, Eugene, Dec. 15.—"Dud" Clarke, Oregon's famous All-Northwest fullback, was chosen captain of the lemon yellow team for the season of 1909 at a banquet last night given by the football management to the team. Clarke has been recognized as one of the greatest fullbacks and punters in the northwest and for the past two years has been the unanimous choice of all critics for fullback on the All-Northwest team.

During his freshman year he played at half, but upon Henry McKimney's graduation he was switched to full. He received his training at Portland academy and Multnomah club, playing for three years on the former team. His line plunging and wonderful punting have won him a name of which any player might be proud.

He is the son of Mrs. Lou Von Zoll Clarke of Portland, and is one of the most popular students in the university. He is a member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity and is a junior in the department of Economics.

DALLAS TEAM ON AN EASTERN TRIP

Famous Coast Basketball Team Is Started With Game in Vancouver.

What will be the longest tour ever undertaken by a Pacific coast basketball team started last night, when the crack team from Dallas, known as The Oregons, played in Vancouver, Wash. The Oregons is a team composed with one exception of Oregon boys living at Dallas, and they propose to keep penetrating the east until they reach the Atlantic seaboard, playing games wherever they can be secured. The tour will last until the middle of March, the schedule at present being tentatively agreed upon as far as Buffalo, N. Y., is concerned.

The team is composed of some of the best players ever turned out on the coast. Dallas has held the championship for a number of years, exceeding all other teams at this particular branch of athletics. The tourists are under the management of H. L. Fenton, former Dallas merchant, and will be coached on the trip by B. A. Teats, one of the greatest players the coast ever developed.

The team is composed of Nollie Reed, forward; B. A. Teats, referee and team manager; H. L. Fenton, financial manager; Alvie Morton, guard; Tracey Savory, guard; Carl Fenton, forward; Claude Shaw, guard; Edward Shaw, captain and center; and Lloyd Rice, sub forward.

Reed is the only player not a resident of Dallas. His home is in Harvey county, and he formerly starred on the Oregon Agricultural college team. The Dallas people think there is a greater forward than Claude Swann, who led the Alaskans to victory in three fourths of their games in the east last season. Reed is a fast and a ready player and was Swann's mate at O. A. C.

An effort was made to get Edward Craven, the wonderful forward of last year, but Craven is in a dental college in California and felt that he could not take the time to make the trip east. The Oregons hope to play from 75 to 80 games on tour. The trip is taken solely for the advertising it will give Dallas and Oregon, all the players being amateurs. It is only aimed to make expenses on the trip. The Alaskans disbanded in Chicago last winter, but the Oregons propose to push even farther eastward.

Tonight the Oregons play in Winlock, and will then continue to Seattle, doubling back for games in Roslyn, Ellensburg and Spokane. Leaving Spokane they will proceed through Montana, Wyoming, Minnesota, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and New York. On their return they will play in Kansas, Colorado, Utah and Idaho.

The game last night in Vancouver resulted in the easiest kind of a victory for the Dallas aggregation, the score being 48 to 6.

WAS OREGON HERE FOR LAST TIME?

Multnomah May Give Oregon Aggies Thanksgiving Day Game Next Year.

Portland has probably seen its last Multnomah-Oregon football game. Oregon Agricultural college, the big state rival of the varsity, will very likely be the future attraction on the holiday giving and sentiment seems to give the O. A. C. have addressed a number of communications to the board of directors of the club pointing out that it is only justice to the Corvallis institution to be given an equal opportunity with the Eugene college to play before the Thanksgiving crowd. A majority of the directors have expressed themselves as favorable to alternating with the university and agricultural college.

Following the letters addressed to the directors, Manager Pratt of the football team and Director Angell of O. A. C. met for a discussion of the subject last night. Angell laid his plan for 1909 game before Pratt and the latter looks upon it with some favor. Angell explained that the Corvallis-Multnomah game, December 8 had been losing out for several years. He stated that the college was as athletic prominent as the university and was entitled to consideration at the hands of the clubmen. Portland is the best drawing town in the northwest and the Multnomah team has a long way toward helping the student football team. Oregon has enjoyed the emoluments from the game for a dozen years.

Angell's View.

Angell states that the O. A. C. team is not making overtures to the club from purely commercial motives. He believes that the money received from the O. A. C.-M. A. C. contest will leave a balance in the aggie's treasury, the same as it has generally done in the case of the "U" but the prime reason, he states is the advertising the college will get and the sportsmanship it is bound to bring about.

A canvass of the board of directors this morning shows that a majority of them favor giving the two institutions an equal chance at the receipts. This undoubtedly means that the contract with the aggies will be signed up within the next week or so.

Portland alumni this morning were surprised at the turn of affairs. Some of them are of the opinion that if Multnomah breaks with Oregon, the two teams will never again be seen on the football field as opponents. They assert that Oregon will never be content to enter into a contract on a basis of an alternate year. Several professors are pleased at the turn of affairs, believing it will eventually see the two big student events lined up against each other in Portland in a Thanksgiving game.

So far as being a money maker, the Eugene alumni are inclined to scout this idea. The expense in bringing the aggregation of players to Portland under the present gate division, leaves little in the treasury. It is a matter of fact that the varsity made much more money on its Idaho game last year and its Corvallis game this year than it ever got from the club.

Should the club directors adhere to the plans for dividing the Thanksgiving date, the University will undoubtedly contract with the University of Washington for its Thanksgiving game, alternating between Eugene and Seattle. Once this arrangement is put under way it is not likely it will be broken.

Corvallis wants to play at least one game in Portland. Oregon has declared for the campus game in its relations with the Aggies. This leaves O. A. C. without a Portland game unless it be with Multnomah.

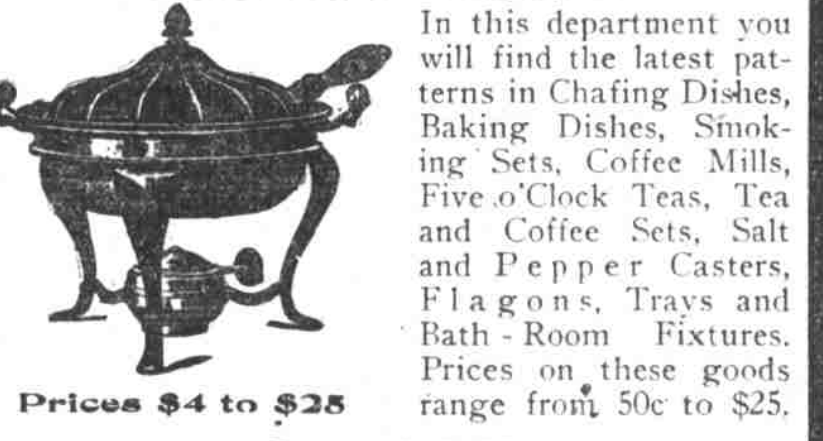

The state university will play Idaho university in Portland next season. It comes in this game, the O. A. C. game at Eugene and the receipts from the Washington game at Seattle, to more than make up for what might be lost in the Multnomah-Oregon game.

The Portland fans will have an opportunity to determine which college team is the more popular. The game will be held on the next winter. The varsity alumni maintain that the Thanksgiving crowd is invariably an Oregon crowd. The Aggie's excursion will make up for the loss of patronage due to the fact that Oregon is not the holiday attraction.
