Christmas Shopping At Meier & Frank's

Holiday shopping is best done at the Meier & Frank Store for many reasons, the most important of which is the fact that the largest stocks of high grade merchandise are provided for your selection—The only complete Toy Store in the city from which to choose the many things that make children happy—

Store service has been doubled and trebled and quadrupled according to department demands—Over fifty extra cashiers and one hundred wrappers have been stationed at various points, insuring the quickest Christmas service you have ever experienced—Many aisles have been cleared of center tables, giving more comfort to the great throngs that crowd the establishment daily—The delivery service has been expanded, thirty-eight wagons and ninety horses being used in this important branch of the service—

Altogether we see no reason why your Christmas shopping should be done anywhere except at Portland's Largest and Best Store—Come early in the day when possible; the crowds are not so large—Special low prices
