AT THE THEATRES

U. of O. at Heilig Tonight.

The attraction at the Heilig theatre tonight will be the annual concert and "college evening" of the Mandolin and Glee clubs of the University of Oregon. The program is composed of vocal and instrumental music, interspersed with "funny stunts."

"Indiana Romance" at the Lyric.

For a goodbye week the Blunkall company at the Lyric theatre are appearing in a melodrama with a world wide reputation and are saying farewell to their many friends. Next week comes the new Lyric stock company in "The Night Before Christmas."

The Georgia Boy at Pantages.

Emile Subers, The Georgia Boy, who was formerly end man with the Primrose Minstrels, is making a big hit at Pantages theatre this week. His monologue is delightfully amusing.

Murray and Mack Back.

Those two funny original Irish comedians, Murray and Mack, are again with us and creating all kinds of laughter and amusement in their latest big success, "The Sunny Side of Broadway," at Baker theatre all this week.

"The Rose of the Rancho."

No one in Portland needs to be told about the Baker Stock company's immense success, "The Rose of the Rancho," which has been packing the Bungalow for the past two weeks.

Marvelous Bill at the Orpheum.

It seems useless to attempt to call attention to any particular act on the bill at the Orpheum this week. To say just which act should be exploited as the attraction or feature would doubtless cause considerable argument among patrons, for every act is of such high class that they each have a large and enthusiastic following.

"In Wyoming" at the Star.

"In Wyoming," which is the attraction at the Star theatre this week is, without doubt, the best play Willard Mack ever wrote. The story is interesting throughout the entire four acts and there is not a moment when the interest flags.

Royal Musical Act.

In the Royal Musical Five the Grand this week has secured a musical act which is proving a knockout. The musicians have made one of those big hits such as only extra good musical teams can make. There are four men and a young woman and their combined playing is a treat.

WEATHER REPORT

The north Pacific storm has moved rapidly southeastward and united with the Arizona disturbance, the center of which now overlies Utah. No high winds occurred on the north Pacific coast, but rain has occurred throughout western Oregon and western Washington and also in northern California, and snow has fallen in southeastern Idaho, Utah, Colorado and Wyoming. The first snow of the season fell in Portland last night. A ridge of high pressure extends from Alberta south to Montana, thence east to the great lakes and thence southeastward to the Atlantic coast. Light local snow has fallen in the Dakotas, upper Mississippi valley and northern New England. It is colder in eastern Washington, Idaho and northern Utah, and generally warmer along the east slope of the Rocky mountains.

The indications are for fair weather in this district tonight and Thursday, except in southern Idaho, where the conditions are favorable for snow.
