LANGFORD MEETS

White Fighter Confident of Stopping Whirlwind

Till be right after Langford all the time and you can start betting against me right now if you think I won't force him to break ground for me all through the fight. I intend to carry the slugging to him, and if I don't make him quit, I'll be the most surprised man in the pavilion. I'll get him sure if he'll stand up and exchange punches to the stand up and exchange punches to t Always After Smoke.

with me."

Langford doesn't say much, other than that he expects to win on a knockout and promises to put the big punch over as early in the fight as possible.

Considerable interest attaches itself to the result, for if Langford wins, prospects are good for a mill for the middleweight championship between Ketchel and the Boston colored man. Langford aspires to the middleweight title, but Flynn declares that he will knock all the championship aspirations out of the black boy tonight.

No small amount of interest attaches; to the preliminary go between Jimmy Walsh and Monte Attell, which is slated to go 15 rounds. Walsh made quite an impression here when he beat Jimmy Carroll so handily, and so well is he thought of by the fans that he has been made a 5 to 10 favorite over Attell. New York, Dec. 21.—Jim Crowley, the former had carrier, who carried the "Winged Fist" of the Irish-American A. C. to victory in the Yonkers Marathen, is the first man to enter the big 26¼ mile race, which will be held under the auspices of the Mercury A. C. on the Empire City racetrack on New Year's day. Crowley is confident he will show just as well over the track as he showed over the roads on Thanksgiving day. The last four miles of the Marathon were run on the Empire City course, but the greater part of the race was over steen hills and roads. The stiff going killed off many competitors before the track was reached.

competitors before the track was reached.

Sammy Mellor of the Mercury A.
C. and Bob Fowler of the Cambridgeport Gymnasium A. A., who finished second and third in the Thanksglving day Marathon, also have sent in their entries for the New Year's contest, and Lewis Tewinima, the Carlisle Indian, who finished fourth, is expected to follow suit. Sidney Hatch and Albert Corey of Chicago also have entered the race and the westerners surely will make the other runners hustle to beat them. Corey was not hurt as severely in the Yonkers Marathon as was first thought. He now is as well as ever and has started training again.

Entry blanks have been sent to 50 of the most prominent Marathon men in the country and it is expected that a great field will face the barrier on New Year's day.

Black Pug.

By Willie Jacobs.

San Francisco, Dec. 21.—Sam Langford of Boston and Jim Flynn, the only scrapper who has the courage to try conclusions with the Boston black, are both fit and ready for their 29 round bout in the Colliseum tonight. The former put in two weeks of strenucus told at Willett's, working up to and including systerday, while the latter perfected his physical fix in a training slege that alasted nearly a month. They are in shape to put up the toughest sort of battle and the fans are looking to them in anticipation of a, mill that will fittingly wind up the boxing season of 1968.

The local fight going public does not concede Mr. Flynn much of a chance to wim, from the negro, for but few are willing to bet on the white man, even at the tempting odds of 10 to 4. Nearly all the wagering on the fight as fear has been on whether or not Jim will last in a training slege that the tempting odds of 10 to 4. Despite the top heavy odds against him and the almost universal idea that he is in for a lovely lacing. Flynn is still confident of beating the husky black fellow. He said today:

Till be right after Langford all the conference. The western schools are our natural rivals and the student body will very soon see that they made a big mistake when they voted to leave the conference. The western schools are our natural rivals and the student body will very soon see that they made a big mistake when the ers of the University of Michigan football team are far from being satisfied

Professor's Statement.

The statement with which he is credited follows: "I think that the student body will very soon see that they made a big mistake when they voted to leave the conference. The western schools are our natural rivals and the students in these schools have about the same standard of scholarship. I don't know what is required of athletes in the eastern schools, but I understand that in some of the institutions a man's physical ability is all that is required. We are foolish in trying to compete with such schools.

"This talk tast we are demanding too much from athletes is absurd. The fact is that I pay very little attention to them. We are here to teach, not to run a football team. I couldn't tell what men in my department played on the different teams, and all we ask of the players is that they pass the work required of other students. If they don't they will have to get out.

"And if any athletic committee came to me and asked for special dispensations for an athlete in my department. I would pay absolutely no attention to the request, Athletes are an excrescence of student life, and I think they should be kept as such. Many students, by taking part in athletics and others, by taking of them too much, lose sight of their school work, to their great detriment, but we treat them all alike."

WISCONSIN ABOUT TO PROTEST SCHOMMER

(United Press Lessed Wire.)

Chicago, Dec. 21.—Schommer, the University of Chicago baseball, football, track and basketball star, who will be a candidate again this season for the quintet, is to be protested by Wisconsiln, according to report from the Badger athletic camp, on the ground that he has already been active as a varsity man in this branch of sport for three years, and therefore should be considered ineligible.

Stagg, the director of maroon athletics, has studied the question of Schommer's eligibility, however, and is confident that under a certain rule passed by the western conference last June, it will be legal for Schommer to play. The rule reads that an athlete who has competed only in minor sports in or previous to 1906 is still eligible for teams this winter and next spring.

Stagg's interpretation, which would permit Schommer to play, is based upon the fact that basketball, though it is regarded as a major sport now, was a minor one before 1906, whereas the Wisconsin athletic folk insist that Schommer ought by right to come under the ruling in question because basketball now is a major sport in the conference.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Dec. 21.—That the O. A. C. students are taking up the wrestling game with a will is evidenced by the good turnout at the Saturday afternoon classes.

His method of instruction is sure to bring favorable results and a large and enthusiastic crowd of students attends the Saturday classes, thus adding interest to the sport. In the spring an athletic carnival will likely be held in which teams from the four classes will wrestle for class supremacy.

In my very extensive practice I have learned a few truths that are undeniably of interest to every man. First of all, I find that the very serious and so-called "incurable" cases are due usually to NEGLECT and DELAY. Again, I know that many men suffer FOR YEARS and practically RUIN THEIR HEALTH FOREVER trying to dose themselves with some patent nostrum that never could cure. No TREATMENT AT ALL is what "cheap" treatment means in nine cases out of ten. The last state of the man is worse than the first. Just before you go a line further in this announcement, stop and ask yourself as to whether YOU are following in the foolish footsteps of the man who NEGLECTS himself? Are You trying to cure yourself with nostrums? Are YOU looking for treatment that will not cure? If you are, it is certain that you will regret it. It is NEVER TOO LATE to get on the right path, but at the same time remember that you cannot get there too soon. The best help in the world is none too good for you; you cannot get it too quickly.
