ON TIPSY MAN

Police of Olympia Stumble Onto Evidence of Counterfeiting.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Olympia, Wash., Dec. 23.—A sensation was caused here when police officers searched John Fleming Jr., a streetcar and engraver in the state printing office, who was arrested for drunkenness, and found five counterfeit $5 gold pieces.
At his room where the investigation was continued were found dies for making $5, $10 and $20 counterfeit gold pieces, a crucible and furnace.
When Fleming was taken to jail he refused to permit the officers to search him. A fight ensued in which he was wounded. It was then the officers discovered the counterfeit money.
The police do not believe that any of the money was passed here, but think that Fleming has an accomplice in the act who is handling the money for him.
The charge of intoxication was changed to counterfeiting.
Fleming is a man about 50 years old.
He claims Omaha as his home. About three months ago he came here from Seattle and went to work in the state printing plant. While in Seattle, where he worked several months, he was engraver in the plant of the Seattle Engraving company.

DRY CHRISTMAS IN THE OLD DOMINION

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Richmond, Va., Dec. 23.—As a result of the operation of the far famed and much discussed Hyatt law, Virginia is to enjoy its first dry Christmas this year.
The holiday will be observed throughout the state, for the first time in history, with the same rigid abstemiousness as characterizes Sunday.
At midnight tomorrow night the saloons everywhere will cease to dispense their wares. The law requires that the blinds shall be thrown open so that the passerby may see that no business is being done.
As a result of new laws and their strict enforcement the liquor traffic, it is believed, will show a material fall-off in Virginia for the year 1908.
An even greater decrease is anticipated for the coming year, as the details of several other large cities have recently voted out the saloons, and the number of "dry" cities and towns will probably be increased as the result of local option elections to be held in the near future.

FAMED DANCERS DO STUNTS AT DINNER

(United Press Leased Wire.)
New York, Dec. 23.—That oriental and Hawaiian dances of a startling kind constituted the chief feature of a recent banquet given by Mr. and Mrs.
Jackson Gouraud at the Cafe Martin became known today when the details of that dinner were made public. Actors and actresses were the majority of the guests, and each person contributed a little something to the general gaiety.
Mrs. Gouraud, who was formerly Miss Amy Crocker of Sacramento, and whose husband is a well known attorney in that city, amused her guests with a new hula hula dance; Anna Held sang French songs; Valeria Suratt furnished what she called her "Three Weeks" dance. Edna Wallace Hopper and Etie-tta Forsythe also took part in the impromptu program.

CHRISTMAS IN ROYAL PALACES

What Santa Claus Has for Monarchs and Their Families.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
London, Dec. 23.—The preparations for the Yuletide celebration of the royal family which, as in former years, will be held at Sandringham palace, are nearly completed. The king and queen arrived at Sandringham two days ago to superintend the final arrangements.
The king having recovered from his recent attack of the influenza, there is nothing to mar the royal children's spirit of the Christmas celebration.
The hundreds of more or less valuable presents for the royal children, the nursery and the personal friends of the king and queen and for the members of the royal household have all been purchased and are in readiness for distribution on Christmas day and the individual Christmas cards of the king and the queen are being sent to the various crowned heads of Europe, the relatives and intimate friends of the royal couple. The children and the queen are in readiness for remembered by the queen, as in former years.
There will be a large family party at Sandringham on Christmas day. Early in the morning the children will be permitted to roam through the palace to awaken all sleepers with cheerful Christmas greetings. After breakfast the king and the queen, with the older children and members of the household, attend divine service in the chapel of St. Mary Magdalen. The queen with Miss Knollys, her private, and other ladies, after the interior decorations of the chapel and also join in the singing of the Christmas hymn.
The king serves the king usually takes his guests to the stables and kennels, while the queen, accompanied by one of her young princesses, or her maid of honor, visits nearly all the cottages on the estate and leaves with them tickets which entitle them to provisions and coal. These are distributed. Christmas night in the coach room of the royal stables. The king and the queen are invariably present at the distribution and talk pleasantly with the old tenants.
The Christmas trees for the members of the royal family, a good sized sapling, substantial enough to carry the heavy load of presents, has been placed in the center hall, and on Christmas morning the whole family will assemble around it to receive the presents which thoughtful Santa Claus has provided for each member.
On Christmas day the royal family has a regular family dinner. The royal table is invariably present at the family party are invited and which is usually a brilliant affair, does not take place until the day after Christmas.

WILL BRIGATE
MOLALLA LAND

New Corporation to Try Experiment in the Willamette Valley.

A move toward the inauguration of summer irrigation on a large scale in the Willamette valley is indicated by the organization of the Canby Canal company, which filed articles of incorporation in the county clerk's office today. The company of which the incorporators are M. J. Lee, W. B. Moors and Henry S. Westbrook, is a close corporation with a capital stock of $5000 and proposes to irrigate about 5000 acres of land in Clackamas county, taking water from the Molalla river for the purpose of an extensive system of canals will distribute the water from storage reservoirs.
The soil to be irrigated is light and sandy and is said to greatly resemble that of the famous Yakima valley, in central Washington. Much of the famous fruit growing districts of the world. The land at the present time is rather unproductive, but by the use of water during 90 days of the dry season it is believed it can be made one of the most productive fruit and vegetable growing sections of the state. It was in the Molalla district that watermelons and strawberries were first grown in the Willamette valley.

STRATTON WINS IN SCRAP WITH NORTH

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Dec. 23.—Collector of the Port Frederick S. Stratton is in possession of an order from Washington, which while supporting his ruling that immigration Commissioner Hart H.
North can not be granted to persons desiring to visit outgoing or incoming steamships, also gives him a political victory over the immigration man.
The trouble arose through the desire on the part of Commissioner North to issue passes to friends and acquaintances who wished to greet their farewell to friends on the liners. The pier where the steamships are tied are controlled by Collector Stratton's men.
Those bearing the passes of North were refused admittance to the pier.
Stratton was permitted to pass without question. North took the matter up with Washington, but the decision of the department was adverse, and he must abide by the ruling.

LEADER SENT TO REFORM SCHOOL

Carl Lacey, aged 17, the leader of a gang of bad boys who spend their time around a union depot, smoking and gambling, was sentenced to a term in the state reform school yesterday by Judge Gantenbein in the juvenile court.
Lacey and Raymond Burns, aged 17 and 15 respectively, who were members of the same gang, were committed to the reform school last week and four other boys, who were on probation and warned to keep away from the poolrooms and like places which they had been frequenting. It is thought that by sending young Lacey to the reform school, the others would be reformed as Lacey was, in appearance at least, the leader of the crowd in their mischief.
Winfield Oliver, of 514 Milwaukee street, the father of eight children, was arraigned before the court yesterday, warned to take better care of his offspring. The mother, it is said, is of unsound mind and the children receive very little care.
