

WILLIE TURNS PAPA INTO A CONFETTI FOUNTAIN ON NEW YEAR'S EVE

DEAR TOMMY: On New Year's Eve papa and I started out to have some fun. I made a contraption like this drawing. We tried it in the street, and then went into a restaurant. Papa saw some western buyers he knew, and tried it on them, but the nozzle got stopped up and the bag burst. Then papa sent me home in a taxicab. I didn't see any damage done, but papa told me next day that it cost him over a hundred dollars.

Yours, etc. WILLIE.

TEACHER'S PET--TUG SMITH CAN'T KEEP AWAY FROM TROUBLE

