Rag Man—"Ole rags! Gum Boots! Tinware!"
Anty Drudge—"Goodness! Where'd you get all them washboilers?"
Rag Man—"I buys dem from voomans. Dey says no use any more. You gotta von to sell?"
Anty Drudge—"No, sir. I have not used one for many a year. It didn't take the women of this town long to get rid of their washboilers after I came and told them how to wash with Fels-Naptha in cool or lukewarm water. No more boiling clothes for them I see."

Are you governed by habits?

Not a good thing if they are bad habits.
Are you in the habit of getting up before daybreak to start washing so that you'll be through before night?

If you are it's a habit to get rid of right away.

There's no necessity for it. Get rid of the old-fashioned boiling, and scalding clothes, back-breaking washboard-rubbing habit and adopt the easy Fels-Naptha way.

Strike off the chains that bind you to the washboiler and washboard.

Be a progressive woman.

Follow directions on the inside of the red and green Fels-Naptha wrapper.
