

SOME OF THE SPEAKERS AT T. P. A. BANQUET LAST SATURDAY EVENING

Seven circular portraits of speakers at a banquet, numbered 1 through 7. Names listed below: 1. S. M. Dunne, 2. F. A. Ford, 3. C. W. Hodson, 4. O. G. Hughson, 5. C. D. Frazer, 6. C. A. Whatmore, 7. E. J. Fay.

NEW YORK SHOW HOUSES LIDED

Police Act as Stage Managers in Enforcement of Blue Laws.

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, Dec. 28.—As the result of an effort on the part of the mayor yesterday to enforce the blue laws, prohibiting almost every kind of Sunday amusement, the vaudeville house managers of New York are getting together with a view to preventing a recurrence of a police raid made yesterday upon amusement places. Every vaudeville house in town suffered police invasion and was compelled to change its program, filling in makeshifts to fit the occasion.

Charge Is Embezzlement. Winnipeg, Dec. 28.—A warrant on a charge of embezzlement was issued today for Park A. Smith, junior member of the firm of Nugent Smith & Co. Smith is accused of dishonestly obtaining a sum said to be in excess of $15,000. Smith left here a week ago for Toronto and the east. He came to this city from San Francisco following the earthquake and has moved in exclusive circles here.

HONEYMOON UP IN THE CLOUDS

Millionaire C. A. Coey and His Bride Will Fly From Los Angeles.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Chicago, Dec. 28.—A honeymoon in the clouds is planned by millionaire C. A. Coey, one of the most prominent aeronauts in America, who will be married at Kansas City next Saturday to Miss Carle Hume Lewis. Immediately after the ceremony the aeronaut and his bride will take a fast train for Los Angeles, where they will find Coey's great balloon, the Chicago, awaiting them.

MINER'S PICK STRIKES A FORGOTTEN SHOT

(United Press Leased Wire.) Ely, Nev., Dec. 28.—News of the death of Mike Jokich, an Austrian, employed by the Steptoe Valley Smelting and Refining company, at McGill has reached here. Jokich, while digging into a formation of limestone with a pick struck a dynamite stick that had been left imbedded in the rock. The dynamite exploded and Jokich was literally blown to pieces.

MILLIONAIRE IN THE WORKHOUSE

William James Powell, Otherwise "Slim," in for Six Months.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 28.—Heir to more than $750,000 and a big estate in Virginia and entitled to a high position in Baltimore society, William James Powell, known far and wide among hobos as "Slim," has been sentenced to serve 180 days in the workhouse on a vagrancy charge. He has been made head trusty.

Powell is a soldier of fortune with a wonderful record of adventure. He is handsome and educated. Among year-men and tramps he is as much at home as in polished society, and his other side is as seamed as his gentle actions are good. He is now past 34 and will come into his estate at 25. His parents died when he was a child and he was left in charge of a guardian, while his father's estate, then worth $500,000 and left him by will, was safely invested and has increased. He ran wild at 19.

Aids Nature

Advertisement for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Text describes the benefits of the medicine for various ailments. Includes an illustration of a person sitting at a desk.

1 LONE GOAT ON DESERTED BOAT

Bleats Farewell as Water-Logged Schooner Is Left to Sink.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Aberdeen, Wash., Dec. 28.—The officers, crew and captain's wife were rescued from the water-logged schooner Gotoona yesterday morning by a lifeboat sent out from the steamer Santa Monica. The Santa Monica reached here this afternoon with the refugees, eight in number, the Gotoona having been abandoned, a derelict. For two days the crew of the boat battled with a terrific gale 10 miles off Willapa harbor. They had given up all hope when the Santa Monica, Captain Olsen, came to their rescue.

TELLS WAITRESS TO ORDER COFFIN

Then R. A. Cohoe, Well Known in Grant, Gulps Strychnine Dose.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Canyon City, Or., Dec. 28.—R. A. Cohoe, 24 years of age, son of D. C. Cohoe, a prominent man in northern Grant county, was found on the streets of Canyon City Christmas evening in the last agonies of death, the result of a dose of strychnine taken with suicidal intent. Medical assistance was summoned, but death resulted almost immediately. Despondency and imaginary troubles prompted the act.

HARRIMAN MONEY IN SALTON SEA

His Attorneys Worried Lest Congress Fail to Reimburse.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Washington, Dec. 28.—The attorneys of E. H. Harriman are alarmed at the possibility of failure on the part of the congressional committee on claims to allow even a portion of the remuneration asked by the railroad king for work done by his road in curbing the Colorado river, where it broke its banks and threatened Imperial valley.

Wife Cheers Sailors. "We were able to get a little canned stuff from the galley, but did not get any water. The liquid in the cans kept our throats from becoming stiff and parched. My wife was very brave and cheered us through the dreadful darkness of the night. We had lost our compass and all the ship's papers and we kept the schooner into the teeth of the storm as best we could and tried to make the Columbia river.

Advertisement for the Rayo Lamp. Text: "When the Furnace Fails... On many a cold winter morning you will wake to find the fires 'out.' What are you going to do about it—shiver? Prepare now for the emergency with a PERFECTION Oil Heater." Includes an illustration of the lamp.

THE DELINEATOR. Illustration of a woman's face. Text: "THE BUTTERICK PUBLISHING COMPANY NEW YORK. Fifteen Cents a Copy One Dollar a Year." Date: JANUARY 1909.

The Fashion Authority of the World

In Paris the FRENCH EDITION OF THE DELINEATOR has the largest circulation of any magazine of its kind. This is the tribute of Paris to BUTTERICK FASHIONS. In America THE DELINEATOR is the one style authority. It is made so by its association with the great fashion autocrats of Paris, and the creators of style in this Country and by its own unsurpassed staff of fashion artists.

Mrs. Eleanor Chalmers, whose knowledge of dress-making is unsurpassed, is contributing a series of dressmaking lessons, illustrating every move by a simple diagram. Following them the most timid user of the needle may become her own skilled dressmaker.

Ask the Merchant handling our goods in your town how you can get

- The Delineator (subscription price) $1.00
Butterick Fashions (4 books worth 25 Cents each) 1.00
Butterick Patterns (4)60
All this for $2.60

Or write us for the information THE BUTTERICK PUBLISHING COMPANY BUTTERICK BUILDING, NEW YORK

BUTLER MAY BE HEAD OF HARVARD (United Press Leased Wire.) New York, Dec. 28.—It is reported that Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university, has been chosen as the successor of Dr. Charles Eliot as the head of Harvard. It is said James Storrow will be the immediate successor of Dr. Eliot, who has resigned, but that Storrow will be succeeded by Dr. Butler as soon as he can rest his affairs at Columbia in connection with his new position as president of that institution.