HELP WANTED—MALE 1

A HAPPY PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR, 1930 TO ONE AND ALL.

Heartily thanking the public at large, who have extended me their patronage from time to time, and hoping to merit a generous continuance of it, I prompt and reliable business service, I am yours respectfully,

C. R. HANSEN JR. HANSEN EMPLOYMENT OFFICES, 25 North Second st., Portland, Or. 4134 Washington st., Portland, 424 Front ave., Spokane, Wash.

Offices, connections and correspondents in all large western cities. HELP SUPPLIERS WISH TO EMPLOYERS.

A SITUATION OR NO CHARGE TO APPLICANTS. REGISTRATION FREE. CORRESPONDENCE SOLICITED. LICENSED, BONDED.

18 YEARS IN THE BUSINESS. REMEMBER, HANSEN HIRES HELP, MEN AND WOMEN.

PLEASE ATTENTION! MR. EMPLOYER. I can never have occurred to you that labor and time saving devices of various kinds can be applied through an EMPLOYMENT OFFICE.

BUT THEY CAN, AND SHOULD BE. Try it as a matter of fact. Should you be an out of town patron, desiring the service of one or more employees for any work, skilled, technical, or unskilled, write me a letter, stating what you want, the wages you pay, and other details that will give me the right idea.

When I have the right idea, I may select the help required with a degree of intelligence and satisfaction to all concerned, but also please make a reasonable time allowance, if possible. Rush orders for permanent help may be wired at my expense, but observe the above simple conditions, you save yourself time, annoyance and expense, and shift the burden of responsibility of securing satisfactory help, and bringing them to the employer on equal ground, to the shoulders of one whose specialty is "GETTING THE RIGHT HELP."

OUT OF TOWN EMPLOYERS should place a reasonable time limit on orders for help, and accept the application through an EMPLOYMENT OFFICE, or pay the traveling expenses of such applicants, as there is justice in everything, and that one point may cause a degree of trouble to the agent, the applicant or yourself, or all three. If it is not observed, IF THE EMPLOYER IS NOT PROCURABLE LOCALLY, THEN SEND TO ME—AND HOLD THE SITUATION OPEN.

IF THE APPLICANT SENDS YOU ON YOUR ORDER, within your own time limit, and if not filled within that time, put it up to me to communicate further with you before sending help at a delayed date, and our city law holds me responsible in case of not following such regulations, thereby protecting the applicant to the extent of his office fee and traveling fare.

I DO NOT GUARANTEE ABSOLUTE SATISFACTION. That is impossible, as you know.

I DO GUARANTEE WISELY ADVANCED, ENERGETIC ATTENTION TO ANY BUSINESS PLACED WITH ME.

My employment office is a LABOR COUNCIL HOUSE, and is simple in its methods as it is of benefit to the other two interested parties.

MY BUSINESS INTERESTS is made on the facts that I and my associates have the ability, knowledge and acquaintance to select, and put you in touch with competent help on the most reasonable time notice and without cost to the employer or to the employee if he is not engaged by the employer.

A few remarks of this kind may bring more business to you than all the right ideas in the minds of some who have never done business with an agency, and how to do it.

DO YOUR PART. I'LL DO MINE. I presume the same relations may apply to many other agencies, but I KNOW they do mine, in consequence, business transacted through me is NOT STRESS WORK.

DO BUSINESS WITH A MAN WHO KNOWS.

ONCE MORE, WISHING YOU ALL A HAPPY NEW YEAR.

Yours for service, C. R. HANSEN JR.

No order too small. No place too far. TO GET HELP, from
