SOCIETY WEDDING AT FOREST GROVE

A number of people went to Forest Grove today to spend New Year's day and to attend a fashionable wedding there tomorrow evening.

Two of the most prominent families of that part of the state will be united tomorrow through the marriage of Miss Maud Agnes Shannon and Edmund Burke Tongue.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Theodore Shannon, a well known pioneer family.

Mr. Tongue is the son of the late Congressman Thomas H. Tongue and is a prominent attorney of Forest Grove.

Mr. Tongue is prosecuting attorney for the Fifth judicial district. He is a member of the Portland Hunt club and the owner of some splendid thoroughbred horses.

The wedding will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stringer, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McMillen, Dr. J. W. Coghlan, T. S. McGrath, Miss Cornelia Barker and Miss Pearl Chandler.

ATTENDED GRAFT TRIAL IN SOUTH

Attorney John F. Logan and family returned yesterday from a three weeks vacation visiting relatives and friends in San Francisco and neighboring cities.

While in San Francisco, Mr. Logan put in most of the time attending the Ruff and Claudians trials.

"Public sentiment has veered around to the support of the graft prosecution," said Mr. Logan. "It is a relief to me to see that up to the time Henev was shot the prosecution had very little sympathy from the business element in San Francisco. But the attempt to assassinate the great prosecutor was too much, and now the grafters have very few friends among the commercial and professional men."

AT THE THEATRES

"The Devil's Auction" Coming. The twenty-eighth consecutive year of Charles H. Yale's "Everlasting Devil's Auction" will be characterized by a sumptuous production.

"Are You a Mason" at Bungalow. Howard Russell, William Dills and Sydney Ayres have great comedy roles in "Are You a Mason" which has kept Baker stock company audiences roaring all week at the Bungalow.
