Thursday will be given over to the visitors and they will be allowed to see as much of the city as they may wish and in any way they may wish. Friday evening a smoker will be given in their honor at the Portland Rowing club. CLUBBED BY COP; GETS JUDGMENT (United Press Leased Wire.) Seattle, Jan. 5.—Alleging that he had acquired a continuous headache as the direct result of an assault with a policeman's billy in the hands of Edward Hamlin, a Falls City guardian of the peace, John D. Redman has secured a default judgment of $500 against Hamlin. Wiley Requisition Honored. Olympia, Wash., Jan. 5.—Governor Mead has honored the requisition of the governor of California for W. L. Wiley, under arrest at Seattle. It is charged that Wiley, representing himself as the New York Advertising Exchange, with offices in the Call building, San Francisco, secured $200 fraudulently from B. Rubl of Sacramento.

LOSER AT POKER GETS REVENGE AT COST OF NIGHT IN JAIL

A loser at poker had his revenge last night, but he spent the remainder of the night in jail. The men whose arrest he caused declined to bail him out. Abe Samuels it was who hurried into the police station with the story of being bunked. Sergeants Keller and Kinlin heard his tale and then went to 232 Garthurs street, the house in which Samuels said he had been fleeced. The sergeants wanted, if possible, to see the game in progress before their presence became known, so they turned around at last the officers stepped forward, flashed their stars and took possession of the money on the table. A. L. Blank—declares that to be his true name—was booked for conducting a gambling house, while A. Jeloff and M. J. Greenburg were listed as offending the law by visiting a gambling house. All went to jail, where Samuels in the meantime was being held as a witness. Blank managed to round up enough money to secure the freedom of Greenberg, Jeloff and himself, but Samuels' purse was very slim and as the officers were determined their witness should not get away he was forced to stay in jail all night. Blank was fined $20 today and the others $10 each. All pleaded guilty. Samuels, no longer needed, was dismissed. According to Samuels' story, he lost about $5 playing blackjack. Then a poker game was proposed, and when he said he knew nothing of poker, Blank's wife was appointed his instructor. The game began, but Samuels says he believes that every time he held a fair hand Mrs. Blank telegraphed the fact to her husband by the "kick" system. At any rate, he was loser to the extent of $59 when he withdrew to call the police.
