

THE THIRD AND LAST WEEK OF RUMMAGE SALE

--the final clean up of all odds and ends, commencing today, including also the Furniture and Carpets of the Hotel Lenox

No less opportune for bargain-buying than during the first and second weeks will be the third and final week of this annual value-giving event—the sale stock has been replenished with additional bargains from every department and in many instances we have made still further and extremely liberal price-reductions throughout the assortment. The offerings during the next six days should prove specially attractive to those who have been unable to share in the extraordinary values offered during the past two weeks. Mail orders received in time will be given prompt and careful attention. Selections made from the "Rummage Sale" are subject to delivery at our earliest convenience and will not be exchanged.

All Carpets of the Hotel Lenox Are to Be Offered in This Week's Sale

Such floor-covering bargains were never before offered in this city—the entire lot representing a variety of patterns in the most serviceable weaves and fabrics—Axminsters, Velvets and Tapestry Brussels—in an assortment of sizes from which selection can be made to fit rooms of standard sizes. These carpets have all been thoroughly cleaned by steam process, and are in every way desirable floor coverings. Sale takes place in the Carpet Department—Sixth Floor—commencing today.
