

IT'S ONLY ETHELINDA--IT GAVE HER SUCH A FRIGHT

TED'S OBJECT SPELLING LESSON--P-A-I-L AND B-R-O-O-M

"Oh, See, look here! I've found a word that I've not seen before. P-A-I-L, just four letters; I'm glad there are no more"

"Why, Teddy, there it is. Oh, look! Don't stumble; now look out! A pail, a water pail, and it is brimming full, no doubt!"

"Yes, that's just what it is, all right. My goodness, see it stop. All over poor old Bridget, too! I'm glad I cannot stop."

"Now, what is B-R-O-O-M? 'Tis strange I do not know. Ah, here comes Bridget on the run. Why, does she hurry so?"

"Oh! There it is; biff! bang! A broom! My, Bridget, but you're rough! Hold on! Don't strike me any more! I think once is enough!"

"P-A-I-L is pail, eh Sue? I upset it kerflop! And B-R-O-O-M is broom. It surely made me stop."

Red Nankivel