Sunday School Conference—The west side division of the Multnomah county Sunday School association held an all day conference yesterday at Grace Methodist church under the direction of C. A. Phipps, state secretary of this interdenominational work. In the afternoon Mr. Phipps, Rev. J. T. Abbett and Rev. C. W. Merritt were the principal speakers. Mr. Abbett spoke on "How Often Should I Urge Decisions in My Class," in which he took the position that the appeal should not be made to the class is a whole, but to the individual in his own home or in private conference. Mr. Merritt spoke on "Presenting the Lesson" and "The Teacher's Opportunity and Responsibility," Mr. Phipps subjects were "My Class" and "Relation of Organized Classes to the School." In the evening A. F. Flegel spoke of the needs of the interdenominational association and its work.

The "Duniap" Ecception—Tomorrow the Duniap agents all over the United States will place on sale their spring styles of hats. This will positively be the first exhibition. For example, no one, for love or money, could have gone into the big clothing and hat store of Robinson & Co., here in Portland, and secured a spring style Duniap hat last week, although the stock has been on the shelves for some time. Another distinguishing feature of the Duniap management is that no attention is paid to the doings of other manufacturers. In fact, all the other hat makers allow their hats put on sale earlier. The "Duniap" manufacturers have accredited agencies in all the principal cities of the world, which alone speaks most loudly for the impregnable position this particular make of hat holds in the minds and hearts of the people.

Blasier Fined for Gambling—Councilman Wills was successful in obtaining a conviction of Ed Blazier, one of the proprietors of Blazier's saloon, on Burnside street, for allowing gambling in his saloon, for the reason that 34 of the men arrested while playing cards for the drinks at Blazier's had pleaded guilty to a gambling charge. The court records showed these pleas and the sums assessed as fines, so Blazier could do nothing but plead guilty. He was fined $25 yesterday afternoon in the police court, when Judge Van Zante gave over the afternoon to several state cases which have been pending for some time. The arrests in Blazier's were instigated by Wills, who found the games in progress while on a tour, of the north end two weeks ago. end two weeks ago.

Accused of Striking a Woman.
George Russell was arrested by a deputy constable yesterday, charged with striking Mrs. Annie Bush, a neighbor, in the face with his fist. The complaint was signed by the woman's husband. The Bushes and Russell live on the peninsula and both families are clearing their land. A quarrel sprangup as to the proper place to put a fence, according to Russell's story, and Mrs. Bush seized a club nearly four feet long and advanced upon him. He struck to defend himself, he says. The club was taken charge of as evidence in the case. Russell will have a hearing before Justice Bell Friday afternoon. As his wife was seriously ill yesterday he was released on his own recognizance.

Discuss Righ Bridge—The South Portland Improvement club will hold a mass meeting in Harrison hall, at Front and Harrison streets, at 7.30 o'clock tomorrow night. The meeting has been called for the purpose of discussing the projected high bridge across the Willamette at Sherman street. A number of prominent residents of the district will address the meeting. Following the bridge discussion, the new charter will receive the attention of the meeting. It is understood that resolutions condemning many provisions in the charter will be introduced.

Rev. Henry Russell Talbot.

Rev. Henry Russell Talbot.

After a lapse of several months, regular Sunday services will again be held in St. David's Episcopal church, beginning next Sunday. Rev. Henry Russell Talbot, the new pastor of the parish, arrived in this city Monday and will conduct both morning and evening services. Mr. Talbot is being entertained prior to the opening of the rectory, at the home of Dr. S. E. Josephi.

The new pastor was born in the city of Boston, September 3, 1873, and received his preparatory education there. He graduated from Harvard in 1895 and from the Cambridge Theological seminary in 1898. He was ordained deacon on Trinity Sunday, 1898, at St. Paul's church, Boston, and a year later advanced to the priesthood at St. Stephen's church, Boston. Soon after the acquisition of the Philippines by the United States he offered himself for missionary service and was sent to the islands. He served there but one year, as ill health drove him back to America. He served as dean of the cathedral of All Saints till January 1, 1909, when he resigned to accept the position of rector of St. David's parish.

Mr. Talbot came to Portland by way of Central America and San Francisco.

A New Departure

The cost of interments has been greatly reduced by the Holman Undersreatly reduced by the Holman Undertaking company.

Heretofore it has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidentals connected with a funeral. The Edward Holman Undertaking company, the leading funeral directors of Portland, have departed from that custom. When casket is furnished by us we make no extra charges for embalming, hearse to cemetery, outside box or any services that may be required of us, except clothing, cemetery and carriages, thus effecting a saving of $25 to $75 on each funeral.
