SOCIETY

(Continued From Page Two.)

invitations, assisted the hostess in entertaining, as did also Miss Carrol Cyr. Supper was served at the card tables, and the refreshments sustained the heart idea. There were nine tables. The clubs gave the hostess handsome gifts. The Preferred Stock club, a Japanese hanging basket of brass; the Tuesday Night club a cut glass dish, and the Thursday Night club an imported vase.

★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Slocum, who came from Oklahoma and bought a beautiful home at Jennings' Lodge, were given a reception and surprise party Thursday. The company gathered at Mr. Russell's and Mr. Redmond's residences, and at 8 o'clock all went to Mr. Slocum's home. The house was then decorated beautifully with Chinese lanterns and was a mass of light from top to bottom. Miss Bronte Jennings gave some delightful readings. The Rice family furnished music. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John F. Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rothe, Dora and Minnie Rothe, Master Ernest Rothe, Miss Bronte Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Spooner, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Boardman, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Rice, Miss Nellie Rice, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Russell, Anna Russell, Glen, Robert and Leslie Clifford Russell, Mr. and Mrs. L. Wilcox, Naomi Wilcox, Master Kenneth Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Rose, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Redmond, William R. Ross, Miss Edna J. Ross, Master Reginald L. Ross, D. C. Clark, E. T. Webb, J. A. Nelson, Manson Rase.

★ ★

A pleasant valentine birthday party was given Laura Dingle by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Dingle, at her home, 676 East Ankeny street, Saturday evening a week ago. The evening was spent in music and games. The first prizes were won by Miss Elizabeth Wassell and Miss Mollie Fetting. The second prizes were won by Miss Harriet Fetting and Alfred Lomax. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Among those present were the Misses Edith Dufur, Dorothy Tate, Genevieve Dufur, Estelle McCarthy, Wilhelmina Becksted, Emple Cox, Mollie Fetting, Gene Lynch, Harriet Fetting, Elizabeth Wassell, Grace Du Gas, Edna Hursh, Evelyn Ewart, Edna Stuart, Erma Ewart, Doris Ball, Veva Leach, Elsie Clair, Helen Clair, Fairy Leach, and Ida Dingle, Mrs. Becksted, Mrs. May; Parke Myers, Paul Griesel, Harry Hursh, Myron Myers, Raymond Fox, Fred Griesel, Freeman McNary, Alfred Lomax, Roland Towes, Claude Lomax, George Dingle, Ford Cox, Mr. May and Mr. Becksted.

★ ★

The T. A. G. club entertained with a valentine party at the home of Miss Irma Nelson, 549 Yamhill street, Saturday evening. The decorations consisted of the club colors, yellow and green, in the living room, hearts in the dining room, and pennants and Oregon grape and ferns in the parlor. The club members are Ella Ashbaugh, president; Irma Nelson, treasurer; Inez Cornell, Ruby Therkell, Florence Kleinschmidt and Ada Conry. Those present were Martha Holden, Ruth Bringmann, Zura Woodward, Pauline Bohnsen, Lorene Duncan, Agnes Mitchell, Ada Conry, Inez Cornell, Florence Kleinschmidt, Nellie Bevans, Ruby Thirkell, Irma Nelson, William Lewis, Roy Johnson, Denton Cotterill, Harry Davis, George Kelly, Lawrence Masterston, Eugene West, Earl Cash, Carl Schultz and Herbert Metzgar. Games, music and dancing were indulged in, after which refreshments were served. The prizes were secured by Agnes Mitchell and Herbert Metzgar.

★ ★

Mrs. E. Tunk entertained some of her pupils at a musicale Saturday afternoon, February 13, at her residence on Market street. The selections representing some of the best masters were difficult, considering the youth of the performers, but each pupil played with skill. A few of the mothers and friends were present and a pleasant social time enjoyed. Those present were Catherine Norton, Wilema Tobey, Helen Pierce, Neita Tobey, Minnie Stevers, Elsie Logus, Joyce Ball, Mamie Anderson, Hazel Reader, Esther Swansen, Edna Young, Hazel Webber, Cora Webber, Martha and Gertie Van Hoomissen, Norma Meeve, Kate and Annie Scheidesman, Edith Johnson, Dortha Morris, Lily Ladd, Kate Smith, Alice Wilhelm, Hazel Westrem, Elaine Cooper, Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Norton, Mrs. Tobey, Mrs. Ball, Mrs. Stevers, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Webber, Mrs. Pierce, Mrs. Van Hoomissen and Mrs. McLain.

★ ★

A St. Valentine party was given last Monday evening by Miss Gladys Connolly at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Connolly in Irvington. The rooms were tastefully decorated with festoons of hearts. Piano solos were rendered by Misses Violet Johnson and Helen Wegman. Various games were played, the prizes being won by Miss Bertha Thompson and Miss Violet Johnson, and Elwin Hangen. Those present were: Misses Lena Godfrey, Ananita Parker, Ruby Ladd, Helen Wegman, Bernice Hollingsworth, Violet Johnson, Gertrude Kelly, Marion Connolly, Frankie Thompson, Rose Wing, Winnifred Stark, Bertha Thompson, Edna Hangen, Elizabeth Donnerberg, Helen Wastell and Charles Hall, Joe Meyer, Louis Porter, Charles Olsen, Waldo Rose, Alex Nagle, Clarence Porter, Alvah Weston, Elwin Hangen, Algernon Weston, Ed Hogg and Harold Connolly.

★ ★

Mrs. E. P. Preble entertained Thursday afternoon at her home on Chapman street in honor of Mrs. Crippen of Livingston, Mont. The guests included Mrs. L. W. DuBois, Mrs. A. B. Eastham, Mrs. Thomas P. Clarke, Mrs. C. W. Albright, Mrs. E. E. Beard, Mrs. Frank Hodgkin, Mrs. Wilbur Aldrich, Mrs. J. H. Heasley and Mrs. Albert Rawson of Vancouver, Mrs. Holiday, Mrs. Charles and Mrs. John Heffernn of Livingston, Mont., Mrs. J. C. LeBarre and Mrs. E. Owen of Portland. The hostess was assisted by Misses Margaret DuBois, Elma Gilbert and Nellie Preble. Pleasing vocal numbers were rendered by Miss DuBois and Miss Gilbert. The prizes were carried away by Mrs. Frank Hodgkin and Mrs. C. W. Albright.

★ ★

Miss Julia McCarthy, and Miss Gladys Pierson entertained a number of their friends, Friday evening, February 12, with a Valentine party at the home of the former, 1529 Portsmouth avenue. The rooms were beautifully decorated with Oregon grape, red crepe paper, and hearts, darts, and cupids, were in evidence everywhere.

Many interesting games appropriate for the occasion were played, after which a delightful luncheon was served. Miss Gertrude Pierson presided at the punch bowl, and a delightful time was enjoyed by all.

Those who partook of the evening's pleasures were the Misses Sada Collamore, Virgie Strong, Virginia Carlander, Helen DeVaul, Amelia Ullman, Catherine Short, Helen Trougan, Rein McNamara, Alice Duhaime, Eulalia Martin and Frances McGlumphy, Ralph Walton, Fred Griswold, Lloyd Rudd, Raymond Carlander, Albert Weisendanger, Gordon Colgan, Eugene LeGall, Will Cole, Spencer Link, George Kerr, Will McCarthy, Joe Duhaime, and Dorsey Walton.

★ ★

The members of the Portia club and their husbands were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Manning at a card party given Friday night of last week. The decorations were most artistic with red as the prevailing color. Red hearts extended in strings from wall to wall, making a gay and attractive scene. At supper ice cream squares with red hearts in the center were served. Partners for supper were chosen by means of duplicate valentines, which were distributed among the guests by the little daughters of the host and hostess.

Mrs. W. Y. Masters won the lady's prize, a pretty piece of Bohemian ware, and J. B. Hosford had the highest score among the men players, and won a Lincoln pictorial and story calendar for 1909. George W. Stapleton was unanimously awarded the "booby" honors.

★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Huott of 169 North Twenty-second street, gave a birthday and valentine party to their grandson, Master Tommie Fargher, on his twelfth birthday. The party attended the matinee at the Orpheum and following the performence they enjoyed an automobile ride till dinner time, when they returned to the boy's home when the table was laid for twelve. The dining room was beautifully decorated in hearts of all sizes, and red carnations. The evening was pleasantly spent in music and games. Those present were Dorothy Seaman, Florence Brown, Mildred Raymond, Blanche Rierson, Helen Dahl, Bessie Rierson, Leon Goldsmith, George Warner, Herman Helm, Harry Cornelius, Amos Helm and Tommie Fargher.

★ ★

One of the most enjoyable meetings of the Tuesday Afternoon club was held at Mrs. A. W. Whitmer's home, Twenty-third and Broadway, Tuesday, February 8. Covers at luncheon were laid for 24. The tables were beautiful with cut flowers and white shaded lights threw a soft radiance over the lovely home. A toast was given to each member, many of which were "hits," creating much merriment. Dainty handpainted place cards made fitting souvenirs of the occasion. Mrs. G. M. Glines won the card prize. Besides members, Mrs. DeGroff and Mrs. Aylsworth, mother and aunt of the hostess, were guests. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Merwin Pugh, 936 East Everett street.

★ ★

Among the pleasant events of the past week in fraternal circles was the banquet given by Mount Hood circle, No. 151, W. of W., to members and candidates secured during a three months' campaign just closed. Covers were laid for 70 persons. During the banquet hour speeches and toasts were given. An impromptu program of instrumental and vocal music was rendered and especially enjoyed were several Scotch songs by J. Ruddiman. Dancing was indulged in till a late hour. As the festivities were about to close Mrs. Lou Ellen Cornell presented Mrs. M. J. Ruddiman with a sofa cushion for having secured the most members during the campaign. All joined hands, forming a circle, and sang "Auld Lang Syne."

★ ★

One of the pleasant affairs of the week was the banquet served to the members of Mount Hood circle last Monday evening who had been successful in securing new members for the circle in the past three months. The spread was prepared and served in the spacious banquet hall of the east side Woodman hall and nearly 100 were present to enjoy it. A delightful program of music and dancing had been prepared and several after-dinner speeches were made by prominent members. Mrs. B. K. Knapp acted as toastmistress. The next social event of the circle will be a "George Washington whist and dance" next Tuesday evening.

★ ★

Monday evening Miss Lena Lynch entertained her friends with a valentine party. The parlor was decorated in hearts, red and white. The dining room was in pink and white. Games and music were the features of the evening. The prizes were won by Fred Schnell and Miss Nelson. Refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Georgia Rogers, Pernilla Nelson, Ruth Grayson, Emma Leel, Margaret Duerr, Robina Grayson, Lizzie Scheidman and Lena Lynch; Martin Nelson, Lion Becker, Rudolph Hosely, Otto Nelson, Fred Schnell, Phil Sinner, James Lynch, Mrs. A. E. Porth, Mrs. K. Lynch.

★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Bienvenu entertained a number of their friends at their residence, 83 Shaver street, in honor of their wooden wedding, Saturday evening. The house was prettily decorated in Oregon grape and strings of red hearts festooned from the ceilings and chandeliers. Music, dancing and games were indulged in during the evening. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. T. Spreadborough, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Bienvenu, Misses Myrtle Le Doux, Dorothy Welby, William Clark, H. L. Ingram, Phillip Phillips, George Taylor, Master Zena Spreadborough.

★ ★

Miss Edith Nordstrom was given a surprise party in honor of her birthday, which was on St. Valentine's day. There were about 50 of her friends present and they presented her with a music cabinet. She was the recipient of many beautiful flowers and valentines in abundance. The decorations were appropriate for the occasion, a delightful luncheon was served and the evening was a most enjoyable one with music, dancing and games. Miss Nordstrom is a popular pianiste and possesses a good voice. Several theatre parties have been given during the past week for Miss Nordstrom.

★ ★

The Monday Afternoon Shakespeare club has enjoyed several theatre parties the past week during the rendition of the Shakespearean plays at the Heilig by Charles Hanford. Thursday evening at the "Winter's Tale" Mrs. J. Coulson Hare entertained several of the members of the club: Mrs. Waitman T. Wade, Mrs. Frederick A. Douty, Mrs. Fred W. Graves, Mrs. Allyn Reed and Mrs. Wendell Chandler. Those in attendance Friday night were Professor and Mrs. Kiggins, Dr. and Mrs. L. B. Smith, Dr. and Mrs. Bristow, and Mrs. J. C. La Barre.

★ ★

The La Gale Dougaine Girls gave a most successful valentine dancing party at the Irvington Tennis club last Monday evening. The hall was beautifully decorated in the club colors, blue and white, with many pennants, festoons of hearts, ferns and Oregon grape. The patronesses for the evening were Mrs. John E. Miller and Mrs. Silas Soule. The club members are the Misses Ethel Stiles, Lilla Winters, Era Strickler, Isabel Gilbaugh, Ruby Gilbaugh, Lenta Stahley, Laura Van Horn, Della Woods, Bertha Brehaut, Persis Billings, Edith Berns and Eva Mulkey.

★ ★

Oregon chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, were entertained last Friday afternoon at the home of the vice president, Mrs. Daniel Entler. Old fashioned southern hospitality prevailed and an interesting program was rendered. The next regular meeting of the chapter will be held at the home of Mrs. D. J. Haynes, 565 Glisan street, Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Note the change in the day. All members are urged to be present and all southerners in the city are cordially invited to attend.

★ ★

The Philathea girls entertained the Baraca boys at a valentine party February 12 at the home of Miss Gladys Morgan. The prizes were won by Miss Sylvia McQuinn and Carl Nelder. The following members were present: Misses Ella Henderson, Dora Henderson, Mary Hall, Gladys Morgan, Mabel Jones, Freida Latouretti, Jennie Jones, Sylvia McQuinn, Hazel Adams, Nellie Jones, Alma and Grace Walker, Lela Barbur, Cora Hansen and Leona Plopper, Mrs. Cora Cavender, Mrs. Morgan, Henry Blood, Harold Farmer, Clay Jones, George Jones, Carl Nelder, Carmi Ploppet, Oscar Cornell and Bert Bowen.

★ ★

Eureka Council No. 204, Knights and Ladies of Security, gave a five-hundred party last Monday evening. Mrs. Venator and G. W. Lawhorn won first and R. M. McHugh and Miss V. Peterson won second prizes. Refreshments will be served and a good time expected tomorrow after council meeting.

★ ★

A surprise party, which proved to be one of the pleasant happenings of the week, was given Mrs. Helena Hahn and family Thursday evening at her home, 900 Milwaukie avenue. A large and enthusiastic number of friends comprised the party which assembled for the occasion. An impromptu program of songs, recitations, cards and dancing was enjoyed by all during the greater part of the evening after which dainty refreshments were served. The evening closed with the singing of "Good Night, Come Again," and three hearty cheers for the hostess.

★ ★

Miss Vera Barber entertained a number of her friends at a Valentine party February 13. The parlors were beautifully decorated in hearts and cupids. The following were present: Misses Margaret French, May Lewis, Alice Walters, Mildred Erni, Clara Knapp, Marie Fields, Lela Barber, Elnora Switzenburg, Bessie Mason, Edith Van Helmer, Romona Milligan, Hazel Traub, Dorothy Wooster and Helen Libby; Barclay Roberts, Earl Seeley, Earl Canford, Virgil Brown, Cecil Brown, Harry Camel, Robert Morris, Everett Barber, and Clarence Barber.

★ ★

A delightful afternoon was spent by the "Nonesuch" Five Hundred club at Mrs. Craddock's home, 360 Shaver street, Wednesday afternoon. Refreshments were served by the hostess. The highest scores at cards were made by Mrs. Feathers and Mrs. Harkleroad. The members are Mesdames Allen, Burnett, Craddock, Feathers, Gray, Harkleroad, Howell, Knott, Link, Nendle, Smith and Worth, who were all present. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Feathers' home Wednesday, March 3.

★ ★

Mrs. John F. Logan was given a pleasant surprise party at her residence, 338 East Sixth street, north, last Tuesday by the members of the Portia club. The women met first at the home of Mrs. George W. Stapleton and then proceeded to Mrs. Logan's residence.

The hostess was equal to the occasion and entertained her guests in charming style with instrumental and vocal music. The club will meet with Mrs. John Manning on Tuesday, March 2 at 820 Marshall street.

★ ★

Portland hive, No. 7, Ladies of the Maccabees, entertained members of the order and invited guests in Knights of Pythias hall, Thursday evening of the past week. An excellent program of instrumental and vocal music was rendered after which dainty refreshments were served with iced drinks. The hostesses of the occasion were Mesdames L. E. Cornell, E. Sherwod, M. E. Kinnear, M. E. Hood, S. B. Seip, S. McMahon, E. Foster and Miss M. Paffrath, to whom great credit was given for the successful and pleasant evening spent.

★ ★

Mrs. G. W. Craw gave a valentine party Monday evening to 25 of her young friends. Each guest received a heart box of heart candy and a valentine. The parlors were decorated in lilies and ivy. The dining-room was properly decorated in hearts and red carnation.

★ ★

Miss Leota Siegner and her pupils in elocution will give a recital at the Seamen's Friends' institute Friday evening. She will be assisted by the musical department of the Woman's club. The soloists are Madame d'Auria, Mrs. Price, Mrs. Branch and Miss Harwas.

★ ★

Mrs. Joe Evans entertained a few friends at her home, the "Maples," at Jennings Lodge, Monday last. Miss Carrie Spaulding, a young soprano, assisted the hostess in entertaining the guests. Dainty refreshments were served.

★ ★

The D. of E. girls gave a valentine party February 15 at Woodmen hall. There was a large attendance. Music was furnished by Mrs. Weinberger.

★ ★

The Catholic Young Men's club gave a party at their hall Thursday. Music was furnished by Mrs. Weinberger.

★ ★

The Swastika Five Hundred club met at the home of Mrs. D. T. Watkins.

(Continued on Page Four.)

For the Newest in Wearing Apparel Visit the "Style Store"

EARLY SPRING MILLINERY

Just arrived, the very newest—these comfortable Box Turbans for early spring wear. They fit the head and are adaptable to the close-fitting veil. In all the popular shades to match the new street suits. The Flowerpot and Poke Bonnet Shapes, trimmed in French flowers of all the delicate pastel shades, are the newest for evening wear. Ask to see them.

Spring Suits for Little Women

Here misses and little women find the greatest variety of styles and colors in the new hipless models. Two and Three-Piece Suits, with jaunty straight front and cutaway jacket styles. Every one an individual creation.

NEWEST NOVELTY SUITS

Among the latest arrivals at the "Style Store" are these Spring Novelty Suits of the nobbiest tailoring, in sage, cedar, new blues, catawba, wistaria and decided and shadow stripes. The collars and cuffs are trimmed in Persian embroidery and braid effects.

SUITS IN EXTRA LARGE SIZES

We have an unusually varied assortment among these new arrivals of sizes from 35 to 47. They are the perfectly tailored styles, so universally becoming to stout figures. All the new spring shades and fabrics.

Credit if Desired: The credit method is for your convenience in shopping. You may settle your account in weekly, monthly or semi-monthly payments.

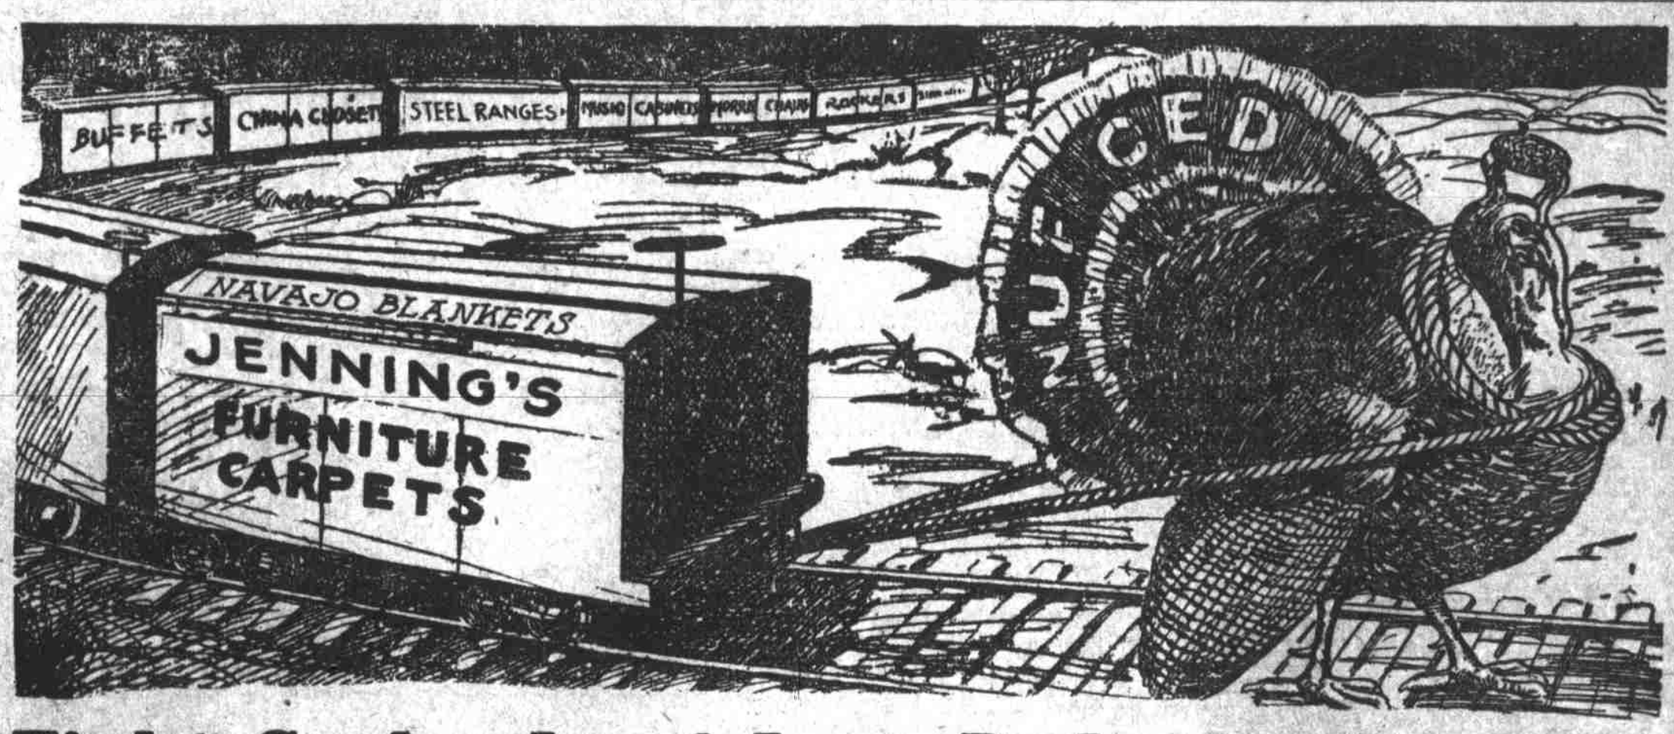
EASTERN OUTFITTING CO.

COR. WASHINGTON AND TENTH—THE STORE WHERE YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD

TWO DOZEN DIFFERENT WAYS OF COOKING VEAL

One can truthfully say there is no other meat that ranks up in the delicacies like milk-fed and fattened veal. Spring lamb is a fine thing in its place but there is a limit to its culinary capabilities. Not so with veal. You can cook it in two dozen different ways and maybe more. Chicken is a world-loved dish but I assure you many an economical hostess has cooked her veal so as to make it taste an ideal imitation of the elegant fowl. The markets of the Smith Meat Company are making this a veal week and are offering some remarkably fine, large, full grown veal, fattened to order with all the milk they could drink. Nothing as choice has ever been seen in town.

No matter how you wish to serve veal, fix this one thing in your memory—cook it thoroughly. Not the faintest echo of an underdone is permissible. The Smith Markets will make Veal Sausage every day this week. It will cost 12½c per pound. You will find it best to bake this sausage in the oven. It cooks evenly and besides, accumulates a good gravy. Another special for the week will be shoulder roast veal at 10c per pound. I feel half an hour to the pound is none too long for oven roast veal. Sprinkle with sage along with the other seasoning. Loin roasts of veal at 15c and rib roasts at 12½c and 15c are very delicious with onion dressing. From the veal that Smith is cutting you can get Prime Rib Roast Veal at 10c and 12½c; a duplicate of Prime Rib Roast Beef. You can have also a fancy rolled Prime Rib Roast of Veal at 18c. The breast of Veal makes a fine dish and is cheap for 10c per pound, according to the cuts you choose. Take a stewpan, heat it well, drop into it a few spoonfuls of butter and let brown. Into this place the pieces of veal and cover with boiling water. Let simmer until done, season, then thicken with flour paste. Take a breast of veal at 8c or 10c and roll with bread stuffing as for chicken and roast. Knuckles of veal at 8c per pound make a delightful meat jelly. Cover with cold water and let simmer, with seasonings, for 24 hours. Strain and let stand to harden. Knuckles of veal at 8c a pound make a nice stew. Shoulder Veal Cutlets are 12½c at Smith's. Loin Veal Cutlets are 15c, and Rib Veal Cutlets are 12½c and 15c. Veal Steak is a rare treat and only 15c at Smith's. All of these fried dishes may be cooked plain, in butter, or breaded and fried. Don't make the mistake of turning your meat often in the pan like you do when you pan a steak. One side of the steak or cutlet must be well cooked before you turn to the other. There are a dozen other possibilities with veal to an enterprising cook: there are croquettes, cecils, olives of veal, fricandelles, potpie, veal loaf, ragouts, galantines, veal stew with dumplings, veal hash, veal soup and boiled leg of veal. The veal you get at Smith's is only the very choicest of fresh Oregon stock, no ice-car meat at Smith's. You can get it at their following markets: 236 Alder street, (where you will have to pass up all the other markets until you get to Smith's), 512 Williams avenue, 791 Mississippi avenue, and Smith's new market, 362 East



Eight Carloads of Iron Beds on the Way

In order to make room for our new stock our entire line of Iron Beds will be sold at cost and less

Here Are a Few of the Many Bargains

$ 5.50 Beds Reduced to . .	$3.00	$14.00 Beds Reduced to . .	$8.00
$ 7.50 Beds Reduced to . .	$4.25	$16.00 Beds Reduced to . .	$9.00
$ 8.00 Beds Reduced to . .	$5.00	$18.00 Beds Reduced to . .	$10.00
$12.50 Beds Reduced to . .	$7.00	$20.00 Beds Reduced to . .	$12.50
$13.00 Beds Reduced to . .	$7.50	$22.50 Beds Reduced to . .	$13.50

See Our Window for Display and Prices

H. Jenning & Sons

Second and Morrison Streets