A remarkable development of insurance protection in the plan somewhat recently devised by an old and reliable Pacific coast institution, whereby there is furnished in one contract, and for one price a combination of life, health and accident insurance, with a guaranty of substantial yearly cash allowances for total and permanent disability, whether this arises from sickness or accident; a weekly indemnity for temporary disability and an old age pension after the contract matures. There are in addition all the modern features found in the best life insurance companies and the cost is within the reach of all. This is certainly extending the benefits of insurance as far as the one contract reasonably asks, and indicates that the day of genuine insurance reform has arrived. Terms for these contracts or for agency work, may be obtained from J. W. Wood, manager of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company, Marquam Bldg., this city.

Royal Arcanum Magistrate Coming.—Invitations have been issued by a joint committee of the three local lodges of the Royal Arcanum to the members of the craft inviting them to a reception to be given on Tuesday evening, February 22, at the convention hall of the Commercial club, to meet Robert Van Sandt, the supreme grand of the order. Mr. Van Sandt is a prominent lawyer of Chicago and for the past year has been at the head of the grand lodge of the Royal Arcanum. The grand lodge of Portland will give a luncheon to the supreme grand at the Commercial club on Tuesday evening and a car ride is planned for the afternoon. He writes that he would be more than pleased to meet all the members of the Royal Arcanum in Portland and no doubt they are equally anxious to meet him.

White Man Robbed.—Charles Wagnell, an aged white man brought from the Siletz Indian reservation to testify before the federal grand jury, complained to companions yesterday that he had been robbed of $42, all the money he had while he slept in a local rooming house. The money had been placed under his pillow for safe-keeping. The sum included that paid him for railroad fare and witness fees by the government. Friends, most of whom raised enough money between them to send him back home. Some of those who knew the old man well were incensed to believe that he had lost his "stake" gambling, and was ashamed to confess to it.

University Park W. C. T. U.—On Thursday, February 11th, the regular W. C. T. U. meeting of the University Park Union held at the Hatfield home, 1609 Fiske street. The occasion was a Frances Willard memorial, also the birthday of the hostess, the president of the union, Mrs. M. J. Hatfield. There were several talks on the life of the great reformer, solo, the words of which were written by Miss Willard, and a trio by some of the young ladies. At the close of the program, presented by Mrs. Van Tyne to the hostess from the members. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Graham and Mrs. Christie.

People's Forum Tonight.—Tonight's meeting of the People's Forum at the Seiling-Hirsch hall, Tenth and Washington streets, will undoubtedly be the largest meeting held by that body. The speaker will be Mr. J. Holman, the only member of the charter board who is opposed to the proposed revised charter. He will give five pronounced views on this subject. It is understood that there is a movement on foot to abolish the City Council entirely and to elect experts to manage the several departments of our city government, which may develop at this meeting.

Served in Spanish American War.—Amos Patriquin, who died at Salem, February 14, in April, 1897, enlisted and served in the Spanish-American war as second lieutenant of the First South Dakota infantry. In November, 1900, he was married to Miss Laura Shannon of Lead City, South Dakota, and the same year was elected from there to the legislature, and upon his return he was appointed assistant adjutant general on the governor's staff, which position he held until prior to his moving to Portland in May, 1907. His wife survives him.

Will Attend Inauguration.—Elliott, the head of the Pacific coast houses bearing his name, accompanied by Secretary Charles A. Robertson, left for the east last Wednesday evening upon his annual visit to the manufacturing districts. While in the east Mr. Elliott will visit Chicago and vicinity, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and several of the New England cities. It is his intention to attend the inaugural exercises at Washington, D. C., and he expects to return to Portland by way of San Francisco about the first week in April.

Plant Sibson's Roses.—Being grown in the open field, roses from the Sibson rose nurseries may be planted to advantage whenever the ground is not frozen or too wet. The cold weather hurt the tops of some varieties, and these will be pruned ready for planting by early delivery. The roses however suffered no damage and roses generally will do better for the severe pruning that is almost compulsory this spring. Plant soon for next summer's bloom. Acres of roses! Office and nurseries, 1180 Milwaukie ave. Phone Sellwood 959.

Choral Society Program.—The Columbia Choral society will give a program at the Y. W. C. A. auditorium, Wednesday evening, March 3, for the benefit of the Y. W. C. A. furnishing fund. The club is composed of the following members: Catharine Covach, director; Tenors, J. S. Shields, Scott Kent, James Bannan; sopranos, Catharine Covach, Eva Wells; Ad Libitum, contraltos, Rose Friedle, Mrs. J. S. Monte, Mrs. L. Hammond; basses, Joseph Taucher, Gustav Cranner, Benjamin Winneman; Miss Mabel Fralser, accompanist.

A New Law Firm.—Cards are out announcing the formation of a law partnership of Edward T. Taggart and Beverly B. Crawford, with offices at 415 Chamber of Commerce building. Mr. Crawford is a familiar figure to court habitués, having been in active practice in this city for the past ten years or more, while Mr. Crawford has but recently arrived from Seattle, Wash., where he was also engaged in the practice of his profession for a number of years, with offices in the New York block, in that city.

Don't Think that we put all of our goods in the window. To do that it would necessitate making windows out of the whole store. When you can't find your goods in the window, don't hesitate to come inside, for it is always a pleasure to show our stock. Our new spring goods have arrived, and we are now prepared to show you the latest things in weaves and patterns. Fit and workmanship guaranteed. The best suit in the city made to order for $25. Unique Tailoring Co., 309 Stark st.

Gloss Madison Bridge.—By asking the county to close and barricade Madison street bridge, the city executive board yesterday disclaimed any responsibility for the possible loss of life in case the bridge is still used by foot passengers. The board also disclaimed any responsibility for drawing up plans and specifications for a new bridge, which will be built as soon as a decision is made by the city council regarding the contemplated by the city attorney.

East Side Bridge.—Mayor Lane has discovered that the North Bank road is a little tardy in complying with the terms of its contract with the city in that it has not yet begun to construct the bridge. The mayor declared that at least four bridges must be built in the city, and that the Columbia and Willamette rivers along the line of the railway. The company agreed to bridge the cut wherever improved streets debouched upon it.

Owing to a large increase in business and lack of space in the present quarters of the JAEGER BROS. OPTICIAN, INSURANCE and BUSINESS CHANGES, the company has moved to rooms 315-316-218 1/2 and 317 Abington building, on Third street, between Stark and Washington streets, where they will give their old and new friends a hearty welcome on and after March 1st.

Reception to New Pastor.—The parish of St. David's will hold a reception to welcome Rev. Henry Russell Talbot, its new pastor, Tuesday evening, Feb. 20, at the residence of the senior warden, Dr. S. E. Joseph, corner East Twelfth and East Morrison streets. All were interested in the reception, and the reception will be held at the residence of the women's guild.

Waverly-Edmond Improvement Association.—The Waverly-Edmond Improvement Association will hold its regular meeting at the home of M. J. More, corner of 28th and Taggart Tuesday evening. Every member and other interested in the affairs of this district are urged to attend. The meeting will convene at 8 o'clock.

BOYS OF Y. M. C. A. TO RAISE FUND

The boys department of the Y. M. C. A. is to hold a banquet Monday night, Washington's birthday, at 6:30, when all the members of the boys' department are expected to be present. At this time full plans will be made for the winter-campaign for money with which to furnish the boys' department of the new building in which their rivalry will doubtless be exhibited. The members are divided into teams of 15 boys each, the team work as individuals, and the work is to be recognized.

The sum of $4000 is needed for furnishing the rooms with lockers, tables, chairs, carpet, tables and other furnishings. Each boy who succeeds in raising $20 for the fund will receive a free reserved seat at the banquet on Saturday evening of this week. The boy who obtains the largest amount of money subscription will have as a reward a year's membership in the association.

The three who stand next highest will receive gold watch fobs; the three next highest, silver watch fobs; the three next highest, association pins. The names of the boys who succeed in raising $20 will be published in the "Oregonian" on Saturday evening of this week. At the banquet Monday night there will be a perpetuation upon a tablet which will hang in the new building.

The boys' campaign for money will begin with a quiet hunt among their own friends for the first four days of the week; the last day of the campaign, which will be called "Stunt" day, when each one who is approached for a donation is to be asked for $1. At the banquet Monday night there will be an attendance of between 250 and 300 boys.

MARKED ACTIVITY IN A. O. U. W. CIRCLES

Portland lodge No. 27 held an enjoyable session last Friday night. Two candidates were initiated and three applications for membership were received. A delegation from Crescent lodge, accompanied by the Crescent trio, added to the entertainment. Fidelity lodge had another initiation at its last meeting and prospects are very bright for the evening. Feb. 20.

A visiting league is being formed among the Workmen lodges of the city. The object being to make frequent visits to all lodges and improve the social features of the order. Robert Warwick of Crescent lodge was elected chairman and T. F. Peary of Portland lodge was selected as secretary. The first visit will be made to Fidelity lodge next Wednesday night.

Port Indus lodge, Degree of Honor, has completed arrangements for an elaborate entertainment to be given on the evening of March 17 in its hall. Grand Master Workman Gevurtz, who has just returned from an extended visit to the east, will be in the hall at the various meetings of the city lodges.

We Don't Like to Brag

But there's as much difference between our way of correcting eye troubles and the methods used by some opticians and oculists as there is between day and night. We don't experiment with our patients' eyes. Our methods have stood the test for 20 years. Our ideas have advanced and our practice increased from year to year. We have helped where others failed, and where the patients had given up hope. We solicit difficult cases.

We surprise many of our customers by giving them so much better vision than they ever had. May be you are only seeing half of what you are entitled to. If so the price of our glasses would be nothing compared to the actual good you get out of them.

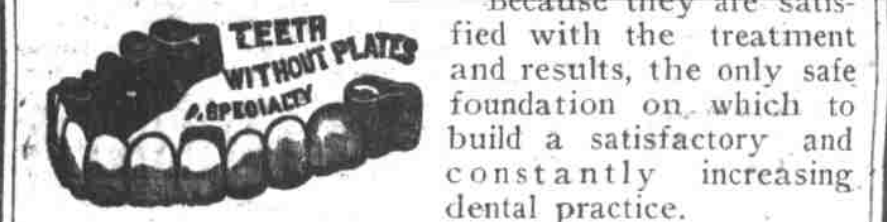

Don't put it off. See us at once if your eyes need attention. We fit glasses only. No medicines used.

The Work That Lasts

Is the Cheapest Dental Work

And at this office that is the only kind we turn out. During the past 14 years I have treated thousands of Portland people. All of my patrons send their friends. Why?

Because they are satisfied with the treatment and results, the only safe foundation on which to build a satisfactory and constantly increasing dental practice.

FLARETY'S DISCOVERY

Said Murphy to Flarety: "Sure, I'm wonderin'."

All this long afternoon you're so spry at your work. When only this mornin' you'd thought it was thunderin'.

For you grumbled and growled like a cranky old Turk."

"Shure," says Pat, "and I'll tell ye; come in while I trate a bit. I'd a tooth, and it ached like the devil all night, So I went to a dentist that lives up the strate a bit, And his name, like his work and his price, shure, was Wright.

"Well, he grated me, Mike, with a smile that was honey-like; While he worked on my tooth, 'stead of growling, I laughed. For shure, that young man was so smilin' and funny-like, He'd a jovial grin just like President Taft.

"Shure, I'll send my relations to him by the dozens, There's Charlie, and Annie, and Lizzie, me gurrl, And father, and mother, and nine of me cousins, You take it from me that dintist's a purrl!"
