AMERICAN NAGS RUN THIS MONTH

Delirium Will Carry Whitney Colors in England-Lightbody in Germany.

By Richard Dahlgren, London, March 1.—With the Lincolnshire and the Grand National less than a month away interest in racing is on the increase. The former race which the increase. The former race which is recorded for March 22, marks the opening of the flat race season and the latter, which will be run March 28, is the close of cross country racing in England.

So far as Americans are concerned, the greatest interest is felt in the Lincoinshire, for in this race the American contingent will have its first opportunity to see what their recently imported horses can do. Priscillian and Delirium were entered for the race, but after the announcement of the weights Mr. Belmont decided he would not call on her to carry 123 pounds over the course.

after the announcement of the weights Mr. Belmont decided he would not call on her to carry 133 pounds over the course.

Delirium remains to do duty for America and H. P. Whitney's colt is reported to be doing well under Joyner's charge at Newmarket. Sol Joel's trio, Procope, Poor Boy and Arranmore, remain and while the second named proved his ability to stay a mile at Doncaster, the Irleh bred Arranmore is said to be very well and is temptingly handicapped.

Longcroft, second last year, is likely to be a strong public fancy.

The Whitney, Belmont and Joyner horses are all quartered at Newmarket, where they have been since last October. A. J. Joyner, who has the string in charge, says "everything is going along nicely and the American thoroughbreds have wintered as well as they ever did in this country." Joyner has 31 animals under his care, including 18 2-year-olds and 6 3-year-olds.

Most of the other American horses now in England are under the eyes of Sam Darling in the Beckhampton stable, 26 being quartered there, and all have been working well. Darling has the Keene, Carroll and Weldner strings.

The English turfmen have taken the greatest interest in this formidable out fit of racers, most of which are familiar to American racegoers. Newmarket has been crowded with rallbirds whenever the American horses were out for a gallop and general opinion is that the handicapper did the best thing to safeguard the English owner when he put top weight on our entries.

I am told that the French club football is much better than is generally known over here and the game is becoming increasingly popular. At presknown over here and the game is becoming increasingly popular. At present there are something like 500 clubs in France. It is not surprising that Rugby has caught on, as it is just the kind of pastime to appeal to Frenchmen. It has the bustle, activity and life calculated to suit their tastes.

Lightbody has been cleaning up pretty well since he started his German campaign, and was a strong favorite for the race. The only other starter who was given a chance with him was one Braun of Munich. Lightbody stayed with the pack for half a mile, and then opened up until he had a safe working lead, when about 50 yards from home. Then Braun pulled up, passed the American, and won by a couple of feet.

But there was a Yankee among the spectators who declared after the race that Braun had cut all the corners, running inside the wooden atakes at the turns. Lightbody, when informed of this, said he had noticed it also. He made a complaint to the judge, but that official merely remarked that he had heard the same thing himself, and let it go at that.

Nothing further happened, except that s day or two later Braun received a diamond scarfpin from the crown prince as a reward for his service to the fatherland.

Little Driscoll Chaps Great Scrappers-Coulon Preserves His Title.

New York, March 1 .- Those Uttle Driscoll chaps are fighters, all right. If you have any doubt about it, just ask Abie Attell and Frankle Neil. Attell can tell you about Jem, and Nell can give a presty good line on a The bout between Boyo and Frankie Neil was closer. Expert opinion differs as to whom the decision should have gone. My own judgment is that Driscoll had a shade the better of it. Another fight at a longer distance also is due from these boys. I understand the boys will meet again in the near future at the same club. After the bout the manager of the club offered them terms to engage in another battle, and they immediately accepted them. Their next bout ought to be another hummer.

Little Johnny Coulon is still the bantamweight champion. He retained his title by beating Johnny Daly, the sturdy local bantamweight, in a 10-round bout at the Whirlwind Athletic club. The battle was one of the flercest ever witnessed between little fellows in this vicinity, as the lads fought viciously every second of the contest. Although laten, Daly was not by any means disgraced. He gave the little champion a terrific battle, and several times staggered him with hard right swings on the jaw.

That the next battle for the heavy-weight championship of the world will be between Jack Johnson and Stanley Ketchel is the announcement made by Willus Britt, manager of the middleweight champion, "Johnson and his manager, Sam Fitzpatrick, have been sent transportation to America by Jim Coffroth, the promoter of the club at Colma, Cal." says Britt. "They are coming to talk over the Ketchel match with Coffroth, and it is almost certain that Coffroth will get the champion to sign articles for a fight with Ketchel. In fact, that is what they are coming to America, for. The match really is clinched except for the geiting together on terms, and I don't think it will be hard to line up "The bout probably will take place within the next two months."

CALENDAR OF SPORT FOR THE WEEK

That Jem had all the best of Attell in their 10-round bout here the other night is the universal opinion of those who saw the battle. It did not decide the championship because in a 10-round bout with no decision if both men are on their feet at the end of the bout, it would be manifestly unfair to pass a championship title.

The superiority of Driscoil was so apparent, however, in the short route that a real fight between these two lads is absolutely necessary to clear the title. Either Attell must go to England or Driscoil must go with him to the Pacific coast, when the question of superiority may be definitely decided.
