

MADISON STREET BRIDGE TO BE OPENED?

President Josselyn Says Yes—Mayor Lane Doubts It Some.

Madison street bridge will be reopened to streetcar traffic, asserted President Josselyn of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company, this morning. "For breach of contract the city is as culpable as an individual," he explained. "Our contract with the city of Portland for the use of Madison street bridge has 13 years yet to run. The bridge has never been condemned by any authority, hence could not be by legal authority. It is the responsibility of the city to see that it is kept in good condition. It is the city's duty to see that it is kept in good condition. It is the city's duty to see that it is kept in good condition."

Neither city nor county has anything to do with granting permission or privilege for the operation of a streetcar bridge. The permission must come from the city. The city is the one that is responsible for the bridge. The city is the one that is responsible for the bridge. The city is the one that is responsible for the bridge.

The best investment this company could make in view of existing conditions would be the construction of a bridge across the Willamette. It would save the rental on four bridges and the cost of spanning the river would be comparatively little. For that matter, the construction of new tracks leading to the bridge approaches would be a small matter. It would be a small matter. It would be a small matter.

Only two drawbacks would be presented. First, the great amount of traffic that would be handled by the bridge would be a disadvantage. The bridge would be a disadvantage. The bridge would be a disadvantage.

More names are being added to the petition of east side who wish the Madison street bridge to be reopened to traffic. Those who are most active in procuring signatures are the list will total between 4000 and 5000 names before they have concluded their work.

The court holding that his automobile had no business on the car track.

AFTER MANY YEARS OF SLAVERY CHINESE WOMAN TO BE DEPORTED

Evidence Brought Out in Kidnaping Case of Traffic in Yellow Women.

Kim Toy, after years of slave life in nearly every city of the United States, including New York, is to be deported, for today she made admissions to the federal immigration officials that it is believed will lead to her being sent back across the Pacific to China.

The little Chinese woman admitted through an interpreter that she obtained entrance to the country fraudulently years ago. Full investigation is being made today. Several circumstances which have already come to light indicate that the woman is a victim of the traffic in Chinese women, virtually held in absolute bondage in a free country. Kim Toy told of the coast she had in San Francisco and New York, where she had been held as a slave. Chinese in every city of the Pacific coast are taking a deep interest in the case, one chapter of which ended in the Portland police court this morning. It was reported several days ago that the faction of the Bow On Tong, from one of whose members Kim Toy was stolen or assisted to escape two weeks ago, had agreed that if $400 was paid over to them they would drop the charge of larceny preferred against the woman, and Kim Toy, the big muscular Chinaman who was arrested with her in Astoria.

Apparently this sum was paid, as the attorney for Kim Toy, the Chinaman from whose house at Fourth and Oak the woman was taken, asked Judge Van Zandt today to dismiss the case. No sooner was this done, however, than two representatives of the immigration bureau, one of the United States consular officials, who was still clad in the male attire in which she was discovered at Astoria, Inspector Barbours and another, Inspector J. J. Barry, appeared and Kim Toy was virtually dismissed yesterday afternoon, but her caretaker took her away before the immigration men knew what had taken place. She was held back, however, pending her reappearance today. Jung Sim, who took Kim Toy down the Columbia, in a launch, is also at liberty.

SEATTLE MAN SAYS CASTLEROCK IS TO SUPPLY PORTLAND MARKET

Coal at $4 and $5 a ton will be a ventilation in Portland before another six months, A. S. Dam, a coal operator from Seattle, asserted while stopping at the Imperial this morning. The coal is to come from Castlerock, about 60 miles from Portland, and it is there in good quality and unlimited quantity, he declares. The company of Portland capitalists is being organized for the purpose of handling the coal in this city.

"Castlerock we find extensive blanket veins of lignite coal," said Mr. Dam. "The coal burns well and produces a very small percentage of smoke and ash. By a process discovered by a resident of Castlerock it has been found that the coal produces as great a percentage of illuminating gas as does the highest grades of bituminous coal brought from the east."

"Veins of Castlerock coal range from four to six feet in depth. One vein underlies another and we have not reached the end of any one vein yet. Mining is very easy, as the coal crops out from the mountain side."

Mr. Dam will go on to Seattle today, where he will confer with men who are associated with him in the development of Castlerock coal. He stated that preparations were being made to install the latest in mining machinery and to operate the mine on a large scale. Castlerock is on the line of the Northern Pacific.

REMOVING THE SYMPTOMS IS NOT ALL THAT IS NECESSARY TO CURE CONTAGIOUS BLOOD POISON.

The virulent germs which produce these outward manifestations must be completely driven from the blood before a real cure can be effected. The least taint left in the circulation will, sooner or later, cause a fresh outbreak of the trouble, with all the hideous symptoms of ulcerated mouth and throat, copper colored spots, falling hair, sores and ulcers, etc.

IT HAS ITS VICTIMS IN ITS POWER ALMOST BEFORE THEY REALIZE ITS PRESENCE.

because its first symptom is usually a little sore or pimple so insignificant that it does not excite suspicion. But the insidious poison is at work on the blood and in a short while the patient finds he is more or less affected from head to foot.

IT IS TOO DANGEROUS TO TRIFLE WITH.

No time should be lost in ridding the blood of this destructive poison, and in no disease is it more important to have the proper remedy. Medicines which merely check the symptoms for a time and leave the real cause smoldering in the system have brought misery and disappointment to thousands. Faithfully the sufferers took such treatment, usually of mineral nature, and when all symptoms had disappeared and the treatment was left off, found the virus had only been shut up in the system awaiting a favorable opportunity to return, with every symptom intensified.

S. S. S. CURES CONTAGIOUS BLOOD POISON AND CURES IT PERMANENTLY.

It goes down into the blood and removes every particle of the poison, makes the circulation pure and healthy, and does not leave the slightest trace of the disease for future outbreaks. S. S. S. is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, all of which are healing and cleansing in their nature. It does not contain a particle of mineral in any form to injure the delicate parts of the system. S. S. S. will also drive out any lingering remains of mineral poison that may be in the blood from the former treatment. If you are suffering with Contagious Blood Poison S. S. S. will cure you, because it will purify your blood. Home treatment book and any medical advice free to all who write.
