Paying More for Potatoes. As high as $1.40 per hundred pounds has been paid for extra select potatoes at country shipping points by buyers o ship to the south. The tone of market at San Francisco is quite good and this has induced some buyers good and this has induced some buyers to offer more for extra select quality which is showing much the best demand in the south. California seems willing to pay very good prices for carefully selected potatoes but the ordinary stuff receives no more than it is worth in proportion to other grades. At country slipping points $1.35 is being freely offered for first class stock; this being an advance of ice per hundred pounds over the quotations of the past week.

There remains a very quiet tone in the onion market both here and in the south and quotations are therefore week and dragging.

Gabbage Market is very Righ.

the south and quotations are therefore weak and dragging.

Cabbage Market Is Very Righ.

Late shipments of cabbage from the south cost from 25c to 35c more per hundred sounds than previous ones and this accounts for the great strength local prices are showing at this time. While the price of cabbage here has reached a figure that almost makes it prohibitive there is still quite a liberal demand. Nowe of the handlers of cabbage are making any money at this time. California stock is always packed in such bad shape—mostly lose leaves and no body to the vegetable—that when supplies are cleaned up a bit there is not any money in the handling for anyone. This is the reason therefore that even at this late date when the regular Oregon season has passed more than a month that old Oregon cabbage is worth about for a pound more than the new railfornia stock when the reverse should be the case if the southern vegetable amounted to anything.

Dressed Meats Sell Freely.

Dressed meats are selling freely in the local market at this time. While more veal is coming forward the price along Front street remains very high and up to 16c a pound is obtainable for best quality. Dressed hogs are rather slow in coming forward and as there slow in coming forward and as there shas only been a nominal movement in the stockyards of live stuff prices on Front street stand stretched.

Zgg Market Is Lower.

A drop of about 1/2c is noted today in the local egg situation. Receipts are still very heavy and while an occasional sale may be made to the north the outside trade is not what it was last week. Sales of eggs along Front street were generally made today at 22c although once in awhile some small buyer was held up for 221/2c while in other instances scared receivers cut the price down to 21c. With everyone predicting lower prices it looks as if further declines will be shown unless there is a healthier movement toward the north or receipts are not so liberal. Chicken market remains firm at former top prices.

PORTLAND LIVESTOCK RUN.

Portland Union Stockyards, March 11. 6 the opening of today's session, but the closing was firm and higher for all options.

Most of the strength which was displayed late in the day came through the reports of good export Dusiness at Winnipeg and other centers, as well as the more liberal demand and higher to prices in effect for cash stuff.

It was reported among the trade to day that a lot of over 200,000 bushels of wheat bought at Kansas City to come here has been resold there at an advance of 240c a bushel over the price in effect here. This shows one is streme of the cash demand.

Winnipeg reported wheat %c higher on account of the better call for supplies from Europe.

Minneapolis reported wheat %c higher on account of the better call for supplies from Europe.

Minneapolis reported the cash demand there as slow with sales of flour the poorest of the week.

Argentina shipments of wheat were 5,200,000 bushels.

After the lower opening here, which at the opening and closing of Liverpool, there was considerable short covering, as well as long sales and this brought their price to the high point, closing within a fraction of it.

While there is no severe pressure in the local hog situation, the buyers are not inclined to pay the previous top for supplies. There has been too much poor stuff in evidence of recent day and this has had a tendency to lower the value for best stuff. Today's top sales in the hog market were around $7.10 but it may still be impossible to squeeze $7.25 out of buyers for something select. Therefore the general range of hog quotations shows no change in this report today.

Sheep market showed small arrivals today, a total of 100 head coming forward, but trade is not of healthy character and except for lambs and some extra select quality the market is about 25c lower.

BOARD OF TRADE RECEIPTS. Wheat, Barley, Oats, Hay, Figur Cars, Cars, Cars, Cars, Sacks

With the determination of the Na tional Millers' Federation to observe the rulings of Dr. Wiley regarding the bleaching of flour, local millers have decided to stop all bleaching of flour which goes into interstate trade or in Alaska. The law prohibits the bleaching of flour at this time but some millers are taking chances and continue the practice.

Bluestem wheat continues to show a good demand even at the high values now in affect. Yesterday there was a sale in the north at $1.20 a bushel and reports of a still higher price but none of the local buyers can confirm anything above that figure.

Coarse grains are gathering firmness both for spot and future delivery. On the board of trade today there was anadvance of $1\frac{1}{2}$ cents a cental in April barley bids and the asked price on the March was moved up to $1.50. bleaching of flour, local millers have

Washington, March 11 .- First Lieutenant Hiram E. Mitchell, son of th late Senator John H. Mitchell, today telegraphed his resignation from Denver to the war department, asking immediate acceptance. Friends of Mitchell are asking the department to accept it at once. His reasons for desiring to relinquish his commission are not given out. The department is naturally disinclined to accept without knowing more about the case.

THEFT AT DINNER PARTY IS CHARGED

Mrs. Anna Ambrose, wife of a member of the fire department, living at 286 Montgomery, together with her husband, was dining with three acquaintances at the Pekin restaurant. Sixth and Stark street, last evening, when the slarm for the Ainslie mill fire sounded. Ambrose left hurriedly, amid general confusion.

A moment later Mrs. Ambrose discovered that $30 which had been in a purse she left lying on the table, was gone. She accused the others of stealing the money, it appears, and hot works flew back and forth. Sergeant Klenlin arrested Mrs. Ambrose and also Mrs. Ida Fredenthal, Nellie Allen and J. Fisher, a longshoreman, for disorderly conduct.

Nine dollars was found in Mrs. Fredenthal's possession, but this did not prove her guilt by any means. The fact that several coins were found in the patrol wagon led the officers to believe that during the ride some money had changed hands. Consequently larceny charges were today filed against Mrs. Fredenthal, Fisher and Nellie Allen.

Fisher and Mrs. Fredenthal are out

Fisher and Mrs. Fredenthal are out on $100 ball each, while Nellie Allen is still in the city jall, that sum not having been deposited to free her.

WOMAN BEATEN AND ROBBED BY FOOTPAD

Mrs. J. F. Becker, 1785 East Nine-teenth street, wife of an employe of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company, was struck on the head by an unknown highwayman last night at 9:39 o'clock at East Eleventh and Division streets. The thug obtained $15 and a gold nugget watch charm. Mrs. Becker had not compiled with the man's demand to hold up her hands and without further warning he struck her with the butt of a revolver.

This is the first instance of the kind for many months, for footpads have left women psdestrians severely alone in Portland lately. The man wore dark clothes, was about five feet, six inches in height, according to Mrs. Becker, and wore a dark handkerchief across his face. She ran to the Ritchie grocery store, 478 East Eleventh, and a telephone message to police headquarters soon brought a number of policemen who scoured the neighborhood without finding any clue to the high-way man.

PRICE OF WOOL IS BUT SMALL ITEM

"A little advance in the price of wool will not affect the price of clothing, as I find many Portland people are thinking," said Arthur Williams of the San Francisco tailoring firm of Williams & Berg, at the Portland hotel today, "It must be remembered that the principal item of expense in the making of a suit is the labor employed. Twenty-five cents more per yard for the cloth will have little effect on the cost of the completed garment."

Mr. Williams is making a business trip along the coast.

On the ground that no showing of error in the trial of Edward II. Martin for the murder of Nathan Wolff has for the murder of Nathan Wolff has been made by his attorneys. Deputy District Aftorneys Fitzgerald and Page have filed a motion in the supreme court asking that the appeal be dismissed. The two state's attorneys argued the matter before the supreme court two days ago, basing their contention largely on the fact that the defendant's attorneys failed to file a bill of exceptions. John A. Jeffrey, chief counsel for Martin, was unable to go to Salem because of a damage suit on trial in the circuit court here the which he was engaged, but he has secured an extension of 20 days in which to file his answer to the argument of the state. Jeffrey takes the position that a bill of exceptions is not needed in the case, the points on which he hinges the appeal being covered in affidavits and records that have been certified to the supreme court.

If the state should win its motion, Martin would be forced to at once begin serving the 15 year sentence imposed by Judge Cleiand on his conviction for munislaughter.
