GRANT COUNTY PLANS FAIR AT JOHN DAY

John Day, Or., March 18.—The Grant County District Agricultural society is planning to hold a county fair at John Day this fall. With the approval made by the state and the county which will be raised by citizens, the fair will be planned on a more extensive scale than any ever attempted. Recently a meeting of the stockholders was called and the following elected as a board of directors: Emmett Cowdell, Henry Kuhl, B. C. Trowbridge, F. I. McCullum, R. J. Bayley, J. C. Moore, E. A. Cummings, William Hyman and George Briggly.

The fair grounds at John Day offer an excellent fair site. The half mile track is recognized as one of the best in eastern Oregon. The paddocks will accommodate 50 horses. It is understood preliminary arrangements are now being made to improve the grounds and to take the initial steps toward interesting the entire people of the county.

JOHN C. MCUE MOVES TO PORTLAND

John C. McQue, ex-deputy district attorney for Clatsop county and a member of the house of representatives in the last and two former sessions of the legislature from Clatsop county, has moved his residence from Astoria to Portland and has opened a law office in the Everett building. Mr. McQue during his service in the house was recognized as the floor leader in all matters relating to the interests of Clatsop county and was one of the foremost champions of the normal school, being a graduate of Menlo Park. In these fights he gained distinction as a speaker and a parliamentarian. It is his intention to make Portland his home in the future and to practice his profession in the courts of Multnomah county.
