

HONOR THEIR PATRON SAINT

Sons and Daughters of Erin Pay Homage to St. Patrick.

CONVENTION TO MEET APRIL 7

Republican Bosses Map Out Program for Evasion of the Primary Law.

Miss Catherine Covach, Soloist.

The memory of good St. Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland, was duly honored in Portland yesterday. Several large gatherings eulogized the saint publicly, while innumerable smaller social events were held.

The largest and most important celebration was that given at the Hellig theatre last night under the auspices of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. A large audience attended.

Ex-Senator John M. Gearin delivered the principal address, being introduced by Dr. Andrew C. Smith, who presided.

Miss Kathleen Lawler.

Mr. Gearin led off his address with a few witty remarks, then went deeply into the life and works of St. Patrick, comparing him with all the other great religious leaders of the world.

The first number on the program was "Kilbrony," given by the St. Mary's academy string quartet. Following, the Oregon male quartet sang "Maureen Noreen," and responded to an encore.

Bishop Christie was introduced by Dr. Smith, presiding officer, and spoke briefly on St. Patrick and his great work of converting the pagan Irish. The bishop was followed by Miss Kathleen Lawler, who sang "Come Back to Erin?" and "Hall Kiaran."

Following Mr. Gearin's address, St. Mary's treble triad sang "The Harp." Forty-five voices participated. E. J. Quillman closed the program, reciting the poem, "Pontenoy."

In Alumni hall, Clackamas street and Grand avenue, an entertainment was given last night for the benefit of the Dominican novitiate and college to be erected near Oswego. A substantial sum was realized.

Rev. Father Lawrence Jago made the principal address, taking "The Shamrock and the Cross" as his subject. John D. Mann presided. Miss Elizabeth Hosen was in charge of the musical features of the program.

A Republican city convention will be held Wednesday, April 7, when nominations will be made for the entire municipal ticket. The nominees will then have their names placed on the primary ballot and will be given the official support of the organization which nominated them and of the Union Republican club which is back of the scheme.

At a meeting of the Republican city central committee, last night this program was mapped out after a long wrangle and heated debate. The meeting was called to order by Chairman J. P. Kennedy, who refused to consider the report of the committee appointed some time ago to make plans for the campaign. Mr. Kennedy contended that the meeting was illegal as the county committee had no jurisdiction over a city campaign.

The convention, or "assembly" is to be called April 7. This meeting is to adopt a party platform and resolutions and to nominate a complete ticket to be put on the ballot for the primary election of May 8. The membership of the "assembly" is to consist of the city central committee and of 400 Republicans selected by the temporary chairman from the different wards of the city in proportion to their voting strength.

Comes to Look Over Heating Apparatus for Insane Asylum.

Governor Benson and Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, superintendent of the state hospital for the insane, are in Portland today conferring with engineers concerning a central heating plant which it is proposed to install at the asylum. Appropriation for this purpose was made at the last regular session of the state legislature, and the way in which the administration has opened up I have every assurance of success and I am exceedingly gratified to see the governor return to Salem this evening.
