Small Contracting in Hops.

While operations in hop contracts are being kept quiet, it is stated by reliaple parties that a number of small transactions have been made in this line during the past few days. Ten line during the past few days. Tencents has been the general price of one year deliveries, but as high as lic has been paid for two and three year.

Spot hops are rather dull, but the market is far from showing additional weakness. As in contracts buyers are trying to take hold of 1908s, and in a few instances 1907s. It is even stated that an offer has recently been made for 1906s, but the news cannot be confirmed by any of the local people. Potato Market Is Steady.

Potate Market Is Steady.

In general it is the belief of producers that the recent slump and weariness the California potato market has shown has been entirely the result of manipulation of San Francisco dealers who have tried herstofors to "corner" supplies and have been unsuccessful up to date. The new scheme and one which had a depressing effect upon deals in the south—but not among local producers—have been for some of the big holdings in warehouse here to be transferred to warerooms in the south This is the big supply that the California parties are talking about.

"Growers' Are Still Bulliah.

Growers' Are Still Bullish. Growers' Are Still Bullish.

Growers of potatoes are today just as bullish in their views of the potato situation as they were a month ago, according to B. C. Altman, a prominent grower of eastern Multinomah who was in the city today on business. "I still believe and have believed all along," says Mr. Altman, "That potathem will be cleaned up at better prices. We have several months to sell out old polatoes yet, and I believe that all of them will be cleared up at better prices. The season is later than usual this year, and it is a long cry to new potatoes." The acreage of potatoes will be in-

The acreage of potatoes will be increased fully 10 per cent in eastern Multnomah this season because of the high prices in effect. I am a believer in early potatoes, and if more growers would put in this stock there would be more money in the growing. Alaska's wants are heavy and practically all of this business would come here if we could supply it.

Cater to Portland Market.

"I am a firm believer in the Portland market and am satisfied that growers will make more money by catering to the local trade than by shipping to the south. Personally I have secured better prices at Portland. There was a time a few years ago when a few loads of potatoes would overfill the Portland market, but the wants of the trade here have increased materially during the past few seasons. Potatoes that are sold right after gathering bring the most money in the long run, for when stocks are placed in a pit for late keeping for the California trade, at least 40 per cent of them will have to he graded out, and on these all the benefits of the higher prices obtainable for fancy stock are lost."

Bullish Course—National Lead Is a Leader.

New York, March 29.—The stock market shows a sharp advance for the day with rather liberal sales for a Monday. The opening was generally firm and the closing sharply higher, especially in a few of the leading industrials and rails. National Lead followed its bullishness of last week with an advance of 2% points today, which carried the price to $2%. Southern Pacific went to 123, as compared with Saturday's closing at 121%. Union Pacific gained 1%. U.S. Steel common, the same sum, while Missouri Pacific advanced 1%. Canadian Pacific advanced 2% points over Saturday.

Pacific advanced 2% points over Sat-urday.

Prices have had a really considerable rise during the last fortnight and the movement has been altogether of the sort to confuse and upset the notions of professional Wall street. It was looked upon as merely a demonstration against short interest which had gone too far in its operations and had become over extended.

This attitude is explained simply on This attitude is explained simply on the ground that among business men and among substantial classes of financial critics the great preponderance of opinion is that the next important movement industrially will be a forward movement. They believe that the worst of the period of depression has been seen. In the first place the new administration at Washington has brought with it the conviction that the whole aspect of political affairs, of executive management and of legislation has been altered and altered very decidedly for the better.

All through the summer rise of 1904 the professional coteries fought the market on the ground that reports from outside business did not justify the advance and this is the same thing that is happening now.

Legislative—D. Solis Cohen (chairman), William W. Banks, C. M. Idleman, Frank S. Bennett and Judge Thomas O'Day.
Membership—Otto J. Kraemer (chairman), Seneca Fouts, W. C. Bristol, R. E. Moody and Martin L. Pipes.
Entertainment — William M. Davis (chairman), George F. Brice, L. E. Crouch, Frank S. Grant and B. E. Haney.
Auditing—T. B. McDevitt Sr. (chairman), J. B. Hosford and Jay H. Upton.
The entertainment committee was appointed several weeks ago and has made arrangements for the annual banquet, which will be held at the Commercial club tomorrow evening at 6 o'clock. It will be an informal affair, with James B. Kerr as the chief speaker. Those who have neglected to previde themselves with tickets can obtain them from any member—of the membership committee.

METHODIST PASTORS ELECT OFFICERS

Officers to serve for the ensuing year were elected at today's meeting of the Methodist Ministers' association. Dr. C. E. Cline, president for the past year, was succeeded by Dr. W. E. Jeffrey, pastor of the University Park church. Dr. J. W. McDougall of Mount Tabor succeeded Dr. Jeffrey as vice president, and L. G. Poor of Sellwood was reflected secretary and treasurer.

Under the new constitution and bylaws adopted today the officers of the association constitute an executive and program committee. Another important change in the constitution makes superannuates and supernumeraries active members of the association, and requires them to pay dues. Heretofore these have been honorary members of the association and were not required to contribute toward its support.

The meeting of the association was devoid of the excitement and feeling that has characterized the last few sessions of Methodist ministers.

SAYS FRANCHISE

IS NOT LEGAL

An ordinance passed by the council to give the Lewis Investment company a franchise entitling it to use portions of Fourth and Oak streets for an underground conduit, was returned to the city auditor this morning without a valuation by Thomas G. Greene. The ordinance had been sent to Mr. Greene, who is the committee on valuation of franchises by order of the council. Mr. Greene declares the action of the municipal lawmakers in granting such a franchise is illegal and quotes an opinion of City Attorney Kavanaugh in which that official supports Greene's contention.

The company wished to put in a pipe to be used to convey steam to the Couch building for heating purposes. The ordinance passed by the council gives the corporation a 25-year franchise.

HEADQUARTERS SAFE FOR THE PRESENT

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Washington, March 12.—C. T. Whitney, vice president of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, met Senator Warren, chairman of the senate military committee in Senator Chamberlain's office today, and brought up the question of the proposed removal of the Vancouver headquarters. Mr. Whitney was assured by Senator Warren that no removal would take place before the military affairs committee had opportunity to visit that city, which it would do this summer, when all posts would be visited. Whitney has been in Norfolk and goes to New York before returning home.

Joseph Simon, ex-United States senator and once powerfui politician, is being urged to announce himself as a candidate for mayor of Portland. For some time past he has been mentioned as one who would make a strong candidate. This afternoon a committee of prominent business men called upon him at his office and asked him to consider entering the race.

It was urged upon Mr. Simon that his long residence in Portland, his intimate acquaintance with local conditions and his long continued prominence in public affairs would insure his nomination. He was promised the support of many of the prominent business men of the city and told that they would rally around him during the primaries and later during the campaign preceding the municipal election. It is understood that the sensity does not desire to become a ing the campaign preceding the municipal election. It is understood that the senator does not desire to become a candidate and that there is not much probability of his entering the contest.

Outside of this development there is not much doing in municipal politice. Dan Kellaher has appeared in the offing as an independent candidate. No matter who is nominated at the primaries, the senator says, he is in the race and will not quit until he is either elected la June or counted out for some other more successful candidate.

A. G. Rushlight has made the announcement that he will become a candidate and it is expected that he will make his official appearance during the present week. Charles E. McDonell is also in the race and will file his declaration within a few days. A. A. Balley is working faithfully, having announced his candidacy several days ago.

The day has been marked by the fact that no new candidate for councilman has made his appearance. pal election. It is understood that th

REALTY BOARD IS TO MEET TONIGHT

President H. W. Fries has issued a call for a meeting of the Portland realty board in the Commercial club convention hall at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon for the purpose of holding the annual election of efficers. riefetofore the realty board has regaled itself with a banquet at the March meeting, but President Fries said this morning that the annual banquet would probably be given at the next monthly meeting.

A special meeting of the real estate brokers will be held at the Commercial club tonight, when the subject of assisting in raising the $100,000 boost fund will come up for consideration.

The proposed real estate men's automobile parade at the Rose Festival will also be up for discussion. It is urged by the committee that every real estate operator in Portland be present at tonight's meeting.

ALL NIGHT FIGHT WITH CHILLING WAVES

Oakland. Cal., March 29.—Hovering between life and death at the Central hospital, Paul Hughes, a musician, is putting up as game a fight to live as he did during last night when he battled with wind and waves on the waters of the bay and crawled ashore half frozen and totally exhausted.

Hughes staggered from the waterfront, where he made a landing early this morning, to within a block of the hospital. He crawled for a block on his hands and knees and fell prone at the hospital door in a dead faint.

When he was revived and was able to gasp out his story he said that he went fishing on the bay with his cousin. They started for home, but were overtaken by a squall and he sent his cousin ashore in a skiff. Shortly afterward his own craft was at the mercy of the wind and waves, but after an all night attention he was able to make a landing. wind and waves, but after an all night struggle he was able to make a landing.

mediately through the heart of Africa and covers as much territory as the country west of the Rockies in the United States. But there is twice as much territory untouched by the missionaries in this central section.

The missionaries look to the recently inaugurated Latmen's missionary movement to save the day for them and to open up all of Africa to the light of Christianity.

Mr. Moody gave the remainder of his time to a talk on conditions in the Soudan, but since he has been instructed by the missionary board not to speak in public on this subject, no report was made. The work has not yet been undertaken in that vast country and whether or not it will be taken up will be decided at the coming norther Baptist convention. In the meanwill the board does not wish to turn asis any of the resources for the work no under way for this work which it he so far been impossible to assume.
