Feldenheimers Will Vacate ON MAY FIRST

(Owing to Termination of Lease on Their Present Location)

And move one block west of the present location, on Washington, between Fourth and Fifth, to the store occupied by the Richardson Clothing Store, 283 and 285 Washington street. We will occupy a space of two thousand square feet, and our factory will be located in the same building.

In order to reduce our immense stock of JEWELRY, SILVERWARE, CUT GLASS, CLOCKS, STATUARY, IVORIES, MINIATURES, ELECTROLIERS, LEATHER GOODS, UMBRELLAS, etc., etc., a Cut-Price Removal Sale has been inaugurated. The building we now occupy at the corner of Third and Washington streets, having to give way to the march of progress, will be torn down and in its place will rise the stately skyscraper. We have decided to make an unusual reduction in price on every article in the house. It is needless to remind you that in crowding a season's business into a few weeks, consideration of profits must be abandoned.

TONIGHT'S AMUSEMENTS

Bungalow... "Leah Kleshna" Orpheum... Vaudeville Grand... Vaudeville Pantages... "Shadows on the Hearth" Lyric...

Main Delays Ceremony—The sudden storm of yesterday afternoon delays the laying of the cornerstone of the new Pentacostal church on the corner of East Seventh and East Couch streets, and the congregation which gathered in the roofless building stood under umbrellas and heard a spirited address by Rev. Lewis F. Smith of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church and a brief talk from Rev. A. O. Herrick Hendricks, the pastor, who told of the faithful work which has been done by many members of the new church in forwarding the plans for the new building. Cash donations and pledges were then made by those present and a good sum realized. Much of the work is donated by the members of the church. The laying of the cornerstone is postponed for the present.

No Charge Against Detectives.—F. J. Williams' assertions that he was beaten by two detectives to extort a confession from him were given so little weight in the municipal court this morning that he was not even put on the stand to testify. He said in court Friday that Detective Crandall and Mallett had struck him. The evidence against Williams, who was charged with taking a purse from the room of a woman in a lodging house at Third and Pine streets, was so conclusive today that his statement seems to have been inspired by a hope for sympathy. He was bound over to appear before the grand jury, having been identified as the man seen leaving the room.

Injured When Auto Skids.—A large White automobile owned and driven by Gustav Friewald, 601 Schuyler street, turned over and spilled the occupants into the road on the afternoon of Friday when Mr. Friewald tried to avoid a collision at the foot of Mount Tabor. Mrs. Friewald, Mrs. E. H. Rothmel, 728 West street, and Mrs. M. J. Hunt, 418 East Fifteenth north, were all slightly injured, but today it was reported that none were seriously hurt. The other occupants of the motor car were Miss Eleanor Rothmel, Mr. Hunt and H. F. Latourette, an attorney. The auto skidded on the side of a soft embankment. One side of the car was badly damaged.

Discuss Rose Festival.—Plans for the east side's participation in the coming Rose Festival will be discussed tomorrow evening at a banquet participating in by the members of the East Side Business Men's club and a committee from the Rose Festival association at the Hotel Princess, East Third and Burnside streets. W. B. Hall has the banquet in charge. Some 800 men are expected to attend tomorrow evening. A general resume of the East Side club's work will be given and, with the assistance of the committee from the Rose Festival association, the plans for the coming festival will be started.

Milkman Must Explain.—Alfred Younger, a milk dealer, will be tried in the justice court this afternoon for selling milk containing too great a percentage of water. This is the second time he has been arrested on the same charge. Charles Stockdale, with evading a board bill, will also be heard. The complainant against him is Mary Drennen.

Capital Stock Increased.—Supplementary articles of incorporation of the Meier & Frank company, increasing the capital stock of the corporation from $700,000 to $2,500,000, have been filed with the county clerk. This is in accordance with a decision of the board of directors some time ago.

Policemen Save the Candy.—An overheated stove in a confectionery store at 283 North Seventeenth street caused a fire yesterday afternoon, which would have seriously damaged the stock had not two policemen broken into the store and carried out everything they could lift.

Eastern Stars Attention.—The officers of Rose City chapter, No. 84, will give an entertainment in Masonic temple, West Park and Yamhill streets, Tuesday evening in benefit of the social fund. Music, cards and refreshments. Bring your friends.

The Vancouver and Woodlawn cars carried hundreds of people to Loveligh and El Tovar Sunday and the agents had a strenuous day of it showing the property and reserving choice building lots.

Found on Street Cars.—Records book three purses, six packages, 19 umbrellas, charm, baby shoe, dashboard, three ladies' gloves, two lunch boxes, book, prayer book.

Woman's Club Classes.—The art and psychology department of the Woman's

Fred N. Pendleton. By the appointment of Fred N. Pendleton as a member of the pilot commission, as was announced today, Governor Benson has completely reorganized the commission. Mr. Pendleton, who takes the place of R. D. Inman, resigned, has been a resident of Portland for 25 years and nearly all of that period has been the junior member of the firm of Buffum & Pendleton. The pilot commission is now composed of Judge Frank Taylor of Astoria, F. C. Hagemann and F. N. Pendleton of Portland.

SETTLE DEPOT DISPUTE TONIGHT

City Officials of Milwaukie and Harriman Agents Will Confer.

Southern Pacific officials and city officials of Milwaukie will make their last effort to get together tonight in their dispute over the building of a new depot in Milwaukie. A squabble extending over months may then be settled. The bone of contention between the railroad men and the city has been for some time the kind of material to be used in the construction of the depot and also the amount of land to be paid by the railroad for the use of the city streets. The city asks that the railroad build a depot of either stone, brick or concrete and pay either a rental of $3000 a year or a lump sum of $20,000.

Both the railroad and city officials are firm in their stand and both have repeatedly refused to yield. The city fathers say that they do not care how whether or not the railroad company comes through the city, while the railroad company claims that the rental and demands of the city are beyond reason and that they will go around the town altogether rather than give in. Following up this policy, they have had surveyors at work for some time surveying a route around the city which, should it really be constructed, would be fully a mile longer and will require several new curves and grades besides keeping the present grades near the Scott place, which they so much wish to get away from. The city fathers are not worried in the least, as they think the efforts of the company are merely bluff and fully expect to see them give in at tonight's meeting.

BISPHAM OUTLINES SPLENDID PROGRAM

David Bispham. The seat sale for the last concert of the Portland Symphony orchestra tomorrow night at the Hellig opened Saturday morning. This will unquestionably be the largest audience to which the orchestra has played in the two seasons of its existence. David Bispham, the soloist, has a host of admirers here and will be given a royal welcome after his absence of three years. Mr. Bispham's rich, mellow baritone coupled with his magnetic personality puts him in the front rank of concert artists before the public today.

Mr. Bispham has selected several numbers for Portland which will show his wonderful dramatic ability for he is preeminently the actor-singer—such as "The Templar's Song" and "Friar Tuck's Song" from Ivanhoe, also "The Frost Song" from "The King Arthur" which will hear him in such well known classics as "Hark, Hark the Lark" (Schubert); "The Wedding Song" (Loewe), and "Behold, Along the Dewy Grass" (Haydn).

Mr. Bispham has also included by request a group of songs which his name is always associated—"The Mad Dog" (Lehmann); "The Pauper's Drive" (Lehmann); "The Boat Song" (M. J. Moses (Harriet Ware)); "Dancing Deever" (Richard Rodgers); "The Piano" (Walter Damrosch); and "The Piano" (Massenet).

The program in full follows: Overture, "Egmont" ... Beethoven (a) "Ho, Jolly Jenkins" ... Friar Tuck's Song from "Ivanhoe" (b) "The Templar's Snowflake" and "The Pauper's Drive" from "Ivanhoe" ... Arthur Sullivan (c) "Behold, Along the Dewy Grass" from "The Seasons" (Haydn) (d) "The Frost Song" from "The King Arthur" (Purcell) (e) "Hark, Hark, the Lark" Shakespeare (Schubert); "The Wedding Song" ... Loewe Mr. Bispham. Serenade ... Moszkowski "Kammeror Ostron" ... Rubinstein (a) "The Pauper's Drive" ... T. Noel (S. Homer); (b) "The Mad Dog" from "The Waterfall" (c) "The Boat Song" ... M. J. Moses (Harriet Ware); (d) "Dancing Deever" ... Richard Rodgers; (e) "The Piano" ... Walter Damrosch Mr. Bispham, Harold Osborn Smith at the Piano. Scenes Pictoreaque ... Massenet

AT THE THEATRES

New Bill at Orpheum Good. The new bill opened at the Orpheum today. It promises to be as popular as the one just closed which played to capacity houses every night. The playlet presented by Dunlap McCormack company, "The Night of the Wedding," is one of the best seen in some time.

Seat Sale Opens Tomorrow. The advance seat sale opens tomorrow for "The Night of the Wedding" by Klaw & Erlanger present Guy Standing and Theodor Robert in a new production for three nights at the Hellig theatre beginning next Thursday with a matinee Saturday.

"Leah Kleshna" at Bungalow. "Leah Kleshna," which the Baker Stock company is playing all this week at the Bungalow, is a powerful story of a young girl who has been trained from infancy to be an expert burglar, by her father, a noted criminal. It is one of the most powerful plays ever written.

"Shadows on the Hearth" at Lyric. The Lyric Stock company opened yesterday matinee in a very pretty little home life drama, "Shadows on the Hearth." A look of general satisfaction was on the faces of all as they left after the performance and expressed their expectations for the management for the balance of the week.

Elephant at the Grand. An elephant heads the vaudeville program at the Grand this week. This is "Little Hip," the smallest elephant in the world and the best trained. "Little Hip" was the attraction and pet of the New York Hippodrome last season and is now making a tour of the west.
