 Lyric "The Holy City"

Kit Carson Here.—Kit Carson, grandson of the famous Kit Carson of frontier times, has removed his family from Arizona to Portland, and will reside here. A visit to the city some time ago opened Mr. Carson's eyes, and his heart was captivated by Portland's enterprise and beauty. This decided him to make this city his home, and with him come B. F. Holt and family, who also will abide with us. They are two well-balanced, substantial gentlemen, there being nothing of the frontier type about them. Both are well acquainted with the wonderful Ploche, Nevada, mining region, and have engaged their services to the Prince Extension Mining company, 333 Chamber of Commerce, and will sell that corporation's stock. Mr. Carson is a practical and skilled mining engineer and assayer. He knows what he is talking about. We commend him and Mr. Holt to the good people of this place.

The Ploche, Nevada, Booklet Goes.—The demand for the Ploche, Nevada, free booklet keeps the people in 333 Chamber of Commerce busy as nailers. The number of applications for the handsome illustrated publication shows that there are a great number of persons, men and women, in the north Pacific states acquainted with this famous mining region, and now that the trains are running to the town are anxious to know all about it. Many are astonished at the frontier type about them, not dreaming that there is such foliage and beauty to be found in the "desert." Still, it is the immense deposits of gold, silver and lead that is attracting hundreds upon hundreds to the place. By addressing "Ploche, 333 Chamber of Commerce, the booklet will be mailed free to any address, or will be given to any who may call for it.

Meeting of Central W. C. T. U.—Mrs. Frances Townsley conducted the devotional exercises at the Central W. C. T. U. meeting yesterday afternoon. Mrs. C. W. Badley reported the evangelistic work and the plan for an institute to be held September 22 and 23. Miss Lynn reported for press work 44 notices for the daily papers and 40 reports. Mrs. M. Woody reported for systematic giving, and that a program will be given at the institute. Miss Townsley also spoke along this line. Mrs. Keller Northrup spoke on "Rescue Work," which was much enjoyed. Mrs. Sarah Peake reported for the flower mission work. Mrs. Mallet spoke of mother meetings and the president announced that next week will be a mothers' meeting under her charge. Mrs. Mallet sang "We'll Make the Map All White" very nicely.

Clan Macleay Entertains.—Clan Macleay acted as host last night at a large and enthusiastic gathering of Scots in the Marquand building, when a program of music and reading was given, followed by a dance. Every Scotchman in Portland was invited to be present and there were many reminiscences and fraternal greetings exchanged among those who came thither at the call of the pipes. The program was as follows: Bagpipe selection, Pipe Major J. H. Macdonald; soprano solo, "Carmena," Miss Mabel F. Jones; baritone solo, "March of the Cameron Men," J. Claire Monteith; Scotch reading, Miss Jessie Findlay; contralto solo, "Just This One Day," Miss Clara Monteith; solo, "The Nameless Lassie," Dr. George Ainslie. Miss Eileen Webster acted as accompanist.

Woman's Club Program.—A fine program has been prepared by the president, Mrs. Robert Louke, for her day tomorrow, the regular meeting day of the Woman's club, in Women of Woodcraft hall. The following numbers will be given: Piano, "Nocturne" (Chopin); March, Op. 39 (Alexis Hollander); "Weber-Liszt," Mrs. Alice Marshall; "Mazepa" (Liszt), two pianos, Mrs. Marshall and Mr. Hargrave; songs, (a) "Song of the Sword" (H. Clough-Lightner), (b) "Lewer Sotter" (Willeby), (c) "The Gondolier" (Combe), (d) Lorraine Lorraine, Lorraine (Capri), John Claire Monteith; lecture, "The Fuller Life," C. C. Chapman. Refreshments will be served after the program.

Will Open Art School.—The Portland Art association and the Arts and Crafts society have decided to unite in opening a school of design in this city for the benefit of artists and crafts workers. A beginning will be made in the Museum of Art as soon as a suitable teacher can be secured from the east. Arrangements are being made for the school to be held within a month or two a complete exhibition of handicraft from the best western workers will be hung at the Art Museum, which will be a means of education to all. Information in regard to the school of design may be had either at the salesroom of the Art and Crafts society or at the Museum of Art.

Richardson on Probation.—Edwin Richardson pleaded guilty to grand larceny before Judge Gantenbein in the circuit court yesterday afternoon, and was sentenced to serve two years in the penitentiary, but placed on probation during good behavior. He stole a watch and cash from a downtown store. A. G. Eddy, a conductor of the Oregon Electric, who is charged with embezzling cash fares, will be tried on April 18. George F. Livsey's trial on an embezzlement charge has been fixed for May 18.

Prize Cake Social.—A prize cake social will be given by the Ladies' guild in the basement of the Congregational church at University Park this evening. First, second and third prizes will be awarded for the best cake which will be cut and served with punch, and the rest of the cakes will be sold at auction. All unmarried ladies will be allowed to donate cakes.

Kirmess! Kirmess! Kirmess!—Armory evening of April 12, 14, 16 and 17, and Saturday matinee. Brilliant spectacle; 200 dancers in costume doing fancy dances for benefit of Open Air Sanitarium and Women's exchange.

General Booth's Birthday.—Arrangements are being made for celebrating in Portland the eightieth birthday of the veteran founder and leader of the Salvation Army, General William Booth.

Major and Mrs. Paulsen, divisional officers, are arranging a united rally of the local corps for next Monday evening at No. 4 hall, Third and Madison streets. Apart from the major's address on the life and work of General Booth, a number of other officers will talk at the meeting. Special services will be held Sunday at 3 o'clock at the hall, Third and Madison streets, and at 8 o'clock at Third and Madison streets. The public is invited to attend.

Suit Over Shallow Lakes.—On the ground that Attorney General Crawford failed to state a cause of suit in his complaint against the Union Meat company, Alexander M. Wright, Robert W. Schmeier and the Kenwood Land company, whereby he seeks to establish the title of the state to the shallow lakes on the peninsula intended to be used by the Swift packing plant, a demurrer has been filed in the circuit court in behalf of the defendants, represented by Carter & Kerr. The merits of the matter will likely be settled by the arguments on the demurrers when they come before the presiding judge.

Students from Santa Dakota.—Isaac P. Lacey and wife, accompanied by a number of students, arrived in Portland yesterday morning from southern California, where they have been spending the winter. They are guests at the Columbia Hotel. Isaac P. Lacey, a well-known Democratic orator of Santa Dakota, is accompanied by his wife and children, and is here on a tour of the Pacific coast. The party will remain in Portland, sightseeing, for several days.

Reward for Auto Thief.—Unknown persons appropriated the automobile belonging to J. H. Bowles, 333 Clinton avenue, yesterday evening, and after smashing their ride into the macadam standing on east sixteenth street between East 12th and 13th, the automobile was taken from in front of the Arlington club, where it had been left by Mr. Bowles about 8:30 in the evening. The loss was discovered shortly after 9 o'clock and the car was not found until nearly midnight by the police. Mr. Bowles offered a reward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of the guilty parties.

Confer on Heating Plant.—A meeting of the state committee appointed to confer regarding the central heating plant at Oregon State university will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the chamber of Commerce building. Other members of the committee are Judge William Smith of Baker City and John C. Ainsworth, president of the United States National bank. The appropriation for the plant this year was $125,000.

Woman's Narrow Escape.—The house belonging to J. Altire at 607 Roselawn was destroyed by fire at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday evening. The loss on building and household furniture is estimated at about $1400, with no insurance. Mrs. Altire had a very narrow escape, as she was in bed when the fire broke out and was nearly overcome by the smoke before she awoke. Her husband had gone out for the evening to call on some friends.

AT THE THEATRES

So-Hera at Pantages.
 The old theory, there is nothing new under the sun, has been exploded by the advent of the marvelous "So-Hera," who is appearing at the Pantages theatre this week. She has just arrived from London, England, after having made a triumphant tour of the world.

Big Crowd at Matinee Today.
 The Lyric theatre was crowded to the doors this afternoon with the eager public who wanted to see the Lyric Stock company in their fine production of "The Every One Second" to be well pleased and the largest business of the season is being done this week.

Richard Carle in "Mary's Lamb."
 The favorite comedian, Richard Carle and his excellent company of players will be the attraction at the Hall theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, for three nights, beginning next Thursday, April 15, in Mr. Carle's latest musical success, "Mary's Lamb." Special price matinee Saturday. Seat sale Tuesday.

Arcadia at Orpheum.
 A charming and attractive woman, Arcadia, is giving an entertaining and pleasing act at the Orpheum. Her voice is sweet and her violin obligato marvelous. Her selections are good and she is possessed of a most pleasing personality.

"David Harum" at Bungalow.
 One of the most laughable scenes witnessed in the end of the second act of David Harum at the Bungalow this week. It depicts the "Deacon" in a severe rain storm trying to make his new bay horse move—the horse he just bought from David.

Grand's Bright Show.
 There is an extra bright vaudeville entertainment at the Grand this week. The highest priced popular song in the country is used by Manuel Romaine, assisted by the Foley brothers, dancers, and Miss Palmer. This is a lively number, with several new songs and a hot dancing finish. Dan, the talking pony, appears with Carley's pantomime company.

Seat Sale Opens Tomorrow.
 Tomorrow morning the seat sale for "The Gingerbread Man" at Baker theatre will open, and great interest has been expressed in the return of this attraction, which makes such a hit last season. It will open the week next Sunday matinee. This is by far the greatest attraction Baker theatre has ever had.

Hot Cross Buns.
 Order today—Good Friday draws near. Either branch, Royal Bakery.

A REVOLUTION IN BOTTLES

The Demand Is World Wide and Urgent—We Alone Can Supply It

We are selling only a limited amount of stock at 50 cents per share, for the purpose of placing the first consignment of the bottles on the market, after which time we will advance the price to par. After our first consignment has been delivered and the manufacturers realize that they can protect their product by using Cantrefil Bottles, the demand created will be of such magnitude that it will be difficult to fill their orders. All the stock is fully paid and non-assessable. Come to our office and witness a demonstration of the bottle. We will be pleased to outline the policy upon which the business will be conducted.
