

PEE PUSHERS VS. TRUNK BEAVERS

"Check 'Dead Beat's' Baggage"—Credit Men; "Too Expensive"—Draymen.

(Special Dispatch to the Journal.) Pendleton, Or., April 10.—The Pendleton "dead beat," who would get his baggage to the depot and be out of town before the draymen or the storekeepers know is the cause of a clash between the organized draymen of the city and the Credit Men's association.

The difference of opinion was evidenced in the Pendleton credit men meeting held in the lobby of the storekeepers' lobby, when a not less than twenty were present to protest against the passage of the proposed ordinance presented a week ago by a not less than twenty of the credit men's association. The credit men conceived the idea as a means of preventing the dead beats from getting out of town without paying their bills, that a city ordinance be passed compelling all baggage to be taken first to the city recorder's office, where it would be checked off against the black list and held up if the owner were one of those leaving bad debts behind.

The baggage men contend that to compel them to be continually checking after the recorder to get an O. K. before they could make a train, was decidedly interfering with their business. One of them complained that he could not be compelled to "do something for nothing."

Unable to compromise the argument of those who objected to becoming the "sack holders," with those who refused to "do something for nothing," the recorder passed the proposed ordinance up to the ordinance committee, with instruction that it "be given careful attention. This was for the trunk beavers and the pen pushers have given careful attention. This was for the trunk beavers and the pen pushers have given careful attention.

LEFFINGWELL IS GOING FORTH

No Romantic Quest for Pole but Three Years of Solid Science.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Seattle, April 10.—Ernest De Koven Leffingwell, geologist and Arctic explorer, who will spend the next three years in mapping and surveying northern Alaska, is in Seattle today. He will remain in the city for the next few weeks superintending the construction of his yawl, the Argo, which will carry him and his little party to the north waters. The party, consisting of Leffingwell and a crew of three men, will leave Seattle about May 15 for Fram Strait, where winter quarters will be established. There will be no attempt to find an Arctic continent.

In a previous expedition Leffingwell demonstrated that there was no large body of land within several hundred miles of the North American coast. He has shown the peculiar action of the northern tides, however, he believes there may be a large undiscovered island near the pole, and he thinks Captain Amundsen, who is to search for the island next summer, may find it.

The work Leffingwell has set for himself is to make a geological survey of northern Alaska, to explore seven rivers which have been reported by natives and to mark points of longitude in the northern country. He will possibly locate the 141st parallel of longitude, which marks the boundary between the United States and Canada.

LOVELY WOMAN HAS A NEW GRIEVANCE

San Rafael, Cal., April 10.—Women of this city are up in arms today over the action of the officials of the Northwest-Pacific railroad, which has caused the communitarian women to be distinguished from those used by men.

Officials of the road stated that the discriminating marks were placed on the tickets to prevent their use by husbands, brothers and sweethearts of the women to whom the communitarian tickets were issued. The discriminating marks are red lines at the top and bottom of the ticket.

It is stated here that the women communitarians will appeal to the members of the Equal Suffrage league and the California club for their assistance in obtaining redress for what they claim is unjust discrimination between sexes.

AUSTRIAN PLUNGER FLEES; INSOLVENT

Vienna, April 10.—After leaving a trail of debts amounting in the aggregate to nearly $250,000, Fritz Reichler, "king of the usurers," is believed by the authorities to be fleeing in disguise to America. Reichler, who is regarded as the greatest European stock plunger of recent years, speculated heavily upon the probability of a war in the Balkans. He operated on the bear side when Russia withdrew her tentative support from Serbia and gave to Europe assurance of peace.

Reichler, as soon as he foresaw the failure of his plans, fled from Austria, leaving hundreds of thousands of dollars in bear false signatures. Reichler began as a small money lender, but his daring speculations placed him on a plane with Europe's leading financiers and many rich Europeans trusted him with their money for investment.

All Who Would Enjoy

good health, with his blessings, must understand, quite clearly, that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best, each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to living right. Then the use of medicines may be dispensed to advantage, but under ordinary conditions in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time and the California Fig Syrup Co. holds that it is all important to present the subject truthfully and to supply the one perfect laxative to those desiring it.

TO ALL OTHER CONTESTANTS, boys or girls, sending in more than 1000 coupons, will be given, as a special award, ONE CUT-UP PICTURE PUZZLE, which will enable its receiver to pass many a dull moment of time which may "hang heavily." In addition to the awards The Journal will allow contestants remitting for more than two subscriptions a commission of 15 per cent on all payments for new subscriptions.

How Journal Subscription Coupons May Be Secured

Single coupons will appear in every issue of The Journal (from March 10 to May 31, inclusive), and these can be cut out of The Journal and mailed or delivered to The Journal office, counting as one vote each. Those who buy a copy of The Journal upon the streets will thus obtain a coupon with each copy, and those who take the paper by mail or carrier will have the same privilege. These coupons can be clipped and sent in to any contestants credit. Coupons will be given for SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE JOURNAL, PAID FOR IN ADVANCE, as follows: One coupon for each cent of advance payment over 50 cents and up to $1.50; three coupons for every cent of advance payment over $1.50 to $3; four coupons for every cent of advance payment over $3 to $5; and five coupons for every cent of advance payment over $5. Thus a person taking The Daily Journal for a month and paying 50 cents in advance would be entitled to 50 coupons; one paying 65 cents for the daily and Sunday for a month in advance, would receive 130 coupons, two for every cent paid; and larger sums of payment for subscription to the Daily, Sunday or Semi-Weekly Journal will secure the proportionate number of coupons as detailed above.

To those soliciting contract subscriptions, delivered by carrier, for which no advance payment is required, coupons will be given as follows: For contract subscription of three months' term, 150 coupons; four months, 250 coupons; six months, 500 coupons; 12 months, 1500 coupons. If the contract subscriber takes and pays for the paper for the full term contracted for, the respective contestant will be paid a cash commission of 10 per cent on the amount collected by The Journal from his or her contract subscriptions.

SUPPOSE
OLD LADY NUMBER 31
in an Old Ladies' Home of Shoreville, Long Island.
Don't you think that some unusual fun could be extracted from such a ridiculous situation?
Wouldn't you say to the skinny but tender-hearted "Miss Abigail" "Aunt Nancy Smith," and "Butterfly Blossom," and what they said to you, be worth hearing and laughing over?
Just such a fate befell old "Cap'n Rose," who in his early days was a Long Island life saver. At the end of his resources he expected to go to board on the county" while the wife of his youth was to join the ladies at the "Home," but the ladies bountifully adopted "Cap'n Rose"; and of such materials
