WHEAT MARKET FOR CATTLE

DISASTROUS FIRE WILL ADVERTISE FOR ENGINEER

Conditions Are Mixed as Usual This Time of Year—Other Markets Down

PORTLAND LIVESTOCK RUN, Hogs, Cattle, Sheep, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday.

TODAY'S WHOLESALE MARKETS

Butter situation still mixed. Salmon and halibut lower. Canned tomatoes are weak. Strawberries come from Sacramento. Potatoes steady; onions firm. Egg market holds quite firm. Local trade remains brisk. Bananas arrive in good condition. Dressed meats hold price.

Annual Butter Conference

Conditions in the local butter market today are but a repetition of what has happened in this market in former seasons during the period wherein prices are on the down grade. Several city creameries and a number of outside makers are quoting 27c a pound, and are holding out stiffly for 28c, and say they are unable to fill their orders even at this price.

Producers Are Getting Interested

To the producer of cream the controversy now raging in the local butter market is of very much interest. Just whether it is better for him to secure a lower price for his cream now than to secure a serious break later on by allowing the California producer to come here in great quantities in quest of a market to divide for himself.

Butter Supply Short, Say Home

That they are getting enough butter to supply the wants of their trade is the assertion of several city makers. "We are not making enough butter to fill our orders," says one of the makers of the Hazelwood company, and therefore I see no reason why we should drop the price. The fact that our butter is lower than yours makes no difference. We are having no trouble at all in selling butter to Puget sound, even though California is not doing so well.

Producers Test Sentiment of Buyers of 1909 Wheat Crop

What the attitude of Portland buyers was on the coming harvest. While unwilling to hold of bluestem September option at $1.10 a bushel, there was a sale of 6000 bushels of bluestem on the board at $1.10 a bushel.

Opening in New York Is Higher With Firm Feeling—Losses Late in Day.

New York, April 12.—The stock market started quite firm with some advance in prices, but the closing was weak and generally lower.

Sellers of Wheat Go Short Again in Chicago on the New Crop Deliveries.

Chicago, April 12.—The wheat market today was characterized by a general selling of the September and December options owing to the belief that the present high price discounts in full all present damage to the growing wheat. Nevertheless, Fatten held the May and July up and each made a new high record.
