Stuffing—Made from soft bread crumbs, one cupful; melted butter, two tablespoonfuls; parsley, cut fine, two tablespoonfuls; celery, cut fine, two tablespoonfuls; salt, one half teaspoonful; panrika, one eighth teaspoonful; onion juice, one half teaspoonful. Trim edges of steak, spread over it the stuffing, roll and tie it and lay it on the onion and carrot in a pan with the suet on top. Pour the water or stock into the pan, cook closely covered for 29 minutes or more in a hot oven, then uncover and cook 30 minutes longer. Serve with brown gravy made from drippings in the pan.

Good Bread Pudding. IS not at all necessary to have bread pudding heavy and soggy.

Rightly made it is light, nutritious and economical. Try this way: Slice state bread and spread each slice with butter; lay them in buttered pudding dish. Now prepare a custard mixture of milk eggs, sugar and flavor to your lasts and pour over the bread to fill of milk eggs, sugar and flavor to your taste and pour over the bread to fill the dish. Put a small plate on top of the bread to keep it under the custard and seak for an hour. Then remove the plate and bake pudding till the custard is set. To be eaten hot or cold. Do not crush the bread and do not soak in anything but the sweetened custard; therein Hes its delicacy. If wanted a little more elaborate dot the top of the pudding with bits of jelly and cover with meringue lightly browned in the oven.

Care should always be taken not to get any such thing too sweet when preparing it for an invalid, for to most people it will be far more pleasing if a triffe tart. Nothing is more refreshing to the invalid than the stiffly beaten white of an egg with a few drops of lemon or orange juice in it, fed by teaspoonfuls. If kept in a cold place this keeps well several hours.

Eistory of the Case.

The case originated in November, 1997, when J. W. Van Cleave, president of the Buck's Stove & Range company, and also president of the National Manufacturers association, agd who is known as one of the most active foes of organized labor, brought an action for $240,060 damages against the American council and at the same time applied for an injunction pending the determination of the original action, to prohibit the federation from in any way advising organized labor and its friends that the company is unfair to its employes. On December 23, 1987, the court made permanent an injunction forbidding the federation and its officers from continuing their campaign against the Buck's Stove & Range company or publishing the manufacturers.
