A. G. Rushlight, Candidate for Mayor of Portland.

Within the past few days the strength of Mr. Rushlight has begun to grow steadily, and each day sees new recruits to the already large force of supporters which is lined up behind him. The Rushlight candidacy is attracting the support of many of the labor voters, and it is expected that he will have a majority of the laboring men behind him when the vote is taken in the primaries.

HARRIMAN MAY GET DESCHUTES ROUTE, BUT HE MUST BUILD

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.) Washington, April 19.—After a visit by Joseph N. Teal of Portland, and Senator Chamberlain to the department, the secretary of the interior has promised to decide as to the Deschutes project today or tomorrow. It is the belief at the department that Secretary Ballinger will rule that Harriman may build through the canyon, which necessitates the abandonment, in part at least, of plans heretofore formed by the reclamation service in that locality. It is hoped it may be possible to reform the plans to permit both the railroad and the reclamation service to carry out their projects. In the event that Harriman is permitted to proceed, it is understood it is to be with the distinct agreement that the railroad shall not be constructed, there being no question as to the distinctness of the promise made by Harriman.
