Handsome Dresses Worth to $58.50 Special Friday at $16.95

Lot of 200 one-piece costumes that our suit buyer now in New York, ever on the alert for out-of-the-ordinary bargains, picked up at a mere fraction of their real value. Decidedly dashing gowns made of silk or wool materials in plain colors, handsomely trimmed and in all ways the most desirable garments that we've had to offer in any sale this season. They are fresh and new, just unpacked and have never been shown before we place them on sale at the absurdly low price quoted here. Made of plain or fancy panamas, Venetians, taffetas, rajahs, foulards and messaline silks. Some are made in plain styles simply trimmed with straps and ties, while others are elaborately garnished with braids, yokes of embroidered nets, Persian braid, etc. The colors wistaria, taupe, mulberry, reseda, champagne, tan, Atlantic blue, navy and black. Regular values in the lot up to $58.50, choice for one day only—and that is Friday—$16.95

A Glorious Millinery Sale Portland's Greatest Selling Event

Fresh from the workrooms of one of the best known and most tasteful wholesale milliners in the East, comes two thousand of this season's choicest hats.
 Our millinery chief made a hurried trip in response to a wire stating that this house had an immense lot of hats that a buyer with the output to take them all would get at his own price.
 It was the largest single purchase made by any one house on the Pacific coast this season, and we were glad to buy them all—would have taken more at the price we paid.
 Clever creations that sparkle with originality and good taste, the very best styles and the largest assortment that has ever been offered in one great sale to the discriminating buyers of Portland.
