

Town Topics

TONIGHT'S AMUSEMENTS

Heilig....."The Mills of the Gods"
Bungalow....."The First Born"
Orpheum.....Vaudeville
Grand.....Vaudeville
Pantages.....Vaudeville

Lectures on Slum Work.—Mrs. Mary Estill, commissioner, and Mrs. French of the Salvation Army, who are in charge of slum work for the western states, arrived in this city yesterday and will hold a meeting this afternoon at 2 p. m. at the Y. W. C. A. for women and a general meeting this evening at the First Presbyterian church, when the modern work and its needs will be presented. A large attendance of Salvation Army adherents and others is expected. A band will be present to furnish music. All who are interested in this work and who would like to meet Mrs. Estill and Mrs. French are invited to attend these meetings.

Observe Shakespeare Day.—Tonight at 8 o'clock at the Baptist church, Eleventh street and Taylor, a play will be given to observe the 400th anniversary of Shakespeare's birth. C. C. Chapman will deliver the address. Claude Hicks will read a poem from "Julius Caesar," "Othello," and "Richard III." J. D. Stevens will read from the famous "Essay on Criticism." The play will be "The Taming of the Shrew," written by Shakespeare. The music will be given by the choir. Admission will be free.

Flower Found in River.—The body of an unknown man was found floating in the Willamette river at 8 o'clock last evening by H. E. Anderson of the Oregon Round lumber company. The body was found in the river, and was identified as that of a foreigner about 40 years of age, thin build, with a full black beard. He had a full black beard.

Head of Mosquitoes Here.—A reception was tendered Mrs. Frances E. Burns of St. Louis, great commander of the Ladies of the Good Will, by the local chapter last evening in Alamy hall. Mrs. Burns is making a tour of the lodges west of the Mississippi and is accompanied by Mrs. Mary Burgess of Seattle. The order, which was formed in 1886, now has enrolled 85,000 members. It is the largest of the other cities of the northwest before returning home.

Seventh Ward Club.—The Seventh Ward Auxiliary Push club held a meeting last night at Millard avenue hall and appointed a committee to make a tour of the United East Side Push clubs April 26 at Rodney hall. A committee was also appointed to wait on the Home Telephone company and endeavor to secure that service for the residents of the district. The meeting was enthusiastic and well attended.

Give Railway Thanks.—Appreciating the efforts which the Portland Railway, Light & Power company is making to clear Grand avenue in shape before the Rose Festival, the East Side Business Men's club last night passed a vote of thanks to the railway company. Plans for the raising of funds for the east side's participation in the Rose Festival were also discussed last night, but definite action was postponed till the next meeting.

Body Not Identified.—The man found yesterday afternoon in a lodging house at Second and Burnside is still unidentified. From papers on him he appears to be either J. J. O'Connell or Louis Robinson. The man had been in the house for three days and apparently died of suffocation due to asthma.

Fined for Cruelty.—Domestic Teresa, a fruit peddler, was arrested yesterday on a charge of cruelty to animals on complaint of humane officer W. T. Shanahan. He had been using a horse which had a badly rubbed neck. He was fined $5 by Judge Van Zante this morning.

Losses Hand in Mill.—F. G. Lichtenberger of 461 East Morrison street was injured yesterday while working on the Standard Box & Lumber company where he is employed. His hand was caught in a piece of machinery and ground to pulp. It was amputated at the Good Samaritan hospital.

Seattle Asks Data.—The taxation committee of the Seattle chamber of commerce has written the Portland chamber asking for data on municipal government by commission, a subject which has been taken up by the Seattle institution.

Send Company Fined.—A fine of $220 was assessed against the Star Sand company yesterday by the street committee of the executive board, which found the company to be unreasonably delinquent on a contract for the improvement of Shaver street with macadam.

Jim Hill in Again.—Jim Hill, an old offender as a plain drunk and vagrant, was sent to the rockpile for 30 days this morning for vagrancy. Jim was arrested last night while he was preparing to go to sleep under a tree on East Tenth street. Jim is about 65 years old.

Free—Decorated Chins plates will be presented free to all lady visitors Saturday afternoon at the Rex Furniture store, 230 Second street, where exceptional furniture bargains will be offered at greatly reduced figures.

W. O. W.—Head Consul I. I. Bosk will speak to men at 112 East Sixth street, this evening. All Woodmen and their friends are welcome. Good program, everything free.

May Locate Automobile.—C. W. Mower, the man who was run down on the Sandy road last Sunday, was struck by a Lasher car according to a witness to the accident who had been located. The Keats Automobile agency handles these cars and states that but three have been sold in Portland. It has furnished the police with the names of the owners of these cars and the police will investigate. The Brotherhood of American Yeoman has offered a reward of $15 for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who ran Mr. Mower down.

MUSICAL PROGRAM

AT NEW GOLDEN EAGLE STORE

SATURDAY NIGHT, APRIL 24

March—"Boys of the Militia"
Cake Walk—"Mr. Black Man"
Selection—"The Blue Dan"
Waltz—"Irene"
Intermission—"Nippon"
Two Step—"Mandy"
Selection—"The Little Dutchess"
Waltz—"Flora"
Medley Two Step—"I Want Some one to Call Me Dearie"
Three Step—"Lucky Moon"
New Barn Dance—"S. R. Henry"
Selection—"Maid Marian"
Song Waltz (new)—"Sunbonnet"
Medley Overture—"Southern Medley"
.....George Stitt

ENTERTAINMENT

FIRST M. E. CHURCH

Cor. Third and Taylor Sts.

TONIGHT AT 8:15 O'CLOCK

PART I—Organ and piano overture, soprano and contralto solos and dramatic readings

PART II—An Allegory

Tickets only 15 cents

nished the police with the names of the owners of these cars and the police will investigate. The Brotherhood of American Yeoman has offered a reward of $15 for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who ran Mr. Mower down.

Will Lecture for Synod.—Rev. W. J. McKnight, synodical lecturer of the Reformed Presbyterian church, will be in the city Sunday, and will hold three services at the church of the Stranget, corner Wasco and Grand avenue. Mr. McKnight's subjects are as follows: Morning—"The Sabbath a Divine Institution"; afternoon, 3 p. m., "The Psalms in Worship"; evening, 7:30, "Loyalty to Christ in Civic Life." Mr. McKnight is touring the Pacific coast and giving these lectures in different churches.

Found on Streets.—Three pairs gloves, four umbrellas, hat, two lunch boxes, cape, overcoat, suitcase, pair overalls, chair, watch, purse, medicine case, small sack with contents, castings, nine rolls wire, grip, books.

Will Open New Church.—The church opening exercises of the United Evangelical church, at Oakley Green, next Sunday morning, will be held under the auspices of Bishop Hill.

We sponge and press your clothes. shine your shoes, all for $1.50 month. Main 514, A-414. Wagons run everywhere. Unique Tailoring Co., 509 Stark.

Kelly's Family Liquor Store. Park and Morrison. High grade wines and liquors. One price to all. Free delivery. Tel. Main 28. Home, A-2802.

Dancing at Ringier hall every Tues. Thursday and Sat. eve. Refined dancing for patrons of the better class only. Montrose Ringier, manager.

Steamer Jessie Watkins. for Camas, Washoulet and way landings, daily, except Sunday. Leaves Washington street dock at 2 p. m.

Girls, get your swimming suits ready. The Y. W. C. A. pool will be opened May 1, with Miss Millie Schloth as teacher.

Oaks Pavilion.—Dancing every Sunday evening. Take Oregon City cars, at East Morrison and Water streets.

Ladies' Sample Suits.—See Lang, sixth floor Marquam, rooms 614-15. You can save one half.

Dr. Hagyard, veterinary surgeon. Office B. & O. Transfer stables. Phone Main 1077.

Woman's Exchange. 133 Tenth street, lunch 11:30 to 3; business men's lunch.

Shanahan, commercial view, flash-light photographer. C-1099, East 62nd.

W. A. Wise and associates, palmists astrologers, Third and Washington.

Gasoline and Coal Oil.—Telephone Red Tank Oil Co., 130 First street.

Home Oil Co., fine oil and gasoline. Phone Main 1236, A-1236.

American Bank & Trust Co.—Sixth and Oak.

Dr. E. C. Brown, Eye-Ear. Marquam.

Dr. Haynes, optician, Salmon near 5th.

AT THE THEATRES

Seats Selling for Norman Hackett. Seats are now selling at box office, Heilig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, for the favorite actor, Norman Hackett. This clever young star and his splendid company, who present the brilliant comedy drama, "Classmates," at this theatre for three nights, beginning next Sunday, April 25.

Last Time at Heilig Tonight. The attraction at the Heilig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, tonight will be the last performance of Ernest Shuter's company in George Broadhurst's comedy drama, "The Mills of the Gods," one of the best plays this clever author has written.

Dogs of Rare Ability. The Pantages theatre has played many dog acts, but certain it is there is not one in vaudeville today the peer of Lafayette's acrobatic canines. They accomplish with ease every stunt in the acrobatic line, from ordinary flip-flop to double summersaults. See them and be convinced.

Black Patti Matinee. The admirers of the famous colored singer, Black Patti, and her company of singers, funmakers and dancers, will have to take advantage of the last three performances tonight, tomorrow matinee or night. They are presenting "The

LA TOSCA CORSETS P. CENTEMERI KID GLOVES TOKIO PARASOLS

F. P. YOUNG Washington and Seventh Sts.

Big Kid Glove Day SATURDAY

$4 LONG KID GLOVES $1.98 Colors only.

$1.75 Suede KID GLOVES $1.45 P. Centemeri make; black, white or colors.

$1.25 CHAMOIS KID, 95¢ Washable one-clasp; cream or white.

$3.50 12-BUTTON CAPE $1.98 Tans only; all sizes.

NEW NECKWEAR Most beautiful assortment.

THE QUALITY SHOP

Our $5 Hat

THE GRANDEST $5 HAT YET GIVEN WILL BE THE SPECIAL FEATURE OF MILLINERY SALE FOR SATURDAY. VALUES TO $10, OUR PRICE $5.

200 beautifully trimmed Hats, the "Kitty Grey," "Mary Garden" and sailor shapes, flower laden also nobby fruit effects, grasses, etc.; sailor hats for every color of suit, dressy hats and styles for all ages; every want can be supplied here at the modest price of $5.00

Hoffman Millinery Company

303 Washington St. Cor. Fifth, Just Opp. Olds, Workman & King

PHYSICIAN ARRESTED

"ON BURGLARY CHARGE"

Frederick von Faulkenstein, a physician with offices in the Abington building, is in the city jail, having been arrested on a charge of burglary on complaint of E. J. Hyland, Hyland who runs a second hand book store claims that Von Faulkenstein broke into his place of business at 311 Second street November 21 last and took a number of valuable books.

The doctor claims that a mistake has been made. He says he has been purchasing books at this store and that the books found in his office are among those purchased there.

European Acrobats Next Week. The four Dordenes, wonderful acrobats, will be seen at the Pantages theatre next week. The principle feature act will be "Rivoli," lightning European character change artist and impersonator of famous musicians, including Liszt, Massenet, Verdi, Rossini, Suppe, Strauss and Gounod.

"The Private Secretary." Next week the Baker stock company will be seen in the famous comedy, "The Private Secretary," which opens at the Bungalow Sunday matinee. The star role of Spalding, the real secretary created by the great English actor Deeborn Tree, will be played by James Gleason.

Life in Chinatown. Real life in the famous Chinatown of old San Francisco is vividly pictured in the Baker stock company's production of "The First Born" at the Bungalow this week. It is one of the most novel and startling offerings made by the company in many seasons.

Great and Clever Jugglers, Orpheum The five juggling Normans are among the world's best in their particular line. They handle Indian clubs in a style strictly their own, and they perform feats that no one else does. They are known in Europe as well as on the American stage.

Great Tenor at Orpheum. Thomas Farnes and Edith Mason in their little skit, "Jealous About Nothing," are very entertaining. Both have remarkable voices and they give them opportunities for showing them. Miss Mason as a German girl is a scream. Their voices show careful training.

New Attractions. Many new attractions will be on the program which opens at the Grand next Monday. The Quaker City Four, a noted quartet; Frank Bush, a natural comedian and story teller; Nita Allen & Co., in a sketch by Cressy, will be among the features sent by Sullivan & Considine.

Send the children to the Grand tomorrow. where a doll is given by May Row, where a doll is given by May Row, where a doll is given by May Row.

Woman's Exchange. 133 Tenth street, lunch 11:30 to 3; business men's lunch.

Shanahan, commercial view, flash-light photographer. C-1099, East 62nd.

W. A. Wise and associates, palmists astrologers, Third and Washington.

Gasoline and Coal Oil.—Telephone Red Tank Oil Co., 130 First street.

Home Oil Co., fine oil and gasoline. Phone Main 1236, A-1236.

American Bank & Trust Co.—Sixth and Oak.

Dr. E. C. Brown, Eye-Ear. Marquam.

Dr. Haynes, optician, Salmon near 5th.

AT THE THEATRES

Seats Selling for Norman Hackett. Seats are now selling at box office, Heilig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, for the favorite actor, Norman Hackett. This clever young star and his splendid company, who present the brilliant comedy drama, "Classmates," at this theatre for three nights, beginning next Sunday, April 25.

Last Time at Heilig Tonight. The attraction at the Heilig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, tonight will be the last performance of Ernest Shuter's company in George Broadhurst's comedy drama, "The Mills of the Gods," one of the best plays this clever author has written.

Dogs of Rare Ability. The Pantages theatre has played many dog acts, but certain it is there is not one in vaudeville today the peer of Lafayette's acrobatic canines. They accomplish with ease every stunt in the acrobatic line, from ordinary flip-flop to double summersaults. See them and be convinced.

Black Patti Matinee. The admirers of the famous colored singer, Black Patti, and her company of singers, funmakers and dancers, will have to take advantage of the last three performances tonight, tomorrow matinee or night. They are presenting "The

LA TOSCA CORSETS P. CENTEMERI KID GLOVES TOKIO PARASOLS

F. P. YOUNG Washington and Seventh Sts.

Big Kid Glove Day SATURDAY

$4 LONG KID GLOVES $1.98 Colors only.

$1.75 Suede KID GLOVES $1.45 P. Centemeri make; black, white or colors.

$1.25 CHAMOIS KID, 95¢ Washable one-clasp; cream or white.

$3.50 12-BUTTON CAPE $1.98 Tans only; all sizes.

NEW NECKWEAR Most beautiful assortment.

THE QUALITY SHOP

Our $5 Hat

THE GRANDEST $5 HAT YET GIVEN WILL BE THE SPECIAL FEATURE OF MILLINERY SALE FOR SATURDAY. VALUES TO $10, OUR PRICE $5.

200 beautifully trimmed Hats, the "Kitty Grey," "Mary Garden" and sailor shapes, flower laden also nobby fruit effects, grasses, etc.; sailor hats for every color of suit, dressy hats and styles for all ages; every want can be supplied here at the modest price of $5.00

Hoffman Millinery Company

303 Washington St. Cor. Fifth, Just Opp. Olds, Workman & King

PHYSICIAN ARRESTED

"ON BURGLARY CHARGE"

Frederick von Faulkenstein, a physician with offices in the Abington building, is in the city jail, having been arrested on a charge of burglary on complaint of E. J. Hyland, Hyland who runs a second hand book store claims that Von Faulkenstein broke into his place of business at 311 Second street November 21 last and took a number of valuable books.

The doctor claims that a mistake has been made. He says he has been purchasing books at this store and that the books found in his office are among those purchased there.

European Acrobats Next Week. The four Dordenes, wonderful acrobats, will be seen at the Pantages theatre next week. The principle feature act will be "Rivoli," lightning European character change artist and impersonator of famous musicians, including Liszt, Massenet, Verdi, Rossini, Suppe, Strauss and Gounod.

"The Private Secretary." Next week the Baker stock company will be seen in the famous comedy, "The Private Secretary," which opens at the Bungalow Sunday matinee. The star role of Spalding, the real secretary created by the great English actor Deeborn Tree, will be played by James Gleason.

Life in Chinatown. Real life in the famous Chinatown of old San Francisco is vividly pictured in the Baker stock company's production of "The First Born" at the Bungalow this week. It is one of the most novel and startling offerings made by the company in many seasons.

Great and Clever Jugglers, Orpheum The five juggling Normans are among the world's best in their particular line. They handle Indian clubs in a style strictly their own, and they perform feats that no one else does. They are known in Europe as well as on the American stage.

Great Tenor at Orpheum. Thomas Farnes and Edith Mason in their little skit, "Jealous About Nothing," are very entertaining. Both have remarkable voices and they give them opportunities for showing them. Miss Mason as a German girl is a scream. Their voices show careful training.

New Attractions. Many new attractions will be on the program which opens at the Grand next Monday. The Quaker City Four, a noted quartet; Frank Bush, a natural comedian and story teller; Nita Allen & Co., in a sketch by Cressy, will be among the features sent by Sullivan & Considine.

Send the children to the Grand tomorrow. where a doll is given by May Row, where a doll is given by May Row, where a doll is given by May Row.

Woman's Exchange. 133 Tenth street, lunch 11:30 to 3; business men's lunch.

Shanahan, commercial view, flash-light photographer. C-1099, East 62nd.

W. A. Wise and associates, palmists astrologers, Third and Washington.

Gasoline and Coal Oil.—Telephone Red Tank Oil Co., 130 First street.

Home Oil Co., fine oil and gasoline. Phone Main 1236, A-1236.

American Bank & Trust Co.—Sixth and Oak.

Dr. E. C. Brown, Eye-Ear. Marquam.

Dr. Haynes, optician, Salmon near 5th.

AT THE THEATRES

Seats Selling for Norman Hackett. Seats are now selling at box office, Heilig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, for the favorite actor, Norman Hackett. This clever young star and his splendid company, who present the brilliant comedy drama, "Classmates," at this theatre for three nights, beginning next Sunday, April 25.

Last Time at Heilig Tonight. The attraction at the Heilig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, tonight will be the last performance of Ernest Shuter's company in George Broadhurst's comedy drama, "The Mills of the Gods," one of the best plays this clever author has written.

Dogs of Rare Ability. The Pantages theatre has played many dog acts, but certain it is there is not one in vaudeville today the peer of Lafayette's acrobatic canines. They accomplish with ease every stunt in the acrobatic line, from ordinary flip-flop to double summersaults. See them and be convinced.

Black Patti Matinee. The admirers of the famous colored singer, Black Patti, and her company of singers, funmakers and dancers, will have to take advantage of the last three performances tonight, tomorrow matinee or night. They are presenting "The

LA TOSCA CORSETS P. CENTEMERI KID GLOVES TOKIO PARASOLS

F. P. YOUNG Washington and Seventh Sts.

Big Kid Glove Day SATURDAY

$4 LONG KID GLOVES $1.98 Colors only.

$1.75 Suede KID GLOVES $1.45 P. Centemeri make; black, white or colors.

$1.25 CHAMOIS KID, 95¢ Washable one-clasp; cream or white.

$3.50 12-BUTTON CAPE $1.98 Tans only; all sizes.

NEW NECKWEAR Most beautiful assortment.

THE QUALITY SHOP

Our $5 Hat

THE GRANDEST $5 HAT YET GIVEN WILL BE THE SPECIAL FEATURE OF MILLINERY SALE FOR SATURDAY. VALUES TO $10, OUR PRICE $5.

200 beautifully trimmed Hats, the "Kitty Grey," "Mary Garden" and sailor shapes, flower laden also nobby fruit effects, grasses, etc.; sailor hats for every color of suit, dressy hats and styles for all ages; every want can be supplied here at the modest price of $5.00

Hoffman Millinery Company

303 Washington St. Cor. Fifth, Just Opp. Olds, Workman & King

PHYSICIAN ARRESTED

"ON BURGLARY CHARGE"

Frederick von Faulkenstein, a physician with offices in the Abington building, is in the city jail, having been arrested on a charge of burglary on complaint of E. J. Hyland, Hyland who runs a second hand book store claims that Von Faulkenstein broke into his place of business at 311 Second street November 21 last and took a number of valuable books.

The doctor claims that a mistake has been made. He says he has been purchasing books at this store and that the books found in his office are among those purchased there.

European Acrobats Next Week. The four Dordenes, wonderful acrobats, will be seen at the Pantages theatre next week. The principle feature act will be "Rivoli," lightning European character change artist and impersonator of famous musicians, including Liszt, Massenet, Verdi, Rossini, Suppe, Strauss and Gounod.

"The Private Secretary." Next week the Baker stock company will be seen in the famous comedy, "The Private Secretary," which opens at the Bungalow Sunday matinee. The star role of Spalding, the real secretary created by the great English actor Deeborn Tree, will be played by James Gleason.

Life in Chinatown. Real life in the famous Chinatown of old San Francisco is vividly pictured in the Baker stock company's production of "The First Born" at the Bungalow this week. It is one of the most novel and startling offerings made by the company in many seasons.

Great and Clever Jugglers, Orpheum The five juggling Normans are among the world's best in their particular line. They handle Indian clubs in a style strictly their own, and they perform feats that no one else does. They are known in Europe as well as on the American stage.

Great Tenor at Orpheum. Thomas Farnes and Edith Mason in their little skit, "Jealous About Nothing," are very entertaining. Both have remarkable voices and they give them opportunities for showing them. Miss Mason as a German girl is a scream. Their voices show careful training.

New Attractions. Many new attractions will be on the program which opens at the Grand next Monday. The Quaker City Four, a noted quartet; Frank Bush, a natural comedian and story teller; Nita Allen & Co., in a sketch by Cressy, will be among the features sent by Sullivan & Considine.

Send the children to the Grand tomorrow. where a doll is given by May Row, where a doll is given by May Row, where a doll is given by May Row.

Woman's Exchange. 133 Tenth street, lunch 11:30 to 3; business men's lunch.

Shanahan, commercial view, flash-light photographer. C-1099, East 62nd.

W. A. Wise and associates, palmists astrologers, Third and Washington.

Gasoline and Coal Oil.—Telephone Red Tank Oil Co., 130 First street.

Home Oil Co., fine oil and gasoline. Phone Main 1236, A-1236.

American Bank & Trust Co.—Sixth and Oak.

Dr. E. C. Brown, Eye-Ear. Marquam.

Dr. Haynes, optician, Salmon near 5th.

AT THE THEATRES

Seats Selling for Norman Hackett. Seats are now selling at box office, Heilig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, for the favorite actor, Norman Hackett. This clever young star and his splendid company, who present the brilliant comedy drama, "Classmates," at this theatre for three nights, beginning next Sunday, April 25.