French Windjammer Brings Report of Thrilling Experiences.

TO LOAD LUMBER FOR SOUTH AFRICA

Captain Cavelan Here Seven Years Ago in French Bark Cornil Bart—French Bark Jacobsen Leaves Up to Go to Linkton Ballast Dock.

It was a stormy trip for the French ship Berengere, coming here from Mollendo, and when she reached her berth at the ballast dock at Linnton her weather-beaten crew showed traces of it. For days the sea had pounded against her bows so hard that it was with difficulty any headway at all was made and every now and then she was forced to ride under bare poles.

ALBINA WNS GAME FROM FRISKY COLTS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Forest Grove, Or., April 26.—The Tri-City league season opened here yesterday, with the "Colts" defending the home lot against the Albina "Red Sox."

The visitors won 4 to 3 after a hard fought struggle in which both teams played big league ball. There were no fancy frills or ceremonies to mark the inauguration of organized ball in automobile parade, no blare of brass trumpets, no pitching of balls by local dignitaries, no booming of cannon, just the customary announcement of the batteries for the day.
