

PRETTY GIRLS CELEBRATE

MANIAC AS A FIGURER

Case of Imbecile Who Solves Intricate Algebraic Problems. From the Philadelphia Inquirer. One of the most peculiar features of insanity is that occasionally one faculty, either sight, hearing, smell, taste, or touch, is extraordinarily acute.

Very curious was the case of another man, a devout church goer, who could remember the day when every person had been buried in the parish for 33 years, and could repeat, with unvarying accuracy, the name and age of the deceased, and could repeat the sermon word by word, saying: "Here the minister coughed; here he stopped to blow his nose; and so on."

Another curious case is that of an imbecile who, in the first place, never failed to go to church, and who on Sundays and other equally amazing words by word, saying: "Here the minister coughed; here he stopped to blow his nose; and so on."

Again the ward boss looms up in his might. Again his henchmen hurry forth to the gray wolf from his lair comes forth to fight. The front rises from the hard park bench. And with a hungry look upon his face, gets into line before the polling place.

The man whose stock in trade is politics. The day is here, the big, eventful day when fraternal should cease, and crime be swept away.
