McCray Refrigerators

Modern thought along sanitary lines and domestic science are so emphasizing the important relation between pure food and health that the McCray Refrigerator of 1909, which embodies all the latest improvements, would hardly be recognized as of the same genus as the old-fashioned zinc-lined "ice box." The McCray is the modern residence refrigerator-a high-class machine for the home-being used today in America's finest and most modern residences. Exterior case work compares with that of the best medium-grade furniture pieces. The interior construction is built under the McCray patents-a principle that involves the most perfect system of ventilation and food preservation. We are Portland agents of the McCray Refrigerators. Orders taken for specially constructed McCray Refrigerators for residence and other pur-

New Styles Brass and Iron Beds and Cribs

Displayed in our line of Brass beds are a number of the newest styles-the plain square mission effects and the heavy round-tube styles with large post vases. These handsome designs are shown in the favored satin finish. In the Iron Beds are shown several new patterns in the rich Vernis Martin finish, and also in the popular combination of cream and gold. Many new and attractive ornamental features are shown in these. In both the Brass and Iron Cribs are to be seen the same features in design and finish as in the larger beds.

CHURCH MEN FORM BASEBALL LEAGUE

Congregational young men of Portland have been organized into a club which makes a specially of religious, athletic and social, features. The program for the summer includes the organization of a Congregational baseball league. Six teams from various Portland churches of that denomination will compose the league. They will apply a series of games for the championship. The organization of the Congregational Toung Men's club was made permanent at a banquet held last Friday night at Hassalo street church. The charter members of the club expect to play basketball.

The meeting Friday night was enlivened by an interesting hasketball game by leams from Pigrim and Hassalo churches. The victory was for Hassalo, the score being 18-22. A constitution was adopted Friday night and by-laws frames. Officers will be elected at the next meeting to be held on the night of May 23.

The excellent symmasium maintained in connection with Hassalo church is a great rid to the work of the club. It is the purpose of the club organizers to induce young mes to become members of the Baraca Bible school classes which have been organized in connection with the Sunday school work of the club.
