

ARNOLD DENIES ALL HOCUS POCUS

No Mystic Nor Seer but Plain Broker; Moreover, Innocent, He Says.

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, April 25.—"I am not a Hindu priest or a seer or a mystic or anything like those things. I am a plain mining broker," said O. H. Arnold, who is held at the city prison today on a charge of grand larceny preferred by Mrs. Lillian Ross, wife of T. Patterson Ross, an architect of this city.

Arnold, who is believed by the police to have operated under the names of Al Gar and Dugan, and is charged with obtaining from Mrs. Ross jewelry and other property valued at $6,000 while she was under his tutelage in the rites of Hindu mysticism and clairvoyance, declares that he knows nothing of the property and is innocent of the charge. He was brought here from Los Angeles yesterday by Detective Sumner, who spirited him out of that city in an automobile to avoid habeas corpus proceedings instituted by his attorney.

Mrs. Ross is now at Los Angeles and has announced her intention to return to this city at an early date to prosecute Arnold. It developed today that Detectives Sumner and Freel, acting under orders of former Chief of Police Bigley, investigated the disappearance of the jewelry last summer. Arnold and his wife, said to be living under the names of Mr. and Mrs. Al Gar at that time, are alleged to have been implicated in the theft, with Amerer Dutt, a Hindu priest at Oakland. Dutt, after the investigation started, left for the east and the Al Gars were supposed to have gone to Los Angeles. A search of the warehouses of Los Angeles is said to have resulted in the recovery of some of the missing property. The police believe the greater part of the alleged loot was shipped to Chicago. Arnold has retained the services of Attorney James W. Cochran, who will defend him in the courts.

W. F. HERRIN DENIES RUMOR OF MARRIAGE

(United Press Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, April 25.—It is business, not love, coyly and cautiously admits W. F. Herrin, general counsel for the Southern Pacific, that brings him to this city. The taciturn and sedate attorney in whose hands is the management of the Harriman system in the west denied emphatically the San Francisco rumor that he was to marry a Miss, or Mrs. Robinson, who was a close friend of his late wife. The report in the papers declared Herrin, just before his private car, in which his office is situated, moved from the train about the greater part of the foundation for it. Any other woman might just as well have been named. I am not to marry the person named or any other person.

MEDICINE VENDORS' CASE IS DISMISSED

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Woodburn, Or., April 25.—The trial yesterday before Justice of the Peace Hayes of E. C. Case and J. T. Roycroft, charged with peddling medicine without a state license, resulted in a dismissal of both cases on account of insufficient evidence to convict. Prosecuting Attorney Stoll of Portland represented the state board of pharmacy and E. P. Morcom the defense. Vendors of medicine throughout the state claim that the law requiring them to pay a $200 annual license is class legislation and unconstitutional. In a similar case the one tried here will be decided in the supreme court May 3.

SEWARD TO HANG AT BOISE FRIDAY

Boise, Idaho, April 25.—All right, let them shoot their lead. When the big thing comes off? These words came from Fred Seward when informed that the state board of pardons had refused to interfere with the death sentence passed by the Moscow court in which he was convicted of the murder of the woman of the underworld. Seward will be hanged Friday morning in the state penitentiary. He was twice granted a reprieve on the ground that new evidence would be produced.

Death Roll of the Northwest

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Marshfield, Or., April 25.—The death of Clay Moore removed one of the most unique characters in the southern part of the state. He was probably the most widely known man in Coos county and was one of the most conspicuous figures in the bay cities. The sorrow expressed over his sudden death is general throughout this section. Proprietor of a saloon, a professional gambler and owner of a noted Coos Bay gambling place, Clay Moore was typical of the western character of the liberal kind. His word was a law.

Clay Moore, whose death removes from southern Oregon one of the type common to the old west. His word was his bond.

bond which none who did business with him ever questioned. Probably no other one individual or institution in the county has done more than he in a charitable way. He was a liberal donor to any cause which would help others, but the private charities which he carried on, and which he endeavored to cover up, were remarkable for any one man in any position. Hundreds who were hungry have been fed by him, acquaintances who were ill or suffering were cared for and scores of men in Marshfield have been given financial aid by him. When in the early days he conducted a gambling room, he prided himself on running a square game and frequently did he give back lost money when the loser thought he had been treated unfairly or was so situated that he could not afford to lose.

Clay Moore was born in Yamhill county, Oregon, and was 52 years old. He was at the mines in Idaho years ago but had been in Marshfield for 30 years past.

Henry Johnson. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Albany, Or., April 25.—Henry Johnson, 56 years, died at St. Mary's hospital in this city Sunday night. He was one of the oldest pioneers living in this part of the valley, having crossed the plains to Oregon in 1857. He was born where Elisa Jane Fox. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Brownsville, Or., April 25.—Mrs. Elisa Jane Fox, wife of Lewis Fox of Crawfordville, Or., died at her home Friday morning at 8 o'clock. She was born at Jericho, Chittenden county, Vt., October 3, 1842. She leaves a husband and four daughters. She was a well known and highly esteemed woman.

John Aplin. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Forest Grove, Or., April 25.—The funeral of John Aplin of Dilley, who died April 24, was held today, with burial in Forest View cemetery. Mr. Aplin was born in England 70 years ago and was a pioneer flour mill owner of Dilley, having located there about 30 years ago. His wife died about five weeks ago. He is survived by two sons, Samuel and John, who reside at Portland, one daughter, Mrs. Van Meter of Dilley.

P. J. McPherson. Eugene, Or., April 25.—P. J. McPherson, 86 years, of well known resident of Eugene died at his home in this city yesterday afternoon, from a complication of ailments, after an illness of four weeks. He was a former assessor of Lane county and had held public offices at different times during his residence here. He is survived by a wife and several other relatives.

Lee Gunson. Albany, Or., April 25.—Lee Gunson, a barber, well known in Albany, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Seehals, near Jefferson, yesterday afternoon from consumption. He was formerly in business in Lebanon. He leaves a wife and one child.

FAKE DIRECTORY PLOT IS CHARGED

Two Men Arrested at Seattle Alleged to Be Members of a Gang.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Seattle, April 25.—Charged with being members of a gang which has swindled business firms of the east out of more than $1,000,000 on fake city directory contracts in the past 14 years, George Perth and N. Lawrence Hewes, who were arrested here last Wednesday by City Detectives James Byrne and Charles Phillips, will be taken back to Chicago.

Detectives Lausman and Zimmer of the Chicago police department have reached Seattle and have told the story of extensive swindling operations in which Perth and Hewes are alleged to be implicated. At the head of the gang of swindlers is said to be A. A. Bowen, who is now a fugitive. There are about a dozen members of the gang. Four are now under arrest at Chicago. It has been learned that the gang planned to invade the Pacific northwest with Seattle as their headquarters.

LOGAN'S SLAYER WILL BE HANGED

(By Journal Leased Salem Wire.) Salem, April 25.—After some delay the supreme court yesterday affirmed the verdict of first degree murder in the case of Joe Anderson, the murderer of Harry Logan, Anderson, who is now in the penitentiary, will be taken to Multnomah county, resented and eventually hanged. The testimony in the case tends to establish that Harry M. Logan while crossing the Fourth street railway bridge in Portland, at about 12 o'clock October 24, 1907, was shot from the effects of which he shortly afterwards died. No one saw the shooting, but an overcoat was found near the bridge a day or two afterwards and was traced to a second hand store and finally found to be the property of the defendant.

Confesses to Coal Stealing.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Pendleton, Or., April 25.—Hames Drew, a resident of Mission section, a short distance east from here on the O. R. & N., this morning confessed that he had been stealing coal for months past from the railroad company. As evidence of his guilt, Detective Wood of the O. R. & N. has recovered 114 sacks of coal in a little shed near the residence of Drew and his family.

THE PERFECT WAY

Scores of Portland Citizens Have Learned It

If you suffer from headache. There is only one way to cure it. The perfect way is to cure the kidneys. Neglect it, urinary troubles follow. Doan's Kidney Pills are made for kidneys only. Are endorsed by Portland people.

David Campbell, 170 North Eighteenth street, Portland, Or., says: "My faith in Doan's Kidney Pills today is just as great as when I recommended them several years ago; the cure they performed in my case having proven permanent. I suffered constantly from pains on my back and often was so lame and sore that it was quite difficult for me to stoop or lift. I tried various remedies and was treated by a physician, but the relief I obtained was only temporary and I was at a loss to know how to get rid of my trouble. I read so much about Doan's Kidney Pills that I was induced to try them. I procured a box at the Lase-Davis Drug Co. The contents of this box helped me so much that I continued taking the remedy and was soon cured."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—DOAN'S—and take no other.
