Salvation Army Rally—The Salvation army will hold a rousing meeting in their hall, 245 Madison street, tonight, when Lieutenant Colonel Jenkins and Mrs. Jenkins will lead. These officers are in charge of the work in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and Wyoming. There are on a tour of inspection and special meetings. All soldiers and friends are invited to attend. The new brass band will be out in full force and furnish music for the occasion. Adjutant A. D. Sloate officer will be in command.

Fellows Will Rehearse—Fifteen thousand dollars is the value of the estate left by Hannah O. Fellows, according to a petition for probate filed yesterday. The will gives $1000 to a daughter, Rhoda A. Newton of Tacoma, Wash., $1000 to Mary C. Riley and $1000 more for the education and support of Vivian McMillen, a granddaughter. The remaining $12,000 worth of property is to be equally divided between Arthur W. Fellows, Carrie O. Walker and H. J. T. Fellows.

Mount Tabor Mothers' Club—To mature plans for the final meeting in May, the Mothers and Teachers club of the South Mount Tabor school will meet at the school building Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. C. H. Blanchard will address the meeting. Mrs. Robert Palmer will be the soloist. Officers for the year will be elected. The exhibit prepared by pupils of the school for display at the A-Y-P exposition will be shown.

Favor "Dry" State—At the Anti-Saloon league meeting yesterday afternoon, it was unanimously voted to begin at once the work of having a petition brought before the voters at the election next year to make Oregon a "dry" state by an amendment to the constitution prohibiting the manufacture and sale within this state of alcoholic beverages. This will be the greatest movement ever undertaken by the Oregon Anti-Saloon league.

W. O. T. U. Mothers' Meeting—The regular monthly mothers' meeting of the Sunnyvale W. O. T. U. will be held at the home of Mrs. Hanson, 347 Marguerite avenue, Thursday, April 28, at 7:30. A good program has been arranged. Mrs. Unruh is expected to be present to give one of her excellent addresses. A very pleasant and profitable time is expected. All will be made welcome.

Forfeit $15 Bail—E. F. Vossburg and E. D. Vossburg, in the confectionery and cigar business at 597 Williams avenue, each forfeited $15 bail by non-appearance in the police court this morning to answer to a charge of assault on Ben Stern, a cigar salesman. Stern had delivered some goods when an altercation arose, during which he claimed to have been kicked out of the place.

Auto Proves Alibi—F. E. Rodman, arrested on a charge of speeding in automobile Oregon 1345, was dismissed in the police court this morning. The testimony was to the effect that Rodman's machine was in the garage at the time it is alleged to have been speeding on Union avenue. Speeding charges against A. J. Whittier and C. Morse were both continued until tomorrow.

Exhibit School Work—The Mothers and Teachers' Home Training Circle No. 5 of the West Avenue school, Mount Tabor, have planned to exhibit the work prepared by the pupils for the A-Y-P exposition at Seattle. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to view this exhibit in the various class rooms at the school building, tomorrow between 1:30 and 3 p. m.

Lunatic Butts Stove—Tom Mason was arrested at 235 North Fifteenth street by Officer Ellis last night on a charge of drunkenness and insanity. The officer was called at 10 p. m. and found that Mason had come home at 9 o'clock and started to beat the landlady of the lodging house, then tried to beat his head against a cast iron stove. Three neighbors had overpowered him.

Thrown Out of Court—A neighborhood row between Mrs. A. Trout of 240 Ebbey street and Mrs. E. N. Esten, a neighbor, failed to get into court owing to the fact that both women accused each other of having started a row by throwing rocks, etc., and as there were no witnesses the city attorney refused to allow the matter to be aired in court.

Whist Social Tonight—A whist and musical social will be given this evening in Sacred Heart church hall at Milwaukee and Boise streets, Brooklyn.

Overdraft Is Alleged—Suit for $3518 against Claude Thayer, Clark Hadley, Morris Leach and Oak Nelson has been begun in the circuit court by A. A. Murphy as the assignee of E. Thayer. It is alleged that they were silent partners of Thayer in the banking business and that they have overdrawn their account in the amount named.

Woodlawn Home Association—The regular meeting of the Woodlawn circle of the Home Training association will be held Friday at 3:30 p. m. Mrs. Nellis Trumbull will be the speaker of the day. The children's work for the A-Y-P exposition will be on exhibit from 2 to 3 p. m. Election of officers will be held.
