GRANEY'S TRIPLE BREEDS TRIPLE WINS IN TWELFTH

Graney Scores Beaver Second-Grand Baseman on a Slow Grounder to McCardle.

Happy Jack Graney went through the varying emotions of having won a game twice yesterday, once in the fourth inning and again in the twelfth, giving the Beavers a 5 to 6 victory over the always dangerous Seals from the southland. Graney was all the toffee yesterday, and had been accorded the support his flingings justified, there would hardly have been more than one score for the visitors. True, the Franciscans copped 11 hits, but it was on errors that they gathered in most of their scores.

Willis pitched a corking good game for the Seals, and was mighty miserly with his hits, six scattering ones being all that the Beavers secured. What was said of the Seals' runs might also apply to the Beavers' errors. Errors gave most of them, either errors or bases on balls.

The Seals started out at a lively clip, getting two scores in the second inning. Williams reached first and second on Olson's error, and scored on Berry's single. Berry reached, then on Moore's error by Olson, and scored on McCardle's single.

Portland drew up on leg behind in the same canto. Johnson walked, went to second on McCardle's error of Breen's grounder, took third on Kennedy's sacrifice and scored of Armbruster's out at first.

Beavers Take Lead. San Francisco made another in the third, and so did Portland. The beavers took the lead in the fourth by putting two across on an error, a fielder's choice, a passed ball, and Graney's two bases that cleared the sacks. Another was shovied over in the sixth on Graney's fielder's choice, and Ryan's single.

In the ninth the Seals tied the score on a base on balls to Mohler, Tennant's double that scored the kid, and Melchior's single.

Good fielding kept the rubber safe until the last half of the twelfth, when Dicky Breen poked the ball far out into right field for three bases. Dick made a slide to reach third, and in the dust Nick Williams lost the ball. Olson, who was coaching, was confused by the dust, and Breen would have scored had he known the ball had rolled about 20 feet off the base.

Before the players were aware of the situation, McCardle recovered the sphere. Armbruster walked, but Graney poked a slow one on McCardle's error that sent him to the plate.

SMOKER CLUB'S SPLITS IN STRIFE

Tom Williams and Dan Burns Clash on Commercialism in Racing.

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, May 7.—Internal strife has stirred up the New California Jockey club to such an extent today that little attention is being paid to plans of poolroom proprietors to test the Walker-Otis anti-betting law.

Thomas H. Williams, president of the club, and Colonel Daniel M. Burns, vice-president, are at odds. Williams has been trying to "freeze" Burns out of the club and the vice-president has announced his intention to remain on the inside.

The clash was brought about by a difference in opinion between the two men as to how the club should be conducted. Burns is understood to have argued that some of the commercialism be cut out of the racing game and to have objected to the manner in which the fight against the Walker-Otis bill was conducted at Sacramento. Williams grew "peevish" and the breach became wider.

Williams' Offer Refused. The club was to be secured by Williams' note, the stock held in escrow until the obligation was met. This failing, he is said to have made Burns a written offer for his holdings.

In the meantime Frank Daroux, proprietor of the Sausalito poolrooms is hunting for a man who will go to jail, with the chance of being sent to the penitentiary later. Daroux's poolrooms are being run by the Walker-Otis law and he is anxious to have it tested.

The plan is to have the "martyn" register his own bet, after the New York plan, and raise the contention that there can be no penalty when a bookmaker does nothing more than write the odds on a blackboard.

It will also be alleged that the title of the law is defective and that it is void because it prescribes a penitentiary sentence for a misdemeanor.

KINSY Baffles FRISKY CHAMPS

Phil Cooney's Great Fielding Shuts Northerners Out of Several Runs.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Vancouver, B. C., May 7.—Eddie Kinsella baffled the Canucks today, and Portland won, 4 to 2. Phenomenal playing on the part of little Phil Cooney, the Colt shortstop, kept the champions from becoming dangerous at several stages of the game. Kinsy kept the locals blanked until the eighth inning, when they fell on him for two runs.

Things looked bright for the home guard in the ninth, when two men were placed on bases, but Kinsella tightened up and passed through the canto unscathed.

Portland took every advantage of Paddock's momentary lapses. Directly as a result of this unsteadiness the four runs of the Oregonians were garnered. Portland scored in the fourth, sixth, seventh and ninth. The score:

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, May 7.—The two baseball games which were scheduled to be played on Friday and Saturday of this week between O. A. C. and W. S. C. have been canceled on account of the failure of the Washington "Argies" to make the Oregon tour which they had planned.

Director Angell has scheduled two games with Columbia university to take the place of the games canceled and as the "Catholics" have not been defeated this season it is expected that the games will be very close and exciting.

SMITHSON SHATTERS LOW HURDLE RECORD

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Seattle, May 7.—Forrest Smithson, champion hurdler of the world, established a new world's record of 54.5 seconds for the 50-yard low hurdles at the indoor games at the Armory last night, competing under the colors of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club of Portland.

At the time the accident occurred, Jackson, the Seattle runner, had forged ahead, while Crabbe stuck gamely to the leader, not more than three feet separating the two men. Within a yard of the tape Jackson was knocked from his feet by the weight of the falling bodies.

Although dazed and shaken, he scrambled to his feet and fell over the finish line.
