Catch in Lower Columbia Is About Half of What It Was at Season's Start.

Advances Yesterday Is Followed by Serious Break in Chicago Today.

Chicago, May 8.—The course of the wheat market was even more spectacular today than during the exciting advance of yesterday only the tide set in an opposite direction, with prices 1c to 1 1/2c a bushel lower.

To influence the local market even at the opening there was the break in Liverpool values to encourage bears. Foreign shipments of wheat have been checked in consequence of this brought about fresh selling pressure.

World's shipments of wheat for the week were 3,850,000 bushels. Russian shipments were 1,120,000 bushels and Danubian shipments 488,000 bushels.

Brooklyn Union Stockyards, May 8.—Throughout the local livestock situation there is a better feeling in effect today. The improvement permeates the entire market, and while as a general rule values are showing but little change, the buying is of much better character and this alone is improvement enough for one day in some branches of the trade.

Sheep Market Has Turned. The sheep market, so weak and bedraggled during the past week, began to show an improved buying power during the past 24 hours.

For lambs, while there is no excitement in the call, the demand is somewhat better than it has been of late and the earlier government of the market has stiffened the price somewhat.

No Hogs Since Wednesday. At the present rate of arrivals in the local hog market it will take a century to secure enough hogs here to operate a full fledged packing plant such as L. Swift is building on the peninsula.

Arrivals in the local cattle market during the past 24 hours totaled 37 head, comparing with 225 Friday, 40 Thursday, 164 Wednesday, none Tuesday and 135 head Monday.
